The Summoning

Royal Capital Palma
A world parallel to Earth, where swords and magic, humans and demihumans, and also demon race as well as monsters exist, a capital of the so called fantasy world.

In one district of this Royal Capital Palma's castle town, here, in the loading station of the Spade company, he, Banaza, today as well, was checking the luggage that being loaded into the cart.

[Banaza-san, how many more boxes still needs to be loaded?]
[Uhhhm, that cart is for the remote city of Batcombe, was it…. Please depart after loading three more boxes]
Banaza gives the instructions while comparing the documents at hand and the contents of the cart.

He, who despite being young, is being left in supervision of this place, spends his days while having a staring contest with carts, luggage and documents, and coordinating business talks that come from time to time.
He is extremely busy, but Banaza liked this kind work concerning numbers and commerce, so he spent his days fulfilling days without having much displeasure towards the situation.

[Now…. That should be the last of the shipments leaving first thing in the morning….]
After finishing checking the documents and the other line of carts that are unloading another time, seeing that the numbers match perfectly, Banaza nodded, as if satisfied.
[Well then, guess I'll go to eat lunch after checking the luggage to be loaded in afternoon shipments]
While saying that, Banaza lifted his head from the documents.

And

『The summoning of 198th Hero candidate was successful』

…..Excuse me?

Seeing the surroundings clearly different from the Spade company's luggage loading station where he was supposed to be until just now, Banaza was dumbfounded.
[Hero candidate-sama, please come over here]
Something like a miko looking female was talking, but Banaza who couldn't understand the situation happening to him, didn't realise that the words were addressed to him, just remained standing in place.

Where he was now looked like the middle of an altar, with a number of priest and magician looking people surrounding it while continuing to chant some magic chant.
This altar seemed to be inside even a bigger building, and the whole aspect of the place couldn't be seen with just the light coming through a few stained glass windows.

[Hero candidate-sama, the next candidate will be summoned shortly. Please move here quickly]
The aforementioned miko, took Banaza's hand, who was looking around in confusion, and moved him away from the magic circle.
Towards Banaza, who let himself be pulled off the magic circle, the miko, after properly facing him, respectfully bowed down.
[Hero candidate-sama. For answering our, magic kingdom of Cryroad's summons, thank you very much. This might be sudden, but we shall have Hero candidate-sama go through ability measurement]

…Summons?…..Answering?….Me?

Banaza gets even more confused with miko's words.

[You seem to be confused because of this abruptness. Well then, I shall explain briefly while the measurement taking place]
After saying that, the miko started explaining while leading Banaza.

According to miko's explanation
This place, magic kingdom of Cryroad, is one of the countries in another world that exists in a different dimension than the one that Banaza lived.

Cryroad is a giant nation that boasts having the biggest territory in this world, and is ruling many existing countries as their leader.

In this world, exists a king of the demon race, called the Maou[1] , and various countries with Cryroad on the top of the list, are currently are exposed to the invasion of this Maou's army.
Cryroad, that is the leading power, in order to subjugate this Maou, summons people that can become Heroes from other worlds, and try to oppose this invasion.

As to why they summon from other worlds,
It was because, the ones summoned from another world into this one, almost without exception, get a divine protection from the gods of the Celestial world.
Because this divine protection, in most cases, is extremely powerful, rather than appointing the strong ones of this world as the Hero, even more powerful Heroes are born.

[A Hero-sama, who was summoned over a hundred years in the past, at the moment of his summoning, despite being Lv1, had the five main aspects of Strength, Defense, Speed, Magic Power[2] and HP all at 999, you know]
In this world the standard size of the main aspects is 10, and with each time LV grows, supposedly this number increases.
All numbers being 999 at Lv1 is the peak one can get to at LV1, and is said to be impossible unless a miracle happens.
If LV rises, those numbers also rapidly increase, but for those with high initial numbers, that increase being staggering is usual, it seems.

……More like, why was I summoned in the first place?
He, who was a simple business man in his original world, was having a weird feeling to the whole premise, and was tilting his head.
[This power, that is hidden within oneself, is often not felt by the person concerned. Now, please raise your hand over this crystal]
In the place that the miko was pointing to, was a pedestal, about the height of Banaza's hips, with a blue crystal left upon it, that was shining solemnly.

Banaza raises his hand over the crystal as told.
The miko, after respectfully bowing, peeked into it.

[……..Are?]

The miko, after blinking in surprise, rubs both of her eyes with her fingers. And peeks into the crystal once again.

[……What does this mean….]
While listening to the miko's words, Banaza already knew their meaning.

Banaza could also see the numbers floating inside the crystal he was raising his hand upon, but

Lv・・・ 1
STR・・・ 9
DEF・・・ 8
SPD・・・ 6
MP・・・ 1
HP・・・10

Imagining from what the miko explained just now, inside this crystal were displayed the numbers almost the same as an ordinary grown male of this world.

[No trace of additional points from God…this can't be… this kind of case, it's the first time….]
Looks like magicians, who were around, are gathering after noticing the bewildered miko.
Those people, after seeing Banaza's numbers in the crystal, got similarly confused, and started discussing noisily in small voices.

It was then.

[Aah! How wonderful! A person rivaling the power of the legendary Hero has been summoned!]
Before the person, who was raising his hand over the crystal right next to Banaza, a different miko from the one that brought Banaza, was raising her voice trembling in excitement, while crying tears of gratitude.

Inside that crystal

Lv・・・ 1
STR・・・999
Def・・・999

SPD・・・999
MP・・・999
HP・・・999

Numbers like this are lined up.
According to the miko's explanation earlier, these are the same numbers, that the Hero who appeared over a hundred years ago had at the moment of his summoning at Lv1.

The man in front of that crystal, had his robust body clad in magnificent armor, which makes you imagine that he's probably some country's knight.
Almond shaped eyes, and golden long hair. That man who has the beauty that might even be able to charm other men…
[Is that so…I was chosen as the Hero that will save this world, is that how it is]
[It is! Hero-sama! Please save us!]

Before he was aware, even the miko who was in front of Banaza, had rushed over to that blonde knight and raising cheers.

While looking at that scene with a side glance, Banaza just remained standing in a daze.

After that, under the pretense of celebration of Hero's birth, the whole castle was raised up, and a magnificent banquet was held, in which that blonde knight, was officially named as this world's Hero.

Banaza, who wasn't invited by anyone, nor ordered to go anywhere, having nothing else to do, headed to the corner of this banquet's venue, and silently carried food to his mouth.
He tried asking someone about the situation, but everyone
[I'm busy with preparations for Hero-sama's celebration!]
[I have to chat up the Hero-sama! Don't hinder me!]
was in that kind of condition, and not even one person lent their ears to Banaza's words.

After that, the banquet continued on for 3 days and 3 nights
Because the venue wasn't closed, Banaza was spending that time while sleeping and waking on the sofa in one of the corners of it.

And so, after the celebration was finally over

Banaza found and called out the miko who initially explained this and that to him.
The miko, after seeing Banaza's face, was puzzled at first, but it seemed like the memories started flowing back in, and she first raised her voice with an "Aah!", and then, went pale.
[…..You….Why are you still here?]

1 Lit. Demon Lord, though you probably know that. I'll be leaving it like that for now.
2Could mean magical power or mana, not clear. I'll be shortening it to MP, as it could stand as acronym for one or the other.

Relocation

According to the miko
The ones concluded as not having Hero aptitude, would normally be returned to their original world within that day.
That being said, the reason is, because if it isn't within that day, the gates to the original world become closed down.

And so, right now is the third day that Banaza has been summoned.

After that,
The results of investigating this and that, the fact that in the happiness of successfully summoning a Hero, everyone forgot about it, and Banaza, who was originally supposed to be returned right away, but was completely forgotten by everyone, was confirmed.
The summoners did look into this and that, but came to the conclusion that returning Banaza to his original world was nearly impossible.
Now that the gates to the world he originally was had closed, finding them among the gates to other worlds, which number more than the stars, was close to impossible.
After hearing those words, Banaza could only go pale and stiffen up right where he stood.

After a few hours

Banaza, who got lead through to the castle's throne room, was having an audience with this country's king.
From the advisers, what was told as the king's words was

This case is all magic country of Cryroad's fault, heartfelt apologies are given
As such, a special permission to live in this world is given
However, living in the city is forbidden, only permission to set up an abode in the Delabeza forest north of here is given Coming in and out of cities is permitted, however, disclosing this incident is forbidden

As an apology, money, 1 billion belia, and goods needed for immediate future will be given the rough outline of the agenda.

After the audience ended, Banaza was made to walk to the carriage, and left the capital as he was.
Even Banaza understood that this was a polite way of getting rid of a nuisance, so he was already in a giving up mode, but inside the carriage, decided to ask this and that to the maid that was to take care of him until the forest.

According to her,
Belabeza forest is a backward region, more than 20 days of travel away from the capital
Monsters and demihumans do live there, but there are no human settlements
「Even we don't know much about that land, so how about exploring various things yourself?」
Was what she said while smiling

….This is basically telling me to go and die like a dog, isn't it

To magical country of Cryroad's obvious intentions, Banaza let out a deep sigh. He did think that he was a thorn at the country's side, but they were the ones who selfishly summoned him, and on top of that because of their error he became unable to go back to his world.

….There could've at least been something, couldn't it….at least sheltering me in the castle or something….

That kind of thought did float up, but he thought that if he wasn't careful, he could be imprisoned in the castle's prison until death, so Banaza decided to think that at least being free was a bit better.

And so after 20 days
「Well then, Banaza-sama, we shall excuse ourselves here」
After letting out Banaza in the plains before the Delabeza forest, the carriage group hurriedly gave their goodbyes, and hastily turned around.

When separating from the maid, Banaza got this simple equipment called magical bag, which at first sight looks like a small bag, but it was a magic item that could fit as much as a treasury house.[1]

Checking the insides of the magical bag, before his eyes a list of the contents was displayed.

・Money・・・1 billion Belia
Explanation: Currency of the magic country of Cryroad ・House Construction Magic・・・・1 set
Explanation: Can establish a house in a desired place (remodeling・retrieval・re-establishment possible : magic item)
・Perpetual Water Bag・・・2 bags
Explanation: Magic item that perpetually lets out water fit for drinking ・Simple Preserved Food・・99 portions Explanation: Preserved food (eaten as is) ・Clothes・・・20 sets
Explanation: Set of clothing (regular citizen of magic kingdom of Cryroad styled) ・Equipment・・・8 sets
Explanation: Set of equipment (Swordsman 3・Spearman 2・Archer 2・Mage 1)
・Agriculture and Industry Tool Set・・3 sets
Explanation: Agriculture and Industry set (Woodworking 1・Digging 1・Farming 1)

After seeing that for the time being, there's no trouble with a living place, since the house can be built immediately, and that he won't be troubled by food and water, Banaza relaxed, but when he closed the magic bag's window, before him one slime had appeared.

Uhhh….Guess there's no choice but to fight….huh?

Banaza thought that he would like to avoid it if possible.
In his original world, because he left the fighting up to mercenaries, he has never fought himself.
That said, now, in this place there was no one else to save him, also the slime was openly directing hostility towards him and looked like he was to jump on him at any moment.
After resolving himself, Banaza took out a sword and a shield from the magic back, and took a stance for the time being.

Banaza was quite nervous, but that fight was ended all too quickly.
After swinging the sword at the the jumping slime, it was cut in half in one swing, and died right after.

「…I'm glaaad… it was over quick….」
Banaza sinks down in place out of relief

When suddenly, in front of his eyes, a window opens.

A window just like the one when he was confirming the contents of the magic bag, but the one spread in front of him this time, was not that of the magic bag, but one that announced that his level had increased and was displaying it's status.

Seeing that display, Banaza knit his eyebrows.

Lv・・・ 2
STR・・・ ∞
DEF・・・ ∞
SPD・・・ ∞
MP・・・ ∞
HP・・・ ∞

「I get that the level increased but….what the? What is this mark of number 8 put sideways….」

At that time, Banaza didn't realise.
This「∞」mark, was the sign for「Unable to display because of exceeding the limits」.
He, at Lv1, had abilities no different from this world's adult male, but the moment he raised to Lv2, his ability points completely transcended all the previous Heroes, as well as learned all the magics in this world.

It was exactly this, that was the divine protection he received from god, when getting summoned into this world.

However, he himself, had no idea about it.

Magic Cheat

「For the time being, what should I do about a place to live….」
Because there was a『House Construction Magic』in the magic bag, and it was possible to build a house if only he decided on the place, Banaza was looking into the surroundings while thinking “where should I do that”.
Thereupon, suddenly before his eyes, a window was displayed once again.
That window, had red borders blinking on and off, so even Banaza understood it was warning about danger.

『Caution: There is a thing endowed with concealed magic among the belongings.
High possibility of bringing forth disadvantage to the owner Magic Bag Location Tracing Magic: Regularly notifies the location of the owner to the caster Forceful Retrieval Magic: Forcefully retrieves the targeted item to the caster at the time of the owner’s death Monster Aggravation Magic: Magic that automatically aggravates high Lv monsters Will you cancel it forcefully? Yes/No』

Seeing the words in that window, Banaza felt cold sweat coming out.
He could understand if it was just location tracing and forceful retrieval, the problem was the third,「Monster Aggravation Magic」.

No matter how he looked at it, this magic was to provoke monsters to attack Banaza.
Even Banaza could understand that the reason he, just now, was suddenly attacked by a slime, was probably due to this magic.

……In short, just kick the bucket already, I guess….

Banaza frowned, but Tilted this head at the last displayed line.

「Forceful cancel….is it possible?」

Banaza whispered without thinking, but as if reacting to those words, 1 more window popped up『Forceful cancelation of them all is possible
Will you cancel it forcefully? Yes/No』

……..Well….then『Yes』, I guess….

When Banaza thought so while reading the words, the next moment, the magic bag shone lightly.
At the same time, the window until just now vanishes, and a new window opens.

『The following magics have been forcefully cancelled

Location Tracing Magic/Forceful Retrieval Magic/Monster Aggravation Magic』

What is this? Is it some kind of magic?

Before Banaza's eyes, who was pondering about it, a window is displayed once again.

『Due to fulfilled requirements, the following magics are continuously activated.

・Magic Alert
Gives off an alert・warning against malevolent magic ・Magic Dispel
Cancels malevolent magic (choice based)
・Magic Search
Searches out existing hostile living beings・traps within 100 kilum radius
・Automatic Mapping
Automatically makes a mental map of terrain within 100 kilum radius (materialization possible) …….display next page? Yes/No 』

Doing as suggested, and opening next pages, after reaching 16 page out of 64, he understood that there are always-on magics.
That said, having not had even a scrap of mana in his original world, and of course being unable to use it, Banaza completely couldn't understand why all these magics were activating around him.
Desperately thinking about this and that, results were

・I just became Lv2
・In this world, after Lv2, being able to use this much magic is natural He could only forcefully convince himself of that.

This so called always-on magic, is a type of skill that ones that have acquired more that 80% of the magics existing in this world become able to use, unless one has trained to a great extent, becoming able to use it is not possible.
In this world people that possess always-on magic, are only 20 people in all, and even among them, one possessing the most always-on magics, has only up to 4.
The reason was precisely because Banaza, when reaching Lv2, broke all physical ability limits and also acquired almost every magic in this world.
By the way, the window that's displayed from time to time, is a type of always-on magic, which tells information related to magic according to the caster's requests, and is possible to be made undisplayed if the caster wishes for it.

Although, the person concerned, Banaza, never in his wildest dreams thought that he had become such a broken existence….

「Anyway….I need to look for a place to live….」
While thinking that, Banaza started walking towards the forest.
Thereupon, a window opened once again

『Warning: This forest is gravely contaminated by demonic miasma

Will you purify it? Yes/No』

Demonic miasma?….What's demonic miasma?

When Banaza holds that question, just like until now, a new window opens.

『Origin mana: General term for liquids/gases, etc., that contain elementary particles dark type magic, which causes great harm for humans.
Mainly created・dispersed by demon race of great power to contaminate regions』

「If that's how it is….doing it if possible would be better, right」

Banaza selected「Yes」inside his head.
Thereupon, a window opened once again

『Attention: This magic will use ⅓ of your total mana.

Is it alright to use it? Yes/No』

He did think that ⅓ was a lot, but after half giving up thinking "I originally had no mana to begin with”, Banaza, chose「Yes」a second time.

When he did
Dazzling light emitted from Banaza’s surroundings, and immediately wrapped up the whole forest before his eyes.
「Wh…What theee!?」
Banaza was surprised for a bit by that excessive amount of light, but the light converged in under 5 seconds, and the forest before his eyes returned to exactly as it was before.
「What… well, that magic was easier than I thought」
While getting a bit relieved, Banaza shifted his eyes to the display of his mana.

There, although that number was not displayed, there was a bar-like display, thought to display the total amount of mana, of which, about ⅓ had blackened.
He could imagine that it was probably displaying his own mana that was used in the purification just now.
However, that exhausted part, was rapidly recovering while Banaza was looking at the display, and in not even 2 minutes, the whole blackened part was gone.
「The hell, it really wasn’t that big deal of a magic, was it. It does recover that quickly, after all」 Banaza was smiling bitterly while saying that.

◇◇The same time・magic kingdom of Cryroad
「Head magician-sama! Big news! Seems that highest level holy magic was used!」
「Ooh! That must have been, without a doubt, released by the Blonde Hero-sama, who left to suppress the Maou! To think he would be able to use highest level of holy magic this fast, as expected of a great talent that appears only once in a hundred years!」
「…..Thing is, Head magician-sama….I believe the Blonde Hero was supposed to be heading to the south….the highest level magic seems to be used in far north, though….」
「As if such a stupid thing would happen! There must be some mistake! In the first place, right now, in this world, there’s not even 1 user of highest level magic, you know?」

Chapter 4

Lv and Inn

---

Before Banaza, who used purification magic, a new window was displayed. Because Banaza's level had risen, it was thought to display abilities to reflect that, but

『Lv･･･ 367
STR･･･ ∞
DEF･･･ ∞
SPD･･･ ∞
MP･･･ ∞
HP･･･ ∞』

「…..'Scuse me?」

Just now after defeating a slime, Banaza had confirmed it had risen up to Lv2, but he was shocked that that number how had jumped to 367.

「More like…. I just used purification magic just now, not like I defeated any monsters…」
While confused, Banaza was thinking about this and that what could be the reason, but no matter how much he thought, no reason seemed to come to mind.

About this level rising though,
The reason was, just now, because of purification magic, the monsters that lived in this forest got purified as well, and all perished, and so those experience points went to Banaza.
Also, the monsters that were in this forest, to be specific, were one of the Maou's Four Heavenly Kings[1], the number one man of the Fang Wolf Clan – Fengaril and his subordinates.
By the way, this Fengaril, was a legendary class Demon race, who is said to have annihilated several tens of thousands of Cryroad's soldiers by himself.

Completely not aware such a thing happened, Banaza, at the end of thinking and thinking of the reason for the sudden level up,

・My magic display function, probably isn't displaying it correct because of my low magic ability derived such a conclusion, and forcefully made himself accept it.

Because of that, Banaza, who thought that this skill display couldn't be trusted, from now on, set this skill display function to not be displayed.

Deciding to leave the level rising problem for the time being, Banaza directed his glance towards the forest once again.
Though it might be purified now, it is a forest that was originally polluted by demonic miasma[2].
Because of that, he felt reluctant to live here as is.

That said, even he was to return to the city, he was forbidden to live in one.
When he was thinking that 『Recommendation: Appearance Transformation Magic Visually changing your appearance is possible

Will you execute it? Yes/No』 such a window was displayed

"I see….If visual appearance changes, I might not get noticed in the city" thinking that, Banaza chose『Yes』
When he did, this time

『Gender? Male/Female
Height? High/Medium/Short
Race? Human/Demihuman/Demonic
・

a window with considerable amount of choices was displayed.
Though it seemed like random setting was possible, Banaza for the time being used it one at a time, and changed himself to 『Male・Human・Medium height』a an average appearance like that.

Because his original appearance was quite slim with an androgynous face that might get mistaken for a female's, the impression is quite changed.
Because changing clothing was made possible by the magic, he changed it to look just like an adventurer.
He could use magic more or less, so he made it look robe-like, somewhat like a mage.

Deciding to also name himself『Arpshow』, he returned to the town he first was teleported to with teleportation magic.
He was thinking of, for the time being, looking into this world while staying at some inn, and after that once again think about his course of action from now on.

After going out to one of the main streets, he found an inn with a signboard saying『Jewel's Divine Protection』, and for the time being, went inside.
It looked like in the first floor was also a cafeteria, and now, at lunch time, it was considerably crowded by humans and demihumans.
「Welcome, I haven't seen you around, is this your first time in this town?」
The landlady, who was cooking behind the counter, calls out in a cheerful voice.
「I'm Arpshow, a newbie adventurer from a small village to the east. I'm looking for an inn around here」
「Then you're welcome to stay here. We have free rooms for now」
Banaza, now Arpshow, didn't really have a sense for money, because the currency was different in his original world, so to cost stated by the landlady, he decided to, for the time being, hand one of the gold coins he had.
When he did
「Are you, despite appearances, some noble rich boy? With that much you could stay here until autumn with meals included」 was what she said while smiling, and Arpshow only smiled bitterly at her words of "If you check out midway, I'll return the remainder, but please stay as long as possible".
Probably because he paid with a gold coin, seems like he got the best room at the end of the hall in the second floor.
There were two beds, and also a bath set up in the room.
Arpshow was trying to behave like a more or less of a magic user, so he took out a staff from the belongings.

That staff looked to be quite a cheap one, and looked unexpectedly flimsy but, it was possible to customize it with magic, so Arpshow remade it to have a bit of a luxurious feeling.

With the staff, which looked a bit cooler thanks to customizing, in hand, Arpshow got down to the cafeteria, and decided to eat there and also gather information.

After listening in to the surrounding conversations while waiting for the meal

・The new Hero seems to have headed to the south
・Something about mysterious massive magic being used at the north
・Recently a lot of damage was done by goblins ・Quality of slaves has decreased was the information that was gathered.

While he was doing that, a woman demihuman of dog race that looks like a floor employee brought in the food.
Seems that she is this inn's slave and the landlady is the owner.
Looks like in this world buying a slave isn't that difficult, even in business district, slave dealers are putting up stores normally.
Arpshow was feeling somewhat out of place, because in the world he originally was in, slave dealing was a hated business.
「If I talk for too long, I will get scolded by master, so….」
Saying his thanks to the dog race's demihuman woman who said that while greatly bowing down, Arpshow decided to eat.

After finishing the meal, Arpshow decided to have a stroll around the main street.
Having heard the information that in the main street there is an adventurer association, which procures work for adventurers among the conversations in the cafeteria just now, he decided to head there for the time being.

Along the way, Arpshow suddenly felt a weird presence behind.
Giving a side glance behind, he saw a kid in tattered clothes beelining straight towards him.
It appears that the purpose was theft, as his eyes was looking for Arpshow's belongings.

Carefully approaching, that kid looked for an opening in Arpshow, and extended his hand to steal the magic bag at his hips.

However, in the next moment, a few of Arpshow's always-on magics activated, kid's hand was repelled by a magic wall, and he was instantly bound in rope and laid down in place.

Arpshow properly looks at the kid once again
That kid was awfully thin, and it was not hard to imagine he was trying to steal having no other choice.
That child was moving his mouth trying to say something, however because that mouth was firmly blocked, he couldn't understand what he was saying but, as if saying "For the time being, I refuse to get involved in troublesome things", Arpshow thrust in 1 gold coin into that kid's pocket whispered 「Don't do this kind of thing anymore」 into his ear.
After moving away a bit from the kid, Arpshow removed the binding magic, and after confirming that the kid disappeared into the crowd while flustered, he activated presence concealment magic, and disappeared into the crowds himself.

1 A fricking mouthful in english, but a template is a template :D
2 Will be using this instead of mana origin thing that I did in the previous chapter, as it suits this novel's thing better. Will edit last chapter too, but I'm putting a notice here to those who read it as soon as it came out.

Chapter 5

Client

Adventurer's association was a considerably big two-floor building with 1st floor – reception of adventurers and cafeteria, as well as equipment shop
2nd floor – lodging accommodations, as it's structure.

For the time being, registering as an adventurer was needed, was what Arpshow was thinking, and headed towards the reception, 「Good day. Want to register as an adventurer? Or perhaps want to get some job procured?」 and was greeted by a red-haired elf.
「I'm here for a job, but does it require to be registered as an adventurer?」
「If it's only jobs of unset rank, then it's not required, but you're not that reckless, are you?」
The red-haired elf says with a sweet smile.

According to her explanation,
Normally, first one registers as an adventurer after all,
In accordance to his exploits, his adventurer rank is set to increase,
And it is possible to accept work in compliance to this rank.

These『Unranked Jobs』she jokingly said about,
Because most of them are expected to be extremely hard, while there is a penalty for abandoning it midway, completely no insurance is offered if one dies during one, as well as no money for preparations is provided, according to her they are jobs with mostly inferior conditions.
Though in return, if one managed to complete it, immense rewards are a given, is what she said.
Of course, these unranked jobs also greatly increase one's adventurer rank, however it wasn't wrong to say that no matter how many lives one had, taking only that kind of jobs, they wouldn't be enough.

After completing the adventurer registration, Arpshow received a necklace shaped silver plate.

「In this plate, your personal information is stored.
This personal information is made to be possible to read with magic.
When accepting or turning in a job, please definitely have this with you. Because we will record your achievements this plate」
After receiving a simple explanation, Arpshow put this plate around his neck 「Well then, please pay 1 silver coin as registration fee」 and handed over the payment specified.

When he was about to go to the work notice board, that he heard about from the red-haired elf, Arpshow stopped.
Before the notice board, a lone girl was standing, asking of something to the passing by adventurers.
When listening in on that conversation,

Turns out, she was looking for an adventurer that would guard and take her to Delabeza forest.

Inside this Delabeza forest, because a close servant of Maou is rumored to live in it, every adventurer was rejecting that offer.
To add to that, the reward she was offering, was an extremely low one, of 5 copper coins, and because of that no one wanted to lend an ear to her even more.

Speaking of Delabeza forest, it's where he was until just now, and using teleportation magic going there immediately was possible….was what Arpshow was thinking, 「Young lady, I'll take you there, if you're fine with me?」
and called out to the girl
When he did, seems the girl didn't think someone would even call out to her, as she turned to Arpshow, while almost jumping up out of surprise.
「U…uhhh….the reward isn't much…are you ok with it?」
「Well, it's fast, if it's just going there, so」
To Arpshow's words, the surrounding adventurers get noisy 「Onii-san, it's not good to lie. Going to that forest takes 20 days. Are you getting close to this young lady, with something not good in mind? After her body, for example?」

A female knight clad in armor, who looked like one of the adventurers, was closing in on Arpshow with a clearly disgusted expression.
Behind her, there are a few women, thought to be her party members.
Indeed, with just a male and a female, it couldn't be helped to think that, while rethinking it, Arpshow said
「Well then, if you're fine with it, how about going all together? I don't really mind you taking all the of reward」
To those words, after consulting with her comrades, the female knight brought out a condition of arranging their meals and lodging along the way, but to that the girl's face got gloomy.
It was clear to see that the money at hand was scarce.

「If needed, I'll provide those, so….Well, it's clear that it won't be needed though」
To Arpshow's words the female knight group got even more cautious, but when Arpshow took out and showed a gold coin from his money pouch, they did agree to it.

After getting the request registered to the plate at the reception,
「Well then, we'll be going, so everyone please gather around me」
While half-doubting Arpshow's words, everyone gathered around, as asked
The next moment, everyone, 「Right, then」 together with Arpshow's, simultaneously disappeared from the inside of the adventurer's association building.

「……Now this is surprising….」
Confirming that before her, without a doubt is Delabeza forest, the female knight while having an expression of disbelief, 「Arpshow-dono, was it? I'm extremely sorry for doubting you just now. I offer my heartfelt apologies」 was deeply lowering her head while saying that.
「To think you were able to use teleportation magic to move such extreme distances…Arpshow-san, are you a magician employed by the castle?」

The magician of the female knight's party, was asking while having cold sweat.
Arpshow himself, because he wasn't aware that the magic he used was such a big deal, got confused at the magician's words instead.
Also, her party members, were more surprised at the fact that the usually silent magician was speaking so eloquently.

For the time being, after making himself out as a world-ignorant magician that was absorbed in experiments deep inside a forest, everyone was somehow convinced, Arpshow relaxed.

During that exchange
The girl who was the client, was having a confused expression, while looking around various parts of the forest.
「….Is there something wrong?
To Arpshow's words, the girl gets even more flustered.
「Th…the forest's demonic miasma….well….it's all gone… why…」

"If it's about that, then I purified it just recently", while Arpshow was trying to say that, before his eyes, redly blinking window was displayed.

『Warning: Telling about usage of purification magic to a demon race is dangerous』

Demon race? There's no such thing here, though?

When Arpshow thought that, a new window opens

『Client Girl: Demon race「Fang Wolf Clan」is transformed to a human』

To that display, Arpshow felt his own heartbeat getting faster.

Fenlys

[Well then… Isn't it about time you revealed your identity? Young lady?]
To the perplexed girl, who was looking at the forest, the female knight asked in a clearly different tone from just now.
[A girl that wants to go to the forest occupied by Maou's underlings….Suspicious no matter how you think about it~]
Archer looking woman continues the thought.
The female knight's party, albeit slowly, spread out to surround the girl, while paying attention to her every move.
[Nii-san, sorry about that….you ended up used a bit]
The swordswoman, who was holding up her sword, apologises to Arpshow.

According to the swordswoman's explanation, this female knight group, had concluded this girl was suspicious right from the start, and used Arpshow, who suddenly called out to her, to go with them and expose this girl's identity in this place.

Although, in the original plan, they were supposed to get away from the city, and question her on the road when there were no people around, however, because they, never in their wildest dreams thought that Arpshow could use high class teleportation magic, their plan needed to be executed here.

After looking at such female knight's troupe, a suspicious flame could be seen in the girl's eyes.
[….Aahn? What are you actin' all cocky, lowly humans?]
Before the group, the girl's appearance was gradually changing.
Her mouth split, body hair grew, the body was getting a lot bigger while turning into that of a wolf.
[You actin' all tough against one of the Maou's Four Heavenly King's, Fengaril's little sister, against this Fenlys-sama? Aahn?]
Out of wolf-turned Fenlys' body, tremendous amount of demonic miasma gushed out, and spread out in stinging waves through the surroundings.

[….Since she came to town, I thought she was something like a scout of the Maou's army, but….to think she was such a big shot….]
[Let's withdraw for now…we can't take on an opponent of this class without at least two divisions of knights]
All of the female knight group had stiff expressions, with cold sweat on them.
In this situation, retreat, indeed, is the best.
The female knight also fully knew that, but she couldn't move even a bit from this place.
She was completely taken away by Fenlys' pressure.

Looking at such both sides,

Behind them, was Arpshow, all by himself, not particularly minding this pressure, was just standing in this place normally.

[…..Heeh, only you seem to have some backbone]
When Fenlys directs her gaze to such Arpshow, a bold smile appears on her mouth.
[Wait a bit, I'll deal with them, and then take you on]
While saying that, she lowers her body, and takes a stance.

……Uuuhn…. This situation, aren't the female knight-san and the others a bit in trouble, I wonder

Looking at the intimidated, completely unmoving female knight troupe, Arpshow was thinking like this, as if it wasn't his problem.

Before such Arpshow, a new window is displayed.

『Recommendation: Making female knight troupe take refuge in some other place using teleportation magic is advised

Teleport them? Yes/No』

At the same time that Arpshow whispers
[Then, teleport them to the town we were just now] to the displayed window, the female knight troupe's presence disappeared from this place, as if erased.

Fenlys, who was just right about to jump towards them, is taken aback by this sudden happening and is looking at the surroundings.

[….This can’t be… even though I’m deploying Negate Teleportation・Negate Mana…..]
[Eh? You are?]
To Fenlys’ words, Arpshow gets genuinely surprised

『Because high class magics「Negate Teleportation」「Negate Mana」were deployed

Highest class magic「Teleportation magic「Highest Class」」was used.
Effect : Magic use is possible without receiving effects of Negate Teleportation・Negate Mana』

While confirming the contents of the displayed window, Arpshow understood to the point to make him say “Aah, is that so”.
Of course, not knowing that people able to use this highest class magic, are only 2 in this whole world….
[So it’s your doing… I took you as sacrifice for resurrection magic, in case something happened to ani-ue, but it looks like you’re a bit capable]
Changing her target from the suddenly disappeared female knight group to Arpshow, Fenlys takes a stance once again, while licking her lips.
[I’ll look into what happened to the forest after biting you to death.
Don’t worry, I’ll make those female knights go after you soon after, so you won’t be lonely]
[Uuuhn….For the time being, I don’t want to die yet, I think]
While saying that, Arpshow chose「Yes」to the newly displayed window.

In the next moment,
A tremendous sense of weight befell on Fenlys’ body.

…..What…is….this

Even if she tries to speak, because of too much pressure, she can’t even open her mouth.
Taking on this much high gravity, Fenlys’ body fell prostrate on the ground, and was completely unable to move.

Th…this can’t be…even though I’m deploying Negate Mana…..『Lessen Gravity』

Even if she recites a new spell, in that instant, a sound of breaking glass could be heard, informing Fenlys that the magic failed.

『Adjacent Teleportation』 『Extreme Height Jump』 『Position Reversal』

Continuously, she recites magic she can think of, but each and every one of them, informs her of failure with a breaking glass sound.
Because she was continuously using advanced magic, which uses a lot of mana, Fenlys' mana soon hit rock bottom.

I…It can't be… to a mere human….this….

Fenlys desperately tries to think of moves to overcome this situation.
However, with her mana already gone, and in a state of being forcefully pinned to the ground, not even one method came to mind.
And so

…..I give up… Do as you wish
Giving up all resistance, Fenlys silently closed her eyes.

When she did, in the next moment, all the gravity that was pushing her down, disappeared.

To this unexpected outcome, Fenlys opens her eyes, while having a dubious expression.
When she did, before her was Arpshow, his hand extended towards her.

Fenlys, who returned to demon race's humanoid form while she was being crushed by the gravity, continued looking at that hand while bewildered.
This form was not one of the girl she was disguising as, but one of a woman of dignified beauty, her original form as one of the demon race.

[If you've given up, I won't kill you]
While saying that, Arpshow put his mantle over Fenlys, whose clothes were all ripped away when she turned to wolf form.

[I…I’m of demon race, you know…you’re saying you’ll spare one?]
[I’m not a human of this world to begin with. So truth be told, I don’t really care about it being human or demon race.
Anyway, I won’t kill a person that surrendered. That’s all]

[Naive, human…Too naive]
While saying that, Fenlys took the hand Arpshow was extending.
In her her hand, strength for opposing him was not included, not even for a bit.

Before Arpshow, a new window opened, suggesting to make her a subordinate using subordination magic.

However while thinking,
……Rather than a subordinate, I would be happier if she became a comrade, though….
Arpshow, while smiling bitterly, turned the window, that was persistently suggesting subordination magic, to undisplayed status.

Chapter 7

Aapshow told Fenlys

“You can go anywhere as long as you’re not going to fight humans.”

But Fenlys shook her head.

“Fang wolf tribe like me will live together with the one who we’ve recognized as a master…..and if we can’t be together with him, we can only die.”

Saying so, she stuck to me like a glue

As the sister of a brother who have sworn allegiance to the Demon King, she and Fenngarilu recognized Demon king as their master. But when she was defeated by the Aapshow, she acknowledged him as her new master.

Aapshow, who was summoned to this world and didn’t know anything about it, decided to travel together with her.

“Then, I will be in your care.”
“Me too, I will be in your care, master.”
“..N-no. umm, don’t call me that you know…..”
“Unn? Master is master, right? Are there any problems?”

Aapshow could only smile bitterly to her words.

The two decide to camp out for the night and go back to the city tomorrow.

It would be a bit problematic if the female Knight I sent earlier with the teleportation magic did anything troublesome. We might get entangled to it if we returned immediately.

That night.

Aapshow was sitting next to the fire since he was the watch for the night.

The sleeping Fenrys slowly woke up.

Fenrys had undressed all of her clothes and hugged Aapshow naked.

….Can you satisfy me with your human body?….If you can’t, then you can just die while on top of me.

Fennrys kissed Aapshow in the mouth as if she was trying to devour him. While french kissing him, she chanted many sexual type magic and applied them to Aapshow.

….Na!? .

All the magic she chanted had been nullified by Aapshow as they made a sound indicating the destruction of the magic which repeatedly resonated.

Adding to the fact that Fenrys would be dejected if Aapshow rejected the naked demon raced women who have a high pride, which in turn will make her feel shameful plus Aapshow had some affection toward her who is really beautiful, so he decided to accept her feelings.

Following his instinct, Aapshow chanted many high tier sexual type magic and poured them into Fenrys.

“Iya….this….no…too much….at once….”

To the unexpected situation, she turned bright red and her body unconsciously backed off a little bit.

Aapshow kindly, with affection, hugged her.

[TL: first time writing a description of sex scenes…..It was kinda fun XD]

The Next Morning

Fenrys who was feeling light headed thanks to the yesterday’s rough night, was sitting next to Aapshow naked.

Last night I don’t remember how many times my consciousness faded while being done by Aapshow.

But, now, I never want to be separated with him.

Following her thought, she hugged his arm and leaned on it before falling asleep peacefully.

A little before the afternoon, Aapshow teleported to the town together with Fenrys who had fully woken up.

They arrived at the town the moment when a huge army was about to leave for the forest.

“Yo-….you are Aapshow-dono?”

Inside the army, Aapshow heard the familiar voice, so he looked toward the direction where the voice came from.

In there, the female knight and her party, who Aapshow sent to the city using teleportation magic, showed up.

She seemed to have joined the army, and when she saw Aapshow, she approached happily.

She gave her gratitude for yesterday as she held my hand tightly while crying.

“I knew you would be able to survive meeting with that monster but…..”

When they saw the Fenrys behind the Aapshow, they became surprised as they immediately took on a battle stance.

“She was being controlled by the Demon lord’s subordinate at the time and she returned to being a normal human when the subordinate ran away.”

The female knight and her party believed my explanation and the two of them had a handshake saying it was good that she was alright.

“And what’s with the army? Female knight-sama, you also seem to be in it?”

“It’s for the subjugation of the yesterday’s monster and we were just about to leave. Plus the Hero-sama returned from the south”

Now that she’s said it when I looked at the back of the army, I saw the Blonde hero who I met in the castle riding on a white horse.

Even though Aapshow’s already changed his look with the magic, the situation still didn’t really feel good.

“But, I think there won’t be any monster in the forest since he already ran away?”
“It’s not that we don’t trust your words but…If we don’t subjugate it, it may stay and hide in the forest. There may also be some leftover monster in the forest, so we are going to advance still.”

Female knight feeling sorry bows again.

Then,

“If you don’t mind, Aapshow-dono can you join the army? If you-dono joined we would get another 100 man’s level of power.“

Feeling a bit sorry for the female knight who described my strength I said.

“Unfortunately…. I have already exhausted all my mana with the battle before so….”

Saying that we decided to go back to the inn.

The female knight said that she will come back to express gratitude properly after the subjugation mission.

When the female knight left, Fenrys hugged Aapshow’s arm and glared at the direction where the female knight went.

“What’s wrong?”

“…That woman, she was trying to seduce master….disgusting”

She said in a low tone as Aapshow smiled bitterly.

Chapter 8

Aapshow and Fenlys, who came back to the inn, did each other for 2 days straight without stepping a single foot outside.

“….I’ve told you, you can do anything you want but….aren’t we going overboard….”

Fenlys pouted on top of the bed.

“If I did anything that you didn’t like, then I will apologize”

Fenlys who blushed after hearing Aapshow, curled her hand around Aapshow’s neck before the two of them started their union again.

This time, Aapshow removed the magic which changed the way he looked and showed Fenlys his real appearance.

“You trust me so much that you showed your real appearance….”

Fenlys said so while looking really touched.

In the end, the two of them, other than eating their meals, never left the room and earnestly sought each other. [TL: Author seems to avoid using the word sex] [ED: Gotta maintain that R-15 rating.]

Morning on the fifth day.

The couple finally left the room.

For both gathering information and searching for a job, they headed for the guild.

The guild was in an uproar as the couple entered inside.

No one was talking loudly but, the room was filled with rumors about the annihilation of the hero and his army.

It seems like the survivors who’ve participated in the march were ordered to keep quiet on the matter, but it’s hard to shut the information completely.

“…Oh well, it was a natural result for that blonde hero.”

“You think so too?”

“Hai. that hero had little power and he did not have the courage nor vigor a hero should have. All I can feel from him was things like vanity, fictitious, overconfidence and pride.”

Saying so Fenlys glanced at the Aapshow before looking to the side with red cheeks.

“….Nothing like my master’s appearance when you subjugated me.”

Looking at the Fenlys like that, Aapshow smiled gently.

“I’m happy that you say such things about me. but, didn’t I ask you to call me Husband-sama?”

[Tl: actually in japanese Husband and Master has the same word]

Hearing Aapshow’s word, Fenlys nodded even though her face became as red as an apple.

They then decided to register Fenlys as Lys in the adventurer’s guild since if she if she were to use her real name, Fenlys, then maybe some of the humans might know of her name as one of the subordinates of the Demon lord and she might be found out.

For starters, they thought about getting some sort of job, so when they were about to head to the bulletin board.

“Emergency gathering!

In the south of the town, a large outbreak of the Frantic bear occurred, please subjugate them!

You will get three times the usual reward for a single bear!”

The girl behind the counter shouted really loudly.

the guild became loud with cheers for a while, but soon the voices died out.

…. Oi, isn’t this request was the one that annihilated the Hero and it’s army?

…I think so too….The reward is good and all but isn’t this too hard?

The guild was now filled with the sound of the adventurers talking amongst themselves.

As a matter of fact, the subjugation quest really was the one that was in the rumor which annihilated the hero and his army.

The Frantic bear, after annihilating the hero and his army, felt pride and became confident. Which lead to them attacking the farmland of the town in the south, and the damage was only increasing.

——Isn't the hero here for times like this

——It seems like right after he went back to the castle, he left for traveling to the south

——Won't this mean that he ran away, not from the demon lord but from the beasts, Oi….

While listening to the discussions in the guild, Aapshow, together with Lys, left the building.

"Should we take this since the reward is plentiful?"

"For a mere Frantic bear, ma-…Hu, Hu, Hu, Husband does not have to dirty your hand with them. I will go hunt them myself."

"I want to try out some of my magic and I will never allow my wife to fight alone."

"Wa-….Wife!?"

Aapshow felt the Lys' body become hot after hearing the sudden exclamation.

"…Was it not good for me to call you my wife?"

"…N-…No…that…Yes….rather, I feel honored no, happy."

lys became so red that she started to look like an octopus.

Later on, the two headed for the weapon shop.

Lys said that she can fight without any equipment, but she should at least look like a normal adventurer or the other adventurers might get suspicious.

lys chose some ranger type equipment and had a short sword for a weapon.

Aapshow changed his equipment, which was centered on a magician kind, to a magic swordsman one, shouldering a longsword in the back.

“And.. It’s not something amazing but.”

Saying so Aapshow slid the ring which was enchanted with the agility skill on to the ring finger of lys.

“This kind of enchantment is useless to me you know?”

With a dubious look, Lys looked at the ring which was on her ring finger.

“In human culture, there is a kind of tradition where the husband and wife wears the same ring as a symbol of their marriage.”

While smiling, Aapshow showed Lys his ring finger which had the same ring on it.

“Is it like that? hee….wait…marriage…sym-….sym-…Haa!?”

Finally, understand the meaning of Aapshow’s words, Lys’ face became really red again before saying something in a high pitched voice.

The surrounding customers heard the voice and thought, what’s going on? Gathering around them with the face filled with curiosity.

The two of them said “sorry for causing the disturbance” apologizing as they escaped from the place.

Lys escaped while she happily looked at her ring that Aapshow gave. Aapshow and Lys had the perfect coordination with their footwork and was able to escape the store quickly.

The two walked to the south by foot and insta-killed all the Frantic Bears they’ve encountered.

When Aapshow activated a Gravity field with a much weaker strength compared to the time when he was dealing lys, Frantic Bears fell to the ground as all their bones were crushed, leading to their immediate deaths.

After that, they arrived at the small village and used it as the center for their hunt.

The two exterminated Frantic bear one after another from the surrounding of the village such as the forest and the farm.

After killing 20 of them, they decided to stop since it will be hard to bring them all back to the town.

While the two were hunting they met a frantic bear which acted oddly.

It seemed to have realized that it could not beat Aapshow and lys, it fell to the ground on it's back.

The bear was able to display its will to surrender.

"..Some way or another he really is gallant"

Aapshow decided to make this frantic bear his pet since Lys said she felt that killing the enemy who had no intention of fighting is degrading.

Aapshow activated the Trainer skill and registered the bear into the domination list, and bound the bear with

- Berserk mode ban
- Absolute submission

Just in case.

With these magics, it enabled the bear to move together with them inside the town.

But since the appearance of the bear will cause some problems, Aapshow created the large-scale Over All with the magic and made the bear wear it.

Now he looks like a bearman.

After some discussion with the lys, they've named him Saber.

[Tl: the aapshow named him Sabea but I thought Saber sounded cooler]

No one came back to the houses in the village till evening, so they decided to stay for a night here.

It can also be counted as a measure since they couldn't just go to the inn and stay for a night there.

Aapshow expanded the barrier surrounding the house and when they woke up in the morning they found 17 dead frantic bear that fell for the trap.

Aapshow built the wagons using the forest's wood by magic. He then filled the wagons after he completed building it with the catch he got from yesterday's hunt, and the frantic bears which were killed in the traps today.

The wagons were pulled by the Saber and headed straight for the town.

But since there were just too many frantic bear heads, Aapshow activated the gravity reduction spell allowing Saber to pull the cart happily.

When we arrive at the adventurer's guild, many people gathered around the cart.

"…Did you two hunt….this many frantic bears?"

While smiling to the female in the counter, Aapshow said.

"I'm just a little good at using magic"

With just today's result Aapshow earned a good amount of money so,

"Now that I think about it, the houses near the south forest were infamous so no one seems to live there, but what's the situation of the ownerships of the house there?"

Aapshow asked the female in the counter.

"Around there, thanks to the frantic bears outbreak, all the settlers escaped. So it must've been theirs."

"I've always wanted to make my base there and hunt some boars, so is it possible for me to like….. Buy the houses there?"

"Hmm, let me go check…..

Around there, if strong adventurer like you guys stayed then it would be helpful for the guild!"

After she said that, she went rushing to the inner part of the guild.

While they were having an idle chat with the adventurers and playing with the Saber after eating lunch in the guild's dining place, the female in the counter came back rushing quickly.

“I checked in the office and found out that the place has been legally abandoned, so Aapshow-san can register for the ownership using your name. The registration fee will be handled by us so we are looking forward to your future accomplishments!”

Saying so, she showed a big smile.

The guild acted quickly since the place was near the frantic bear’s lair and if the adventurer who can deal with them made the base theirs then it will help them quite a lot with the elimination of the frantic bear.

“Then, let’s head back after buying some important stuff for the new base.”

Lys smiled and nodded towards Aapshow’s word.

Chapter 9

First thing Aapshow, Lees, and pet Sabea did right after reaching the house in the south, was to clean the interior of the house.

They decided to clean the whole house, after all, they decided to establish this place as their home base.
It seems like the ex-residents ran away from the frantic bears attack in a hurry so the house is in quite a mess, however by utilizing magic the cleaning took less than an hour to finish.

Aapshow reconstructed the living room to a size bigger so that Sabea can live together in this place. And as an add-on, he added a small cabin like a place filled with hay in one of the corner of the room. Sabea seemed to love the place as he enters and exists for fun repeatedly.

As for the bedroom, the two decided upon the one which they used last night and used the 3 rooms next door to a storeroom and a private room for the two.

At first, he thought it would be good for each other to have their own room but Lees insisted on having the same room so, for now, two other room will be used for a storeroom.

"And we can use this room for our future family member"
"Are you going to increase the pet?"
"I might increase the pet but there maybe other…"
Saying so, Aapshow lightly touched Lees's stomach.
"If we have our child..right"
Hearing this from Aapshow, Lees couldn't help but get flustered.

Even though Aapshow casted nets of magic traps none of the frantic bears were caught.
It could be that after seeing many of their comrade fall for the trap and die, the frantic bears recognized this place as a danger zone.

Next Morning…

The two quickly finished their breakfast and headed out for a hunt

Although the two hunted quite a lot of frantic bear yesterday, as expected, there were many dangerous beasts in the southern forest.

Other than the frantic bear, they encountered giant poisonous snake and cyclops.
Even so, to the two they were nowhere enough to even be their warm up. They took them down in an instant and collected their drops.

“This level of beasts are so weak, they are not enough for even a warm up”
Lees showed a dissatisfaction in her face after decapitating the cyclops by its neck.
After a half day of hunting the carriage got full so the two headed for the guild pulled by Sabea.

“Fuaa!? So many of them!”
The lady in the counter showed a surprised expression while looking at the carriage.
And thanks to her voice many people from the surrounding started gathering around the carriage.
“Those 2 were also the one hunted tons of frantic bears yesterday right?”
“Freaking awesome…..”

“Wait, isn’t that Giant Poisonous Snake? Wasn’t it the one which forced the imperial army to retreat last year?”

While chattering loudly, many looked at Aapshow and Lees with a look of an envy.

“This will be the subjugation reward. In the subjugated beasts we found the one with a bounty set by the government so, there is a reward from the country added on it.”
While making speculating the reward from the country came from the giant poisonous snake the others were talking about, Aapshow collected the bag filled with gold coins.
“I didn’t think they would even put a bounty on weaklings like them….It greatly surprised me”
Aapshow smiled bitterly at the words of Lees.

As a matter of fact, the giant poisonous snake was killed by the Aapshow in an instant by the wind blade.

–A week later

The two were hunting every day till afternoon, then brought the heads to the guild to cash in for the money. After that, they eat their lunch in the town and head back home.

These days, many kids were charmed by the cute Sabea so they gather around and play with him.
“Oh well, we will be late today too”

While enjoying the scene played out by the bear Lees sighed. Even though she sighed there was a charming smile floated around her face.

Today too, as usual after having breakfast in the town, and done some shopping they headed back home.
But while on the way, Aapshow and Lees both detected a battle.

The two stealthily headed toward the battle.

It was four knights who were fighting 2 frantic bears, and the knights were obviously at a disadvantage.
Knight party included 2 swordsmen, 1 archer, and 1 magician, but the archer and magician who was supposed to be a support seemed like an amateur and failed to contribute to the battle.
The frantic bear who noticed that would sometimes attack at the support when there was a slight opening, so 2 in the frontline had to use all their strength trying to protect the support and fight the bear so the battle was stuck at a stalemate.

And the Aapshow who were looking at the battle with his magic noticed one of them was someone who he knew.

She was the female knight who was with Lees when Aapshow first met her.
And the Lees who noticed this at the same time made a really hateful expression on her face.

Lees still couldn’t forgive the female knight, when the knight looked at Aapshow with a flirtious gaze.

Even so, Aapshow knew them and he couldn’t just leave them be so he unleashed the lightning magic from the place he is and burned the frantic bears black.
The female knights who knew nothing were feeling surprised but soon the feeling of safety overwhelmed them and so they decided to rest in the place.

After confirming their safety Aapshow and his group when straight for the home.

After reaching the home Aapshow started his preparation for the dinner,

His detection magic detected that someone was approaching the house.

The one who were coming were the four female knights he helped, and realizing that He thought
Why are they all the way here?
Aapshow tilted his head while making a quizzical expression.

Chapter 10

“Oh, aren’t you Aapshow-dono!?”

The Knight group who came near Aapshow’s house showed a surprised expression.

“We were also surprised. what happened so that you would come all the way here? this place has many beasts living around so it’s a very dangerous place”

While saying that Aapshow brought the female knight group toward the inside of the Barrier.

“…..How should I say it…..It’s an embarrassing story but….”
Female knight looked down while smiling bitterly.

“…I wish for you to not disclose this information to anyone…”
Saying so the female knight started talking about she and her teammate’s situation.

Prior to this day, when the Blonde haired hero and his army marched off to the forest and was annihilated by the frantic bear and retreated.

after that, the Blonde Haired Hero got really mad and he hid inside the castle, and just won’t come out.

What the Hero’s excuse was “My ability is powerful and all but the people who are supposed to be my support are weak and useless. I won’t go subjugate the Demon lord till they are strong enough to become my right handed man.”

The king became panicked with this so he made an imperial decree to the Chivalric Order for a harsher training.

At least every party should become strong enough to be able to hunt a single frantic bear.
However, Knights have many other jobs such as protecting the castle and etc.. so not everyone was forced for this harsh training.

Essentially a higher level knights should have been the one who were to be prioritized to be trained first but most of the higher level knights selected the mission to be a guard for the castle. Their thought was that even they who were a high-level knight have no way of defeating Frantic bear so what's the point of risking life for a mere training.

Plus, many of the people in Chivalric Order started to question the hero, 'can that blonde haired hero really defeat the demon lord?' if he can't then what's the point of risking their life for him?

"After the decree was given, our party were ordered to go out and attack the frantic bear, you see…"
The female knight sighed loudly.
"Even though I am well trained, how can we even think of hunting frantic bear…. Just now we, unfortunately, encountered a frantic bear and were nearly annihilated.
But somehow by a luck, the lightning fell on the bear and we somehow escaped the calamity"
"…That lightning….It felt like a magic…..maybe…maybe not…."
Behind the female knight, the female magician was holding her own chin and was thinking deeply on the matter.

It's true that the lightning was casted by Aapshow in his stealth mode, this female magician may have a high perceptivity, but after seeing her battle it could be seen that her fighting capability as a magician is low.

"Anyway, Aapshow-dono what are you doing here?"
The female knight asked Aapshow with a dubious look.
"Aa, this house was an abandoned house so we bought it and made it our home. For now, I'm living here while hunting together with my wife and pet….Oh, well we've been here for around one week now."
Toward the Aapshow who said so and laughed,
"….Heh?…Wa, Wife?….Aapshow-dono….you were already ma, married?…."

The female knight became panicked and started speaking in a funny manner. Seeing the situation, the Female swordswomen tried to calm her down by whispering to her 'there is still a chance you can become his concubine or anything of that sorts so calm down.'
Even though she whispered it in a very low volume, Aapshow heard it and thought ..that's not alright for you guys to say that….

"Truth to be told we came here searching for this house. We knew that there was an abundant house. We were beaten terribly so we thought of having a rest here. But I didn't think the place was already bought by you"
Saying so the Female warrior laughed heartily.

"Hows this we don't mind staying in a part of a barn, so can we rent the place? We will be sure to not disturb you and your wife"
"I don't mind at all, but I can send you guys back to the town with the teleportation magic?"
Hearing Aapshow, everyone's expression changed to a sad one.
"We would really like to do that but….We didn't get any result from the trip so we can't just return back to the town….."
The female archer fell to her knees as she lost all her strength.

Listening to the party, Aapshow felt like he wanted to do something to help them but, He wasn't sure what will Lees say about them since she already had a bad first impression on the female knight…while thinking of a solution,
"Husband-sama, how about we let them stay in the living room for a night?"
Lees who came out of the house said so while smiling.
"Are you ok with that?"
"Of course. We can't just abandon a people who are in need.
Naturally as a [Wife], I should give a helping hand "
Lees strangely put an emphasis on the [Wife] part and glared at the female knight for a second.

Aapshow noticed that Lees was feeling happy since Aapshow introduced her as his wife, so before she changes her mind Aapshow brought the party into the house.

And the moment they entered the house the female knight and her party showed an astonishment in their expression.

"….Bofu?"
[tl: onomatopoeia]

In the corner of the living room, a giant furred creature was lazing around and playing, but it was wearing an Overall, which meant he looked exactly like a,

“…Frantic bear…isn’t it a frantic bear?….”
While trembling and shaking in fear the female knight held onto her sword in her waist ready to strike at any time.

“You don’t have to worry about it, it is our pet Sabea”

The Sabea who was introduced by the Aapshow stood up, and just like when it was playing with the children in the town, he posed in a very adorable and cute way than laid back down while making a Kuni sound.

Looking at such an adorable show by the Sabea, female knight, and her party laughed and fell on the floor looking exhausted.

After sometime, Female knight and her party introduced themselves to Aapshow and his group.
“I am a knight Barissa. A noble…even though in the name I’m a noble but my family is already in a downfall. And I’m the eldest daughter. My dream is to rebuild my family by gaining recognition with my knight carrier”

“I am Brossam. Swordswomen. Barissa and I was a classmate in a knight school and stayed together ever since. Please to meet you.”

“Awawawa…..I, I, I am , you know… Bily, an archer-desuu. That, but, I’m a newbie so I’m no good but please do meet you-desu”

“…Belano….Magician….(bow)…”

For now, Aapshow healed the one who were injured, and the group after eating the dinner together, “We should not disturb you so we can camp outside” Barissa said so but after seeing the Frantic bear outside who were trapped from the trap, decided to stay for a night in a living room without complaint.

As a matter of a fact, Brossam and Sabea looked as if they found a kindred soul and Brossam slept on top of the Sabea’s stomach.

As for the other three, they slept in a bed that Aapshow created with a magic. And Barissa who was one of them showed a grin, ear to ear, and her eyes were lit strangely.

It must have been a divine revelation that we were able to reunite with Aapshow-dono….. I miscalculated about him having a wife but….If so I can do as what Brossam told to be and become a concubine.

If he joined in with my family then my family will rise to prominence once again for sure.
For my family, I'm willing to do anything!
Barissa who covered her head with a blanket floated a beautiful smile on her face.
Soon, her Fufufu laugh resonated around, till late at night.

Chapter 11

"Guidance?…."
During the breakfast, Aapshow showed a troubled expression, after hearing Barissa's word. But Barissa who were shown such an expression ignored it and said "Yes! we greatly lack in power. it would be amazing if you young couple is benevolent enough to instruct us, we will owe you guys our life!"
She is saying it while bringing off an energetic aura.
"We kinda have to go to a hunt during afternoon and…."
saying so Aapshow glances at Lees.

"Won't it be fine? Husband-Sama.
They can just follow us on the hunt, we can instruct them on the actual combat."
Lees who was still feeling delighted hearing her husband call her wife, answered Aapshow with a smile.
"We will try not to drag your feet so… please"

The Warrior Brossam next to the Barissa bowed her head.
"…fine, but try not to give us any trouble"
Aapshow accepted while feeling wary of the future.
…several hour later…

Aapshow and his party plus Barissa and her party went to the south forest where Aapshow and his party usually hunts.

it would be inefficient if all stayed together in a single group so

Aapshow brought Barissa and Brossam , the warrior group
and
Lees brought Bily and Belano, the supporter group both lead one another and did their hunts but….

…Afternoon on the same day…

Just like every other day Aapshow and Lees who just cash in the beasts, they went for a late lunch in the town restaurant.

The Sabea who came together with them as a baggage carrier was eating the meat that Aapshow cooked with magic in a carriage parking place.
And looking at such scene the town kids were flocking around Sabea saying "Adorable!!"

Every time the two eat lunch, people pour in the restaurant just to see the Sabea's eating scene, so around this time many restaurant owner places, several people to invite the couple to their restaurant.

Lees let out a deep sigh while eating the meal.
the reason to it was about the training of the Bily and Belano first, Bily the Archer

In forest whenever she shoots at the Frantic Bear, the arrow, however, won't cause a single scratch…worse off the bear won't even notice it.

Her bow is a Short bow and with her low grip and arm strength, obviously it won't be able to penetrate the thick and hard fur of the Frantic Bear.
at first Lees thought that Bily would enchant the arrow with magic to increase its strength but unfortunately, this thought was way off the chart.

Bily didn't know a single enchantment skill.

so without the enchantment the arrow needed, the short bow won't be able to do anything worthwhile so, Lees gave her a crossbow but she couldn't wield it or rather failed to even lift it.

"…this…this…is too heavyyyy…."

Magician Belano, her mastery in magic was not low but…

the magics she mastered were all support types such as – heal

– enhance defence
– negate abnormal state and worst of all she has a low mana in her body so she can use heal magic for 2-3 times and her face becomes blue, she becomes out of breath and looked as if she was about to fall any moment.

compared to the destructive state Lees' party were in, Aapshow's party was in no better condition.

firstly the knight Barissa, because of her background as a knight she used a not so bad sword skill but,

she had this bad habit of speaking while in battle
“No, No, Waga the one to…”
[tlnote: in Japan, waga is used by the old people to address themselves….and mostly by the wealthy old man…but don’t get confused Barissa is young female..] and every time she swings her sword, it comes with many meaningless movements, plus she has the habit to make her movement seem cooler like the ones in the movies, so her sword technique looks more like a performance they do in the castle rather than the technique for slaughter.

with all this combined her hits becomes light and gives no damage to the frantic bear’s skin.

Swordswoman Brossam

Her tactic in the battle uses tackling the enemy and striking the enemy with the longsword, and her every hit are powerful but, she more or less uses the weight as the momentum and not her own arm strength, so every time after her hit it takes quite a bit of time to charge.

plus the longsword is too heavy making it impossible to change the direction of the sword, so the frantic bear with an agile movement unlikely of its own size dodges her sword strike easily.

“This may seem to be more difficult than we initially thought”
Lees hearing Aapshow’s word, she replied while looking down.
“It not difficult Husband-sama….obviously they don’t have an ounce of talent in this”
Lees and Aapshow both sighed deeply.

—Aapshow’s home—

“Welcome back! Master-Sama! Mistress-sama”
Barissa welcomed the two with a big smile.

Before Aapshow and Lees left for the city, Barissa and the other 3 were left exhausted, even unwilling to stand up but right now Barissa is holding the mop in one hand and was cleaning the bed.

“We are indebted to you Master and Mistress so doing stuff like these are normal” saying so she went back to her cleaning.

As for the swordswoman Brossam, she was blowing the farm, located behind the house.
“Atashi came from a farmer’s background so I’m good at works like these”

[Tlnote: Atashi is referring to herself, commonly used by a female]

The Bily the Archer seemed to have exhausted herself after trying to gain muscle from pushups and was laying on the floor looking half dead.

The Belano the Magician was practicing an attack type magic while reading all the attack type magic books.

while looking at the busy four,
“….Oh well, we can think of them as a new hunting companion”
“…I guess this have to do” the two who were smiling bitterly nodded on agreeing to take care of them for a while.

Chapter 12

Changed Lees to Lys since soooooo many complaints

---

The guild buys our beasts that we hunted but, each beast have their own ranking and the price they give us depends on the ranking of the beast

A Rank … Frantic Bear, cyclops and etc.
Purchased price.. 10 million Belica (10 Gold coin)
B Rank … Black Spider . Lizard man and etc
Purchased price … 1 million Belica (1 Gold coin)
C Rank … Evil worm, Vampiric Bat, and etc
Purchased Price … 50 thousand belica (5 Silver coins)
D Ranks … Slime, Goblin and etc
Purchased Price … 10 thousand for 5 (1 Silver coin)
Many of the people who made the adventurer as their occupation hunts C ranks monster as their game.

This happened because all the monster above or B rank has a tough hide. So even if you were somehow able to defeat it, the weapons and armour you used will become unusable and broke, so even though the reward is high, they, in the end, spend most of the reward money to repair their weapons and armour.

This is why many adventures ignore or boycott hunting them.

As a matter of fact, Aapshow and his group already sold more than 100 A ranked beast body so they have more than 1 billion belica in their hand. And all of them are stored in his magic item, Magic bag but Aapshow and Lees both has little to no interest in extravagant lifestyle so the money kept on increasing.

Usually, if people hunted this much A ranked beast, the weapons and armour would become dull and damaged and will require paying for the repair but the two with the overwhelming magic attacks, overpower the enemy and insta-kill the beast so their weapons and armour don’t get damaged.

As a matter of fact, the guild deals with these expensive goods but A rank beast such as Frantic Bear is a bit special, first the meat is strongly valued by the nobles so it is dealt with a high price. Next, Bones, teeth, and nails are used for making weapons and used for the raw material for magic stone, so even if the guild purchased one for 10 million if it the body is processed then they can earn 4 to 5 times more profit from it.

This circulation is strongly controlled by the government and the guild so any individual or a merchant won't be able to intrude in the system.

Thanks to the Aapshow and Lys's hunt on A rank beasts everyday, and selling it in the guild, so the guild that Aapshow and Lee's is registered in gave a result way over the top compared to the other guilds.

Of course, The Royal family won't miss such an important information "If there are such an adventurer present in our country they should contribute to our fight against the demon lord and help the Blonde haired hero by becoming his right-handed man"

And after such decree fell, the royal family using guild made a percussion toward Aapshow but,

"Sorry, but I have no interest"

And with a single sentence, it was denied

The actual problem lies in the royal family, to begin with, even though Aapshow was summoned as one of the Hero Candidate, just because the magician in the castle couldn't notice his power, so they threw him away,

With all this said it is quite an impossible task to agree on it…..

As of now, he has hidden away his real name Banaza and is living with his fake name and a new look so the country wouldn't be able to know who he really is. Small fact,

The search type tracking spell the magicians in the castle casted onto Aapshow's items, were negated before he changed his appearance so, the magicians knows that they lost him but they don't want to get in trouble by reporting to the higher ups so they desperately hide the fact and are trying to find out the reason while searching for him.

And, the Blonde hero who became the hero is still hiding inside the castle not daring to step a foot outside.

After declaring that he won't step outside unless the country's army become strong enough to exterminate Frantic bear, the king and his subordinates are trying their best to meet the required condition but there seems to be no improvement till now.

The Hero right now is enjoying the tranquil life inside the room while enjoying life, in such a situation.
Demanding things like women, expensive food and etc all so that he can enjoy the life he had.

Essentially the king wouldn't allow such heresy but because hero selected by the Goddess can be the only one to defeat the Demon King so they couldn't just toss him aside plus they already nominated him as a hero officially so they can't do anything to him.

Even if they successfully abdicated him as a hero, then who would become the new hero!? The royal family might get blamed for a responsibility, since this is the case, the King can only do nothing.

While the chaos is lingering around the country right now,

Aapshow and Lys as always are busying themselves with the hunt.

And Barissa and her party who can barely follow them are trying hard without giving up.

"But really…."

"Whats wrong Husband-sama?"

"…No, it's nothing special but…..Even though we are hunting this much Frantic Bear everyday their number seemed to not decrease, its kind of mysterious"

"Aa, I know the reason for this, its simple the Demon lord's subordinates are supplying the beasts to fit the certain number."

"Supply?"

"Ee, there is the Demon lord's castle toward the south of this forest. So they supply and position the beasts so that Hero and his party won't be able to come through here"

“Then, if I go further south from here I can meet stronger beasts?”

“Ee, beasts like the dragons and Phoenix, many kinds of legendary level beasts are positioned. However, if Husband-sama wanted to subjugate them then it won’t be that hard”

“I think you’re just overrating me right? I’m sure I’m not that strong….”

“No, with Husband’s power legendary level beasts are too easy and most likely even the Demon lord won’t be your opponent….”

“Oh well, I don’t really care about things like Demon king and Hero. As long as I can live together with Lys, I’m fine”

“Hu, Husband-sama, that is a bit too much, you see, how should I say it but……”
Hearing Aapshow’s words, Lys couldn’t help but turn bright red and look down.

Chapter 13

"…what does this mean nya?"

Demon lord's close subordinate, Hellcat, Uliminus who came to investigate the Delibeza forest, was feeling perplexed at the scenery she was seeing.

The Delabeza forest is located in a south of the Demon lord's castle, also the place closest to the biggest kingdom; magic kingdom Crylord's castle.

This is why, Demon lord allocated the strongest person in the demon lord's four deva, fang wolf, fengril and his subordinates. Their mission is a preparation for the future Hero's attack and infiltrating the kingdom's castle to collect data regarding the situation inside the kingdom.

But that Fengril stopped sending out his scheduled contact.

At first, Uliminus thought that it was his usual display of a lack of interest regarding the mission since he has an eccentric personality but this continued on even after a month.

Which made Uliminus notice something must've happened and so she came to investigate the matter.

Originally a place where the Demon lord's army are garrisoned, the place surrounding the area gets poisoned by the strong Mana coming from the powerful monsters which were stationed by the Demon lord's army and so the place becomes inhabitable for humans and animal since they get poisoned by the mana turning them to monsters or die, but this time Uliminus failed to even detect even a fragment of mana plus the forest became normal enough to the point of becoming able to hear a bird's chirp.

She still can detect a beast's presence to the south since they recurrently unleash a beast such as Frantic Bear and Cyclops however regarding Fengril and his subordinate the Fangwolf tribe's presence could not be detected.
"Now that I think about it, lately the beasts we unleashed in the south seemed to be decreasing in a fast pace…..there must be some connection between that and this nya….."

Uliminus decided to test out her theory so she started dashing toward the south.

..Situation of Swordswomen Brossam

“This is amazing”

Aapshow exclaimed while looking at the farmland located in behind of the house.

Thanks to Brossam’s plowing the farm every day, it helped revitalized the farm, plus it had grown to quite a size.
“Iyaa, the dirt in this place was really good, it really motivated me to do so much”
Saying so Brossam laughed wholeheartedly

….I feel like she should use the energy she had for training the sword but….

Aapshow couldn’t do anything but smile bitterly.

..Situation in Belano the Magician

For Belano who has a deathly small capacity for the mana, Aapshow created a magic ring which was enchanted with the magic which increases the mana capacity of the wielder.

When Belano tried using it, it really did increase her magic capacity, but “….I…Feel sick”
Her body couldn’t withstand the sudden increase of mana inside her body, her stomach’s contents made a fierce reverse (vomited), then she passed out.

And right now Aapshow is lowering the rings setting to lower mana so that Belano can get used to it over time.

As a matter of fact, when Aapshow finished making the ring and was about to give it to Belano

“…You understand? Little brat. Don’t you dare wear the ring my husband-sama was benevolent enough to hand you down, in your 3rd finger(ring finger)”

Belano couldn’t help but turn blue as she was greatly pressured by the sudden deathly aura Lys unleashed.
..Present situation of Bily the archer

Bily who became strong enough to at least penetrate the outer hide of the Frantic bear thanks to the strength enchant engraved ring, she went out to the forest and was training while fighting against the forest animals but, Both her hand was trembling as she looked at the Single-horned rabbit, who was being aimed by her bow.

“Excuse me—-Lys-sama…..Should I really have to hunt that adorable rabbit–?”
“What’s wrong? Is there any problem with that?”

“Ano–it is too adorable and pitiful and—-Hauuu”

—-GATSUN

The training went nowhere against animals so it was decided that she has to train her archery skill with the tree.

Now, Bily sustained a huge bump in her head and it didn’t heal for approximately a week.

And she also got lectured by Lys

“….Understand? Little brat. The ring that Husband-sama was benevolent enough to hand(rest is up for you to decide)”

[Tlnote: yes literally the author wrote that]

..Present situation of Barissa the Knight

She was one and only one in her party who was actually showing progress. Thanks to Aapshow’s training, her useless movements were fixed and her swords sharpness increased to a higher level.

If she keeps on with this even if A ranked Frantic bear is hard, at least she has the ability to defeat most of the B-ranked beasts.

But than slightly after I made such judgment her condition suddenly gotten worse.

For some reason, she started to appeal her powerlessness and started worrying about the look Aapshow gave.

Aapshow couldn’t figure out why and so he tilted his head.

But Lys knew exactly where this is coming from.

Barrissa started her powerlessness appeal right after Aapshow gave Belano and Bily a ring.

That bitch….it's way too fucking obvious…you just want my husband-sama's ring.

And soon after this, People in charge of Barissa changed to Lys and Barissa stopped her powerlessness appeal.

….What the heck is wrong with this group nya…

Uliminus who came to check on the situation from Delibeza forest was observing Aapshow and his party.

The four who is being trained is nothing much but
The problem is with the male who was training them.

Uliminus who was one of the Demon King's unification squad had the ability to see the status of the opponent.

But, her power failed to see the man's status even with her Overpowered power.

…..Such thing….it never happened to me even with the Demon lord nya….

Uliminus also understood that there was a powerful barrier surrounding the house, so she kept still and did investigation plus collecting important information.

…Should I try metamorphosing to the human and enter nya….and I could exterminate them all after seeing the opening so

While Uliminus was thinking such

"Ara? Aren't you Uliminus? What are you doing here?"
Uliminus showed a panicked expression when she heard someone talking to her from the house's direction.

And she was further dumbstruck after seeing the figure of the person who appeared.

"Fen…Lys?"

There stood was a Fengril’s sister, Fenlys which made Uliminus be struck speechless.

Chapter 14

Uliminus the Demon lord's subordinate was feeling baffled.

"We don't really have anything to present you with but you can stay for as long as you want"
The person who introduced himself as Aapshow, the head of the house, served Uliminus a tea and cake as he welcomed Uliminus to the house with full of smile.

…Wait nya….is this poisoned nya….

"Ara? Uliminus? Are you doubting that they are poisoned? …You dare doubt that my beloved husband-sama will stoop so low to the point of poisoning …."

Uliminus noticed the deep killing intent behind her smiling face, which made her tremble a little and sipped on the tea.

Barrissa the knight and her party inside the room was "…that person….is a subordinate of demon lord…."
"No good this is dangerous….what should I do…."
"Ha…..Hawawa"
"…..(fainted)"
Trembling in a corner.

Yes, this is a normal reaction to the human commoners when they see the great me who is a high ranked demon nya….Uliminus was thinking such but

The two in front of her were acting as if nothing happened, she can understand why High ranked demon Fenlys would show no reaction but that human called Aapshow sitting next to her would not show any reaction and this really made her feel puzzled.

Plus there was something more that added to her perplexity and it was the attitude of Lys.

Fenlys who she knew used to emit kill aura all over and "You lowly creatures dare…" looked down on humans.

But right now she couldn't even detect a single kill aura emitting out rather a loving aura for Aapshow who set next to her was leaking.

Even if she is like that whenever I showed a little act which might seem dangerous or suspicious than she throws a strong killing intent toward me.

Uliminus couldn't help but accept her strength while gritting her teeth.

"So the surrounding area seemed to be you know changed nya. Especially around the Delibeza forest"

"Aa, that forest. I kind of accidentally purified the place…. It seemed like Lys's brother was also affected by it and I feel little bad about that and…."

"Husband-sama don't need to feel bad with something like this. It's brother's fault for being so weak even though he is one of the Demon lord's four devas."

…wait a moment nya….

This man, he 'accidentally' annihilated the Fengril's unit nya?
I don't understand what he is saying nya

Uliminus was feeling a powerful perplexity while still showing her smile in front but,

"Wa!? …. Master killed one of the Demon lord's four devas!?"
"Too strong….way too strong…"
"Hawa!? Hawawa…."
"…..(fainting continued)"

Eei, these four are so annoying nya

Uliminus was getting irritated over the four who sometimes gets in her thinking.

They continued talking some unimportant stuff and at the end of it, Uliminus made her move.

"I was actually in middle of my mission nya, so I'm thinking of going back nya and I want to request to you for something nya"
"Right, so what do you want?"
"I am really curious of you who even Lys couldn't beat nya. I would like a spar with you nya"
To that word,
"Deny it Husbands sama! This bitch, she want to use the sparring as an excuse to

“Daaa! I have no desire to do that nya!”
Aapshow smiled bitterly looking at the Uliminus who was desperately trying to convince Lys of her motive.
“Don’t worry I understand, my wife’s ex-co-worker might be worried that a demon’s husband is a human so I don’t have any problem”
Aapshow accepted her request.

Ulimnus had a plan for this spar.
She couldn’t just trust that he defeated Fengril, or how he overpowered Lys like an idiot, but she has to at least believe that he may be a strong person.
Thinking so without having to fight him head on, her plan was to send her specialty, a poison magic to the underground and kill him without being noticed.

Ma, Most likely Fenlys’s attitude is like that since she is under that man’s mental control of some sort….she will definitely turn back when I defeat this man nya

The two went out of the house to confront each other

“I’m always ready so you can start anytime”
Aapshow who stood there without wielding a sword or activating any defense magic said so naturally.
Uliminus while feeling disturbed because of how he was without any sort of defense, she lowered her stance and

“Than…I will attack nya!”
Saying so she flew high in the air.

The flight is just a dummy.
This was an act to distract him from noticing the magic. Poisonous fang which was unleashed to the underground aiming for Aapshow.

However

“I see, A poison magic from the underground ”
Aapshow mumbled to himself.
And at the same time, the poisonous fang which was moving super fast underground made a sound indicating its destruction.

“Haa!?”

For instance, Uliminus couldn’t understand what just happened but as a close subordinate of a Demon lord, without hesitating, she unleashed several poisonous snakes from every direction aiming at Aapshow.

But

Even this was destroyed the next instance making ‘Palin’ sound.
“It’s little bad isn’t it, using poisonous attacks”

Uliminus’s body was stopped as if she was crucified in midair at the same time as Aapshow’s word came out.

Uliminus’s movement was sealed and she was pressured to the point of being suffocated as she couldn’t even breathe nor think rationally.

“I can easily dodge it but, what if it affected Lys and the Barrissa’s group.”

“Husband-sama, As for me I will be fine, I can at least protect my own life you know?”
“It’s about my feeling. I won’t feel good if a poison was aimed at you”
Hearing Aapshow’s word,

“Mou, Husband-sama”
Saying so her face became really red and looked downward.

As for Uliminus

Because she couldn’t breathe she fainted midair.

After that,
Aapshow apologized for attacking her till she fainted by prostrating to Uliminus.

Dangerous nya…that guy is seriously bad nya….I have to report it to the demon lord sama nya

She rushed back to the Demon lord’s castle.

At the same time,

“….Aapshow-sama was actually worried even about us”

“Ma, if we ever were hit with that poison, we would’ve been insta-dead”
“Awawa…Awawa…”

“…Ha!? (she realized it now)”

Aapshow and Lys ate with Barissa and the other three while they were acting like that.

Still,
“As always Husband-sama…is wonderful”
This night, it seemed like the two did a bit rougher than usual

Chapter 15

“You are saying…. that even you were not his opponent?”

After hearing his close subordinate, Uliminus’s report the Demon Lord Goul angrily shouted while sitting on the throne.

Hellcat Uliminus was sweating profusely as she sat in front of the Demon lord. It is not strange for a worst case scenario where if the Demon lord hears such a report, the reporter can get insta-killed.
But Uliminus judged that this choice will be better compared to hiding and not telling the truth.

Demon Lord Goul was in deep, though.

For Uliminus waiting for the word of judgment, felt like an eternity.

“Hmm, Since you have said that much than that man must have a quite bit of strength….if so, it will be ideal if we dealt with him quicker.
Ulimnus, Lead the Dragon Army and capture that man.
If possible persuade him to allege a loyalty to me.”

Hearing the word, Uliminus nodded in a desperate manner and “I understand nya. I will definitely bring that man here nya”

Saying so she rushed out from the Demon lords room.

…I…I thought I would be killed nya…I though I died nya…

She frantically stopped her expression from turning into that of relief while rushing out of the Demon lord’s place.

…Next day

“Human, I have to thank you for your hospitality nya”
Uliminus was on top of the huge dragon’s head.
And behind her was another 10 dragons following her. All seemed to have over 10-meter body.

This Dragons Army is the elite attacking squad which is the pride of Demon lord’s army as they successfully repelled hero’s army several times in history, An elite army with many Veterans.

While shown such a dragon,
“Hee….This is a dragon, it’s my first time seeing it”
“There was no Dragon in Husband-sama’s another world?”
“South side of the city in which I lived had a rumor that there was a feudal lord who owned three dragons, but it is my first time seeing one”

Uliminus felt quite irritated looking at the Aapshow and Lys who seemed to be having a normal couple talk.

“…thi,this….Dragon….Dragon…that many…”
“Thi….dangerous…My legs won’t stop trembling….”
“Ha…..Hawawaaaaaaa!?”
“…..(fainted while white foam spilled out of her mouth)”
Behind Aapshow, Barissa and the three were panic stricken but,

….Why is this human not panicking even after seeing a dragons army nya
Isn’t the reaction of the stupid four a normal one nya….

Even though Uliminus was confused for a second
“How is it nya? Human. I can save your life if you surrender to us and swear loyalty to the Demon lord-sama nya. If you deny it nya, then you will become a food for the dragons nya”

Uliminus was thinking that no matter how strong Aapshow is after being surrounded by this many dragons he definitely gonna surrender but “Eh? Am I allowed to fight with the Dragons? Of course, I’m allowed to use the scale of the dragon however I want right? Aa, I at least once wanted to create a weapon with the Dragon’s scale. ”

Uliminus becomes more confused after seeing the sudden change in Aapshow’s mood.

“If…If there is no space for a negotiation than you just have to die nya!”

The moment Uliminus raised her hand, the surrounding Dragons instantly attacked Aapshow.

..Few minutes later

..THi…this is absurd nya…

Ulimnus couldn't care less about her back which was burned black as she was running away desperately while on top of the dragon.
Even the dragon she is riding on had one of his legs amputated and had several serious wounds on the body , as it was flying with little power it had.
There only 2 dragons following the head dragon and all of them had severe wounds all over.

The fight was one sided.
Toward the Dragons who came attacking the Aapshow, he raised his hand and next moment the gigantic lightning fell from the sky.

Godly Magic . heaven's punishment

Usually, this kind of Godly magic would take several hours of chanting from around 10 greatest magicians.
But Aapshow used it just like this
"This, Let me try it"
And it casted at the as the words came out the same time.

Just after this one hit, 7 out of 11 dragons was annihilated and fell from the sky.
The dragons seeing such an overwhelming magic power tried to escape the next moment.

"Nya!? You bunch!? Return back to the battle nya!!"

Even though Uliminus was commanding desperately, the dragons couldn't hear it as they were fully occupied by the fear.

Seeing such a scene Brossam's eyes opened wide and "Husband-san, amazing…If it was like this I should've had thrown at least a single spear…if it goes right I might have been awarded the title of Dragon Slayer."

She threw the spear lightly while smiling.

"How about we try that?"
Aapshow said so and,

Buff-Acceleration
Buff-Godly-lize
Buff-Super Damage

He buffed the spear that Brossam threw with several buff magic.

At the same time, the Spear was surrounded by the light and it sped in a great speed toward the slowest dragon, as a result, it beheaded the dragon's neck.

Seeing such a scene, Brossam, and the other three's jaws dropped.

"Uwoo!? There is a dragon slayer title in my status!?"
Brossam seeing her status shouted in joy.

Hearing her voice Barissa the knight said,

"A, A, A, Aapshow-dono! M, MMe! I want to do it too! No Please, I beg you! I beg you!"
Saying so, she tried to throw the sword she wielded toward the Dragon's direction but it was too late as the Dragons were out of sight.

"Sorry. Even its hard for me to do it out of range"

"…no, why…"
She cried for real and Barissa fell to her knees.

Chapter 16

Demon lord Goul was walking alone in the forest.

He changed his appearance to that of an adventurer and continued on his way toward the south of the Delibeza forest.

I didn't think he was a person who can destroy the Dragons army without a scratch…..

Demon Lord Goul watched the battle between Aapshow and the Dragons army and was astonished and panicked at the same time while seeing the overwhelming power Aapshow had.

So, Demon lord thought that he can metamorphose to human and find out the special characteristics and personality of Aapshow so that he can somehow create a plan to conquer him.

Uliminus and many of his subordinates disapproved of an idea that the Demon lord himself meet the opponent but, defeating such a powerful opponent is a job for Demon lord with that said everyone silently agreed on this which made it so that they couldn't retort back.

"…Mu"

When Aapshow's house came into view Goul couldn't help but knit his brows.

In front of him was a stealthily raised trap type barrier which requires one to have a high detection type magic to detect.

-I couldn't believe they set up such high skilled trap….

Goul's back was drenched with sweat as he knows that just one more step and he could've been caught by the trap.

He was able to detect the trap when he was about to step on the trap.

The trap deemed him who erased his demon mana, and who changed his appearance to that of human, an enemy

With this trap in front of him he couldn't continue on so he stood there thinking of a plan.

“Who are you?”

Single female knight came out from inside the barrier.

“Are you an acquaintance of a master-sama? Or are you an acquaintance of the mistress-sama?”

While she seems to ask in a very friendly manner, but her hand was attached onto her weapon’s hilt which hang around in her waist, and was ready to attack any time.

“No, its like this…I am a old friend of the mistress…and I heard that she was living here so I came to visit her”

“Oo, it was something like this”

The female knight saying so unsheathed her sword and pointed at Goul.

“…than that means you are a person from Demon race? What’s your reason for coming here? Depending on your answer, I Barissa will be your opponent”

Before, she was told that Lys was a person who was forcibly controlled by the demon but,

Yesterday, Aapshow and Lys told her that Lys is a person from the Demon race.

Even so, Lys usually acts like a normal person and looking at her act all lovey dovey with Aapshow, the four accepted this sudden news and made a intention work hard for the two.

…fumu, her decisiveness is really good

“It’s true that I am a demon. However, I just came to see what’s up so I’m planning to go back now”

Saying so Goul raised both his arm to show that he had no hostility.

Seeing his intention herself, she lay down the sword and “If so than I have no reason to point any hostility toward you. And If you have any message you want me to deliver to the mistress?”

After confirming that Barissa didn’t show any opening toward Goul even after lowering her sword.

“I see.. Than I would like you to tell the husband-dono that I would love to have tea together in near future”

“I understand….I am Barissa a knight. What is your name?”

“….You can tell them that I’m Gozaru”

Saying so Goul left.

…Few hours later in Demon lord’s castle

“Demon Lord sama. How was that man Aapshow nya? Were you have to have any good harvest nya?”

Uliminus asked Goul who was sitting in the throne.

But Goul was looking down thinking deeply about something.

Even after calling out on him several time he didn’t bulge, seeing such scene

…His highness must be thinking about a new strategy…

Uliminus who thought such left the throne room.

…Barissa…I…see…

Her movement were graceful for a human.

The way she stood showed a clear dignity.

And the courage to stand for his master.

Goul was having quite a hard time to not to think about her figure.

…Same time in the Aapshow household.

“You…gotta be kidding me right?”

Hearing Aapshow’s word Barissa body were drenched with sweat from anxiety.

“Yup, there should be no mistake. The one you faced with was the Demon lord in disguise”

Next to Aapshow, Lys also nodded and

“But…He should’ve chose something with better name rather than Gozaru if he was going to use a alias”

Saying so she chuckled lightly.

“Even so, drinking tea together huh. It might be interesting”

“I don’t know about that….that Demon lord is a person with the personality of a statue so I’m suspicious whether he can make an entertaining talk with husband-sama”

Both smiling together while having a small idle talk.

And in front of them was Barissa who was still trembling and being drenched with sweat as if she took a shower.

“Tha….that…demon lord…I actually….pointed a ….sword at demon lord….this is bad…I’m going to get killed…..definitely get killed!….”

The figure now has lost every bit of the dignified look when she was pointing sword at the demon lord

While trembling Barissa was leaking liquid from everybit of her body such as eyes, nose, mouth and some place one must not talk about.

“Oi, Oi, don’t dirty the floor. Don’t you know how hard it is to clean them” – Brossam

“Awawa…it is dirty-desu” – Biily

“…tchi…(shows an annoyed look)”- Belano

“Boho?” – Sabea

Chapter 17

“Yaa, Gozaru. Welcome”

Today is the fourth time the Demon Lord Goul visited Aapshow’s house and Aapshow welcomed him with a bright smile.

Aapshow changed the setting to exclude Goul from being the target of the barrier so Goul was able to exit and enter anytime he wanted.

Demon Lord Goul came often to visit the house after his first visit.

The real reason for the visit was to meet Valissa the female knight but, she now knows that Gozaru is the Demon lord Goul so

“To, to, to, today I have to go wash the clothes in the river….”

“To, to, to today I have to go gather firewood from the mountain….”

And so on, she makes some sort of excuse and escape from Goul’s sight.

….A really hard worker.

However, the opinion the Demon Lord Goul has on Valissa gets better and better every day.

Meanwhile, the Demon Lord Goul started to take a liking in talking with Aapshow after several days of meeting together.

Aapshow and Lys both treats him as an equal or rather a normal guest in which they have an idle chat and enjoy the tea. Demon lord Goul felt tranquil toward the time he spent in this house.

“Demon lord-sama….toy visit that kind of man so often is too dangerous nya!”

Even as Hellcat Uliminus tries to stop him, he

“To that kind of powerful person, if you were able to conciliate him then won’t that be the best for us. ”

To the reply, she got “si, sir you were thinking that far ahead na” her admiration toward demon lord increased.

As a matter of fact, this reply was thought by Lys

“These days, My subordinates are noisy telling me to stop coming here to play…”

“How about you say this back to them?”

However

The news about the visits of some sort of Demon to Aapshow’s huse was known to the castle.

Aapshow received pleas from castle to join Bronde Haired Hero’s party but, because Aapshow held tremendous power which leads to Aapshow’s household to become under continuous surveillance Hearing such a truth, the King became confused than panicked.

Contrary to the King's reaction of the Blonde haired hero who were shut in inside the castle became really happy.

Blonde Haired Hero heard about Aapshow and wanted to have him as a subordinate but even after many messengers were sent to invite him, all seemed to be declined which made him feel mad.

But he thought that if he used the relationship the Aapshow might have to threaten him to become is an subordinate.

Next day Blonde haired hero brought an army with him and visited Aapshow's house.

"Listen to me you commonoers of this place.

We already have seen through your connection with the person of the demon race.

Usually, I would persecute the likes of you but I shall bestow you upon with a chance.

Become my subordinate and fight against the demon lord, if you do so then I shall forgive your sin.

Not only that there will be plenty of rewards.

If you are going to decline then, leave this place with your family this instant!"

That was perfect….

Now I am able to gain one of the crimax level top 3.

[tlnote: a delusion the blonde haired guys has]

The Blonde Haired Hero was feeling drunk toward his graceful speech and brain.

Now I can have Aapshow as my subordinate.

And with this, I will defeat the demon lord using this power and become true Hero than I will become the legend of this country…

“Tha…That is too tyrannical! Hero-dono”

“Think about our convineient”

“Na…nanodesu….awawa”

“…Ki! (glare of protest)”

Contrary to the Valissa and her party who shouted angryily toward the Hero, aapshow smiled toward Blonde Haired hero

“I see. It’s a pain in an ass but I guess we can move than”

Saying so he used the magic bag which hangs in his waist to absorb the field which Blossam plowed and the house.

“The situation calls for so are we ready to go lys?”

“Ee, I will follow husband-sama till I die”

Saying so Lys hugged one of Aapshow’s arm.

“Ma…Master-sama! Please bring this Valissa with you!”

“I Blossam will follow too! You can depend me on Farm works!”

“Hawawa!? Bi, Bily want to follow too—”

“..Me too!”

“Bofu!”

The pet frantic bear. Sabea with everyone else all asked Aapshow to bring them with him.

Aapshow confirmed it and,

“Than lets us go..hmm as for now we can go to that place”

Saying so he activated the Teleportaiton magic and disappeared from the place.

Later that day,

The blonde haired hero wasn’t able to realize the disappearance of the Aapshow and his group for a while since he was drunk with his imaginative dream but, he became frustrated and panicked as Aapshow select the “go away!” option.

Soon after he arrived back at the castle he ordered the King to search for Aapshow and he himself went back to being a hikikomori.

And the Demon lord Goul who got the news became outraged.

He ordered for the army to march through the Delibeza forest and continued on till norhermost part of the castle.

He purposely didn’t invade rather they sent the Demon’s presence toward the castle which made the castle and the town below it to be in a state of chaos.

…Dare to destroy my new hobby

Well, it’s not important to say but Demon Lord made an order to search for Aapshow in stealth.

Chapter 18

It’s been a month since Aapshow and his party’s disappearance.

King and his subordinate begged desperately to the blonde haired hero to exterminate the Demon lord’s army which positioned itself right before the castle wall, but the Blonde haired hero denied it stubbornly.

So without any choice The king commanded the use of the Magic Kingdom Cryload’s a supreme Godly magic Purification and somehow managed to let the Demon Lord’s army to retreat for now.

But because of the backlash from having depleted all the mana stored in their body, the highest ranked Magicians in the castle all became unable to use magic for another 2 to 3 years.

And King himself used most of his mana making him fall into a coma.

So the Eldest Princess took over the throne as an acting King till the King wake up.

By the way the Purification which was used is actually same magic Aapshow used on the Delibeza forest but the total amount of mana used was ⅓ compared to Aapshow’s. (Took 2 minute to recover the lost mana for Aapshow)

As for the Demon Lord’s army

Even though they retreated because of the purification, the purification magic the country unleashed took 3 days and 3 nights of continuous chanting so Demon Lord’s army who detected it earlier on retreated quite early so the army suffered little to no damage.

Even so, the land which was purified makes it impossible for the undead type monsters to go near, it became impossible for the demon lord’s army to go near it and the retreat was to wait for the effect of the purification to lessen.

When the Demon lord’s army retreated, Blonde Haired hero suddenly restarted his training journey to the south.

The enemy in the south compared to the northern monsters the Demon lord’s army placed, is weaker by several level making it a perfect place to train but for a hero who's going to fight the Demon lord, it is abit too weak of a place.

Without any care for such, Blonde Haired hero became shut in inside the citadel located in south of the castle and in there he ordered the first royal princess to bring in foods and women.

To this situation where nothing could be done the First royal princess decided to forsake the Blonde Haired hero once and for all.

With that in mind Princess wanted to summon a new hero but the activation of purification magic, all the highest class magicians who were able to summon heroes all fell in coma making them unable to summon one.

Princess who became greatly perplexed, asked one of the highest level magician who was barely able to maintain his consciousness even though more than half of his mana was depleted, to ask the goddess for the way to save the country.

"The true Hero have been already summoned…Everyone just overlooked him"

The oracle was given.

And toward this oracle most of the people in the castle gossiped that the Aapshow who disappeared because of the hero's foolish act in a month ago, was the real hero.

Till now the decree was to search for Aapshow so that he can join in the Blonde Haired Hero but the First royal Princes changed this to finding a true hero Aapshow.

Unfortunately the Blonde Haired Hero who heard of this news started to engage in a secret maneuver.

…During such a chaos in the kingdom

"Sir.Furio, this shield…is it actually made of Dragon's scale? "

Owner of the weaponary store swallowed a mouthful of air as he looked at the shield a person named Furio brought.

"As expected of you master, you are right. This shield is the best item I was able to get from my strictly confidential route"

Furio laughed saying so.

Owner who looked at the shield and the smiling Furio multiple times

“I would love to buy this for quite a fair amount. So that if you find any of the dragon type item I would like you to sell it to my shop”

While saying so, he gave Aapshow a bag full of gold.

Houtarou City

The commerce city far away to the east from the kingdom’s castle.

Contrary to that of the town below the castle, in here foreign species could be seen everywhere as well as the adventurers and merchants.

Furio entered the house entrance which was located in the suburbs of the town.

“Husband-sama welcome back!”

A women who looked to be a wife of Furio hugged him tightly.

They made a long kiss even before greeting and

“I’m back, Lys”

Furio smiled and hugged his wife again.

This Furio

His real name is Banaza, and one of his nickname was Aapshow.

In here Banaza called himself Furio and lived as a merchant.

Even so, they already had enough money to fool around their entire house and wasn’t really required to work but, Furio who always loved to work, he does a merchant’s job every day.

“The shield I smithed myself with the Dragon army of the Demon lord’s scale, was sold for quite high price”

“Husband-sama really can do anything. Even my blood boiled slightly looking at that shield”

Saying so Lys smiled.

Incidentally she is also a ex-high ranked demon.

Starting with the carcass of the Dragon and the carcass of the beasts Furio defeated are all stored inside his magic item, magic bag.

Furio process these materials to create weapons and magic items, which he sells them off in the town but if he ever said he was the one to create it than there would be too much order, so he told them that he gets it from a secret route.

By the way,

Varissa the knight is hunting in the forest near the house. Her Armours and Weapons are made by Furio however she still wasn't gifted the magic enchanted ring.

Blossam the warrior, is putting her all into taking care of the farmland behind the house.

Even if the world is large, Most likely she is the only person in this world who is using a tool for farming made of dragon scale.

Bily the archer, created a pasture right next to the farmland and is taking care of the horses and cows.

She is earning plenty by lending the horses to the merchants.

As for Belano the magician is attending magic school in the town.

To Belano who has zero attack magic, she is learning alot from it.

Last but not the least Sabea the frantic bear pet, because his appearance will attract unwanted attention Furio chanted a magic to change his appearance to that of Horned Rabbit, and everyday it goes hunting while saying Funsu Funsu with Varissa.

Well you might know it with me telling you but Sabea's quarry are a lot more than Varissa……

Chapter 19

Today Furio and his wife Lys went out to Houtarou town together.
They do this every once in 2 days, and this was one of the things they enjoyed the most.

“What do you want to eat today?”
“Anything Husband-sama chooses is fine….Personally, I want to go to that place where it smelled nice last time, around that corner”
“Well then, let us do that”
“Hai!”

Lys hugged Furio’s arm and walked together in the town.
“Master-sama and Mistress sama, are very close with each other as usual, very admirable”
This day, Varissa was looking at the two while smiling.

While the three were walking in the town, the front of them started to become crowded with people.
They got curious and took a peek they saw,

“You asshole, you hit my brother and walk away without paying aa?”
“It hurts, It hurts Big Brother”

Next to the very big and bulky male was a slim and weak guy on the floor holding his shoulder and rolling around.

In front of the two was a slightly short, women with a black hooded mantle.
“..Didn’t I already apologized about accidentally bumping into you?”
saying so the women showed an irritated look to them.

“Aa? My underling is in pain can’t you fcking see? You think a simple ’sorry’ would do? A? You should just fcking hand things you should hand before something bad happens right motherfcker?oi? “

The males are famous for scamming people in this place.
They always choose the people who seemed to be new to this place and purposely bump into them , then cry that they got hurt so after that they demand money.

The people who are surrounding them also knows this but if they help her than they know they will get the group to secretly make things difficult for them so the crowd acts like they don't see anything.

The man looked at the women with a disgusting smile and opens his hands indicating that she had to give him money.
The women glared at the man's face and clicked her tongue

"…This, lowly being dared to…"
next moment the black like aura started to leak from the women's body.

"wha..what is this!?"
The man became panicked looking at the shadow and took a step back and infront of him the women's shadow got bigger and bigger

"Hai, both of you stop"

Furio Came between them.

"…Fu, boss Furio…"
The man recognized Furio and for instance, he showed anger but soon it changed to a fake smile.

about a month ago
This man did the same to the Furio when he first came to the town.
and because of that, the man was beaten to a pulp by Furio.

"I wish for you to stop doing such a thing, didn't I? Koui stop acting and stand up, your acting skill is horrible as always"

"we don't do scamming any…more you know… Oi, how long are you going to roll on the floor! lets scram"

"he…hei"

The two bowed to Furio several times and left.

..well

Furio looked at the Women's direction

She already withdrew the black shadow like thing and glared at Furio with the eyes saying who are you?

“There may be a people like them but this town is filled with many good people. So please don’t feel too bad about it and enjoy the stay here”

Saying so Furio Bowed toward her.

Toward the words, the women without saying anything slightly bowed back.

than Furio got close to the women’s ear and said
“..You shouldn’t release the demons power in here. I will cause a great chaos to break out” saying so she patted her shoulder and left

“..Husband-sama…you were too close”
Lys showed a slightly pouted look toward Furio who came back ad hugged his hand tightly.

seeing this Aapshow smiled bitterly but he still patted her head lightly with the other hand.
“I think Master-sama didn’t need to go, I could have handled them myself”

“But Varissa at first you really tried to pay him the hospital fee right?”

“tha….that was you know..I thought he was really hurt…and”

Furio and Lys both laughed as they looked at Varissa get flustered.

…They, saw through my disguise…?

The women were looking at the Furio’s party’s back while feeling her patted shoulder.

When the three finished with their lunch and just got out of the restaurant,

“..can I have a moment with you please?”
the women from before were waiting for them
“if it’s a gratitude from before then I don’t need anything. I’ve done something everyone would’ve done”

“no..I am grateful to you about that but..I want to ask you seeing as you are an expert yourself.
the truth is I got an order from the Higher one and is in search of a person

I am searching for a male called Aapshow and his family's residence, but have you heard of anyone of that sorts that ever came here?"

To the word Furio and Lys showed a poker face and made no reaction what so ever.
but behind them, Varissa showed a slightly surprised look.

"Hmm… I have no idea of such person…but what about it?"
"I'm not sure of the reason myself but, the command was to arrest him and bring him to the higher being."

"I see, then if I ever see them I will keep them in mind"

"…It will help a lot"

"what is this…about arresting"
Varissa asks the question in a low voice but Furio answered with "no idea?" and showed a slightly bitter expression.

Next day's morning

Varissa was jogging around the house.
it is part of her daily routine.

than,

Behind her, someone suddenly appeared and pushed Varissa to the floor and held her immobile.

when Varissa looks back she saw the same woman as yesterday.

"..wha, what are you doing bastard"
"You, I know you know something about Aapshow right? You were the only one to show reaction to the name" saying so she brought the short sword to her neck.
"Say what you know then I might not take your life…."
after saying this much she collapsed and lost consciousness.

Aapshow who came behind her by teleportation magic hit her head hard enough for the opponent to fall unconscious .

"Master-sama… I'm sorry, I dirtied your hand, and I swear to train harder."

the Varissa who stood up ignored the dirt all over her body and got onto her knees and apologized to Furio.

“It’s not your fault that you were not able to notice it since this demon is a stealth type.”
saying so Furio looked at the unconscious women and thought what to do with it.

Chapter 20

The women who woke up realized that she was caught so,

"…fuun"
She tried to tear the rope with her power.

"It's impossible. It is a high ranked magic restraint tool"
Furio who noticed her wake, walked toward her while smiling bitterly.

In Furio's house living room
The women who were laying on top of the sofa gave up trying to break free from the restraint for now and took time looking around the place.

"…To be captured is my life's greatest failure…now, Kill me"
The woman closed her eyes while gritting her teeth in vexation.

"Why are you doing so much to find this guy called Aapshow, why is it? The order to arrest and bring him with you, I think something big must've happened right?"
Aapshow is a name, Furio used during the stay in the previous town.
This woman said that she was ordered by the high one to arrest me and bring me to them but,

..there is no mistake that she is a demon and what she meant by the high one is maybe someone connected to Demon lord or demon lord himself.

Furio thought of many possibilities in his mind and "If you would like to, can you explain me the situation with precise information? Maybe with some circumstance I might be able to help"

"Denied. Kill me now. Demon Ninja must kill oneself if one failed the mission so that evidence will be gone."

To Furio's word, she denied it instantly and looked away.

Furio while smiling bitterly at her reaction, he softly placed his hand on her knee.
And used the Mind Decipher magic without letting her know and searched through her memory on the order.

….n…nn?

A few minutes later, Furio smiled.

“..Glenial-san, I will ask again but the order really was like this “Arrest Aapshow and bring him back”?”
“Of course”
While smiling bitterly at her instant answer,

“I understand. How about we make a deal. I will remove the restriction for today. But, soon after you go back to the Demon lord’s castle and recheck the content of the mission with Uliminus. This is a prerequisite to me releasing you.”

“Wa….wait! I didn’t tell you my name! How did you know!? And even Uliminus-sama’s name!? Who ar”

“Understood?”

Women who tried to connect the word, Glenial, was silenced by the powerful aura Furio surrounded himself with, so she kept the word for herself and she couldn’t do anything but nod.

Furio who saw her off Glenial who disappeared instantly after she left the house but “…Husband-sama, it seems that you have touched that women’s knee for a quite long time why?”
Lys appeared behind Furio with a really scary aura coming out off her body, and while being drenched with his own sweat, he was forced to tell her the situation from before.

…A few days later

“…I’m really sorry for what I’ve done”
Glenial was prostrating in front of Aapshow in Furio’s House’s living room.

After the confrontation from before she went to her superior Uliminus and rechecked her mission, “Find Aapshow’s residence without failure nya, if he is will accompany him here nya”

“That means “arrest him and bring him here” right?”

“…where in the word did I say ‘arrest’ and ‘bring him’ nya! Ann? ”

“It was as you said.. This order was to not arrest them and bring them but rather find their living quarter and if they are willing then escort them with most courtesy. It was all my fault for being in a rush”

Glenial who were scolded so badly by Uliminus that many parts of her hair were burned black.
Thanks to the mind decipher magic, he was able to know the order given by Uliminus and how Glenial’s understanding of it seemed to be different, so it was as he thought after sending her back to Uliminus.

“If I didn’t return to confirm my mission than I might’ve done something I will regret. I am really thankful for this”

Genial hit her head to the floor while prostrating
“You don’t have to do that. Everyone makes mistakes”

Varissa who saw the situation carried Glenial to stand up.

“You will also forgive me even though I did something really horrible to you….”

“What’s important is future. So you don’t have to worry about it anymore”

“..I’m ashamed of myself”
Glenial cried after hearing Varissa’s words.

After Glenial calmed down Furio and his party questioned her with many things and was able to learn a lot frothier.
She is a direct subordinate of Uliminus, trainee member of Secret agent Silent ear.

For this search mission of Aapshow, Uliminus sent all the Secret agent Silent ear all over the kingdom and since kingdom is huge they needed more manpower so they couldn’t help but send trainee too.

“I became rushed because it was my first mission and I wanted to have some sort of achievement….I’m so pathetic…”

Glenial had a sad look and sighed.
Soon after

Glenial left since she still had her mission to search the surrounding area of Houtarou town and investigate the people who makes entry and exit to the city.

“Husband-sama aren’t you going to tell her your real name?”

“Even if she is a trainee. she still is part of espionage. so let’s just leave her be till she notices it?”

To Furio’s word Lys nodded with agreement.

“But…I feel really bad for her and…”

“Than, you can tell her but most likely the Demon lord wants to meet you, Varissa, and not me”

“wh!? what did you say!?”
Varissa despaired hearing Furio’s word

“is…is it because of that….that…I pointed my sword at him so he still holds a grudge….against me…no…no..it shouldn’t be”
Varissa was sweating rivers while mumbling something.

“wohoo, I’m getting jealous over these hot couple”
“I think you should wear a flower crown and meet him desuu”

“…Gu! (nodding in agreement toward Bily’s suggestion)”

To Varissa who didn’t seem to notice her friends, Sabea in Horned Rabbit form hopped onto her shoulders and patted her shoulder with Pon Pon sound, in pity.

..At same time in houtarou street

“asshole, you think you can go after bumping into my underling? aa?”
“It hurts, it hurts Big brother”

Weak looking man Koui was rolling on the floor holding onto his shoulders next to the ferocious looking man Ataria.

In front of them was a female knight in male outfit and armor.

“..I already apologized about bumping into your shoulders. And you still keep on pestering me are you perhaps a Scammer?”

saying so the female knight unseated her sword and pointed it toward the two.

toward her strong aura and move the Ataria and his partner was,

“n…no, it’s not like that “ they judged her to be a bad opponent and escaped from the place.

“Haa, I guess thugs like them are common even in here”

Even while sighing the Female knight cross-dressed as a male started looking around.

“First thing first, I need to gather information…The best place to find whereabout of Aapshow-dono would be in Adventurer’s guild or in the bar” mumbling this she hid her face with a hood.
and in her back was a symbol of Magic Kingdom Cryload.

Chapter 21

Next day after arriving at the town

The female knight wearing male outfit was walking around the town.

Her name is Volaris

She is a First Imperial Princess's Imperial Guard unit 2nd regiment captain.

She was given an order from First Imperial Princess to find the Aapshow who was the most likely to be the true hero, and was one of the members in search unit which are spread all over the kingdom.

It's been about a month since she went out for this mission.

She's been in more than 10 different towns but she wasn't able to get any reliable or relevant information.

The kingdom already used it's strongest hidden weapon, the highest class godly magic purification because of the Demon army's invasion…..To be able to reuse it, it will take around 2 to 3 years.

So during the 2, 3 years opening, if the Demon Lord's army invaded the country, the country will have no way of resisting them…that is why such an order was instructed.

That is why I have to flawlessly and in the quickest time must accomplish this mission.

…But, the First imperial queen's dignified presence in front of us the search unit was….really unbearably amazing…..

Petite and thin body….It truly made me love struck, even though her majesty is young, the gap when she acts so dignified and strong really makes me….. N, no, she is an acting King and a first imperial prince-sama…..I shouldn't bring such a personal feeling into this….no,no,no but really….

Cross-dressed female knight Volaris.

Is a First Imperial Princess's Imperial Guard unit 2nd regiment captain and a lolicon. (secret)

She finally noticed her face which got out of control with the ecstatic look, she smacked her face to bring herself out of the delusion.

….right, gathering information is more important for now…

Thinking so She shifted the glance to the surrounding area and her eyes stopped at the corner of the town.

.Petite!

.Thin!!

There was a girl which had a very childish face but obviously a grown up wearing a magician's robe which is slightly larger than her body while carrying 2 large books.

The magician's hat she was wearing covered some part of her upper face which further enhanced her childish look.

All these information made Volaris feel attracted to her.

Volaris tried to calm her fast beating hear and "I should…definitely, talk to her"

Determined with her action she took a mouthful of air.

"Little lady, that thing you are carrying looks really heavy. How about I help?"

Volaris who went near the girl tried her best to keep her breathing from becoming rough and talked to the magician girl.

The women became surprised because of the sudden voice calling her out making her run.

"Aa, I'm not anyone suspicious. I am a Knight in this town because of a mission I was given. It's just that I noticed you young lady was carrying such a heavy looking item you see. I cam here to help you out.

I'm not thinking of anything lewd….but if your time allows you too, then I would like for you to accompany for a drink…ah..what?"

Volaris who noticed that the magician female was gone from her sight even though she was talking nonstop, stood still and showed a confused expression.

But next instant she came back to her senses and so she looked around in a panic.

In a shadow of an alley, a bit further from Volaris was a Magician girl – Belano, and her face was blue with fright while observing the Volaris plus she looked as if she will run away any moment.

This happened because Volaris 'thought' she was talking to her in a very natural way.

But, from the Belano's perspective, Volaris's look was abnormal.

At first, she started out with a natural way but, the more she talked the more perverted and scary she looked, her eyes were blood red, breathing got heavier and rougher, and she looked as if she was about to grab onto Belano.

Toward such an abnormal scene, Belano who felt a danger coming from her, so she used her small stamina she had and escaped from Belano the moment her gaze left for an instant.

"……..!(That woman…Dangerous)"

After visual confirmation that Volaris went to one of the direction, she rushed to the direct opposite from Volaris

But

"Aa, little lady, you were over here!"

Even though she definitely saw Volaris go the opposite direction, she suddenly appeared in front of Her, which made Belano astonished and made her unable to move out of shock.

She tried to change her direction in a hurry but her book was too heavy and her stamina is at its limit so she couldn't move her body like how she wanted.

"You don't have to be that much on guard against me. I just asked you with pure heart with no bad intention what so ever and I just wanted to help you…."

Contrary to her words, she appeared to be hentai with her rough breathing and was approaching Belano but

To her surprise, one woman stood in between Volaris and Belano.

“What in the world are you doing….Depending on your reason I Glenial shall bring upon justice”

Glenial unsheathed her sword and pointed it toward Volaris.

To her appearance

“To become a hindrance to a helping hand…ha ha, you are definitely an evil person right? When you see an opening after I go away, you will try to steal this graceful and elegant lady’s items, right? Right, this is your plan! ”

Volaris saying so she unsheathed her own sword and confront Glenial.

“Ara? Belano what happened?”

Lys showed a dubious look toward Belano who came running toward her while breathing heavily.

While behind Glenial and Bolaris who were confronting each other with their Battle Qi she was about to collapse but, when she saw Lys in the distance she used her utmost effort to get to her.

After that Lys and Belano who met with Furio went home right away with the teleportation magic.

After this event

Belano stopped going to the magic school for a while.

Chapter 22

…One month later

Glenial was still doing her information gathering in Houtarou's town.

It's because she is in charge of this region and this town is the biggest one around here.

After being defeated in an ovelwhelming manner by Aapshow, she felt that this was a humiliation and her strong feeling of revenge was burning inside her soul.

"Furio-Dono! This meeting must be a luck of one in hundreddddddd! Today I will win for sure!"

"…Right now I'm having a meal with Husband-sama. so can you wait until we finish our meal?"

"y…Yes, of course, I'm sorry for disturbing Mistress" like this, while being respectful toward Lys, she kept on calling Furio, and every single time she gets instal-killed (not literally).

And after some day later.

"Furio-dono! Please make me your Disciple"

Genial started begging for it.

"Unn….I don't do that kind of thing…"

at first, Furio was rejecting it but, Glenial was too persistent.

Day, afternoon and evening, she prostrated in front of Furio's house and kept on begging.

One day, early in the morning, Unfortunately, Glenial came begging right before the couple's wake up sex and so Glenial received a full powered kick from Lys and she nearly saw a river styx, Finally, Furio just gave up and accepted her as his disciple.

However,

"If you are really going to become my disciple than you must report this to your superior Uliminus”

Lys said to Glenial so Glenial went back to the Demon Lord’s castle in High spirit but,

“What the heck are you thinking nya!? Becoming someone’s disciple while in middle of the mission nya!? What are you doing not doing your work Nyaa!!!”

“Thats not it Uliminus-sama! This is for the Mission! To train oneself is also important”

“There is nothing more important than Demon Lord-sama’s mission nyaaaaaaaa!!”

“Demon lord-sama’s order is important! however to complete the mission in higher efficiency I need to become his Disciple!”

“NYAAAAAAAAA!!!!!”

“DAAAAAAAAA!!!!!”

Even though Glenial was scolded for very long time by Uliminus, she still didn’t back down.

This kind of scenery is continuing on every day but….the result didn’t come out yet.

To Glenial who didn’t seem to come back

“It’s not easy getting approval fufu” saying so Lys laughed.

in the shadow,

“…I’m..really lucky…If we were together every day…I don’t know how long this secret will last….my heart couldn’t take such a pressure”

Varissa who were feeling pressured from thinking that Demon lord was searching for her, and with Glenial’s precense it just got bigger so when she was gone, She felt relief.

As for Magician Belano

Her face was blue with no luster.

“Yaa, Belano-dono. Let’s work hard together studying magic !”

saying so Volarisu who wore a male outfit sat right next to her in the classroom.

Volaris searched desperately for any information regarding Belano and she finally was able to catch on the information that Belano was staying in the Magic school.

and so She started attending the School.

She as a Knight has no mana in her.

of course, it is useless to study magic but

“This is also for achieving higher level in study, plus may be some day I might take a Magic Knight as a subordinate”

With such a forceful reason, she forcibly enrolled to the school.

After many days of not going to school, when she finally decided to go she met with the reality.

At first Belano thought that she may as well as quit the school and attend the school in another town but Furio was the one paying for her school fees and all plus the magic school she was going is the most prestigious school in the region so she had no choice but endure it and go to the school.

Even though she is conscious of the fact that Volaris sometimes peek at her, usually Volaris unlike her usual perverted side, she concentrates and works hard on the study.

After class, Volaris kept on pestering her to go drink tea with her, but with clear rejection,

“I understand. I will give up for today. I will come back tomorrow”

she found out that she will leave obediently, so Belano started to get a hang of her personality and gradually coming to accept of her presence but,

“Than why not just go have a drink with her?”

to Furio

“(Bun BUn Bun Bun)”

She rejected it strongly by moving the head left to right.

“Maybe I should buy her a cake tomorrow…

Volaris was thinking of such with no care to what was going on with Belano.

I don’t need to say this but in her mind the mission to find Aapshow (now Furio) was gone without a trace.

….At the same time in the Demon lord’s castle

“…Is, the search on Vali…no Aapshow-dono done yet?”

“I’m sorry nya… everyone is finding with their best nya but…”

Uliminus bowed deeply in front of the Demon lord Goul.

Seeing Uliminus act like that Goul sighed deeply and,

“Oh well, I guess it’s not your fault if you still can’t find him….but, continue the search. And prepare for another invasion toward that disgusting castle with the hero in it.”

“Yes, sir! I understand nya”

“Aa! Uliminus-sama, you were in here! Definitely today for sure you must accept my way of training!”

“Kishyaaaaaaaa! this is the Demon lord-same’s dwelling place!!!!! what are you saying Nyaaaaa!!!!”

…….At the same time in the Magic Kingdom Cryload’s castle

“…Is there still no trace or any information regarding the true hero’s location?”

“…Unfortunately not”

First Imperial Princess working as a surrogate of the King, sighed deeply listening to the report of the female magician.

“We must act in a hurry…that Blonde Haired Hero noticed the presence of the secret treasure in the Treasury “

“tha, that…That country’s final secret weapon…”

“That is power indeed but…it is a double sided blade…before the Blonde haired hero forcibly use the weapon we must definitely find the true hero and defeat the demon lord….”

..At the same time…..Blonde Haired Hero

“Fumu…This must be where the treasure is hidden, the castle’s treasury.”

After bribing the girls with a large amount of money, the Blonde Haired hero stood before the large door.

and surrounding him was the defeated guards,

Even though his power doesn’t put a scratch on the Demon lord and its subordinate, compared to the normal people his ability is rather high so against people like guards level there will be no problem eliminating them.

“Than, using this treasure’s power I should defeat the Demon lord once and for all. And my life as a true hero is waiting for me”

Laughing like a maniac Blonde Haired Hero placed his hands on the treasury’s door.

Chapter 23

“Hou, this must be the Country’s secret treasure”

The Blonde Haired Hero was in the underground of the Magic Kingdom Cryload’s castle and was standing in front of a sword which seemed to be pierced to a pedestal.

“So, what am I supposed to do with this?”

“Its very simple, all you have to is just pull it out”

One of the women who takes care of the blonde haired hero, Allure, as always looked at the blonde haired hero with a seductive look and leaned on his shoulder seductively.

As one of the harem member of the Blonde Haired Hero at the same time ex-commoner, to show her strong loyalty to him, and with sexual things in the top of the list she provided everything she can with her ability to assist the Blonde Haired Hero.

Toward the Blonde Haired Hero, she did have some thoughts like, how this is for her safety and had made many secret motives but Allure now had some true feeling for him.

“yes, let’s do this”

the Blonde Haired Hero placed his hands on the sword and pulled it with his strongest force.

The sword, however, was easily pulled out from the pedestal.

Suddenly suspicious smoke like substance gushed forth from the pedestal.

“Bonde haired hero-sama, please stay behind me”

In front of the two, the smoke started gathering around in the centre and in the end, it turned into a single woman.

She seemed to be wearing a thin cloth onto her breasts and waist, she is very close to being nude but her appearance seemed to not be giving a seductive look rather a cold and scary look which gives goosebumps just by looking at her.

“I am Hiya

I am a Devil who rules over Light and Darkness…

Was it you who liberated me from the seal?”

Hiya talked directly to his brain without moving her lips.

“Umu, that is true” to her words, Blonde Haired hero nodded strongly “Than I swear upon my name that I shall grant you 3 wishes, ask anything”

“Anything?”

“Yes. I am a Devil who rules over Light and Darkness”

“Than I order you to kill Aapshow who is a deadly sinner that didn’t listen to my orders and humiliated me”

Hearing Blonde Haired hero’s words Hiya showed a pondering look “That name is an alias…..So I should kill the one who called himself Aapshow that didn’t listen to your will , and right now he calls himself Furio..is this it?”

“What!? it was an alias. Hm, it doesn’t matter, I order you to execute the wish. An order from me Blonde Haired Hero!”

toward his words Hiya showed an icy smile and “I understand

The price of the completion of this mission is all the human’s life in this castle “ saying so she disappeared into the air.

And at the same time to Blonde Haired Hero and Allure’s neck a black ring appeared.

“wha….what is this!?”

The Blonde Haired Hero while in a panic tried to take off the black ring but the ring didn't bulge.

Devil who ruled over Light and Darkness-Hiya she will grants any 3 wishes the user asks.

however, there will be an equal price for whatever wish they asks for, and once upon a time there was a king who wished for a subjection of Demon lord, and the Hiya who accepted the wish took half of the living being on this continent as a price.

so toward this gigantic power, and the same gigantic price that is asked for.

The formal King who became afraid of such power He ordered the Grand Magicians to seal it and the cost of it was their life, the result was as you've seen she was sealed inside the pedestal and it was decided that the only time they use this is the time they are facing a huge calamity.

The Blonde Haired Hero only know of the part 'grants three wishes'.

His wishes were like this

- Assassinate Aapshow who humiliated him
- Kill Demon lord and his subordinate
- Become the King of this country

He being like this was forced to wear the Death sentence Ring which will kill him after the wish is fulfilled.

The ring appeared to all the people's neck in the castle, and the First Imperial princess was not an exception to it.

"…it was too late…"

The first Imperial Princess fell onto her knees as her eyes showed a despair while looking into the newly appeared Death Sentence Ring.

That day Furio as always went to the town's dealer and sold his newly created weaponry made of dragon's scale.

“It is amazing as always. As expected from Furio-san. You always bring us the best of the products!”

old man the dealer happily brought the shield and the armour to inside of his shop and, “Today I’ve painted it with more color than usual. And ask us again alright!”

saying so he laughed wholeheartedly.

Furio who handled all this while smiling left the store with a bag full of gold.

“Husband-sama, thank you for your hard work”

In front of the shop was Lys who came together with Furio to the town, waiting.

After confirming that Furio came out of the shop Lys while smiling brightly went and hugged him.

Usual scenery of the two

A woman who was never here before came walking toward them.

“Are you the ex-Aapshow, Furio right?”

that female talked directly at the two’s brain.

“..it is but what is your business with me?”

Furio while without any sort of defence answered back to her with a smile.

“then, it is fine”

saying so the female’s hand slashed real hard.

“Husband-sama dangerous!”

Lys jumped in front of Furio and tried to block the arm so made a crossed her arms together.

but the arm which fell onto her cut right through her arm than her body was cut diagonally.

Chapter 24

That moment, a mysterious sound vibrated in the surrounding.

“Returning back the time”

“….Ale?”

Lys who thought that…her body was slashed in half, noticed that there was no damage or any abnormality with her body and the woman who attacked her was now in a location where she was before walking toward Lys.

“….It seems like I underestimated you…I didn’t think you can turn back time”

Without feeling surprised rather she grasped onto the situation and showed an icy smile toward Furio.

The Furio who was shown such smile narrowed his eyes and walked toward the women while his mouth was slightly opened.

“I shall reward you for being able to survive my first hit,

I am Hiya the devil who rules over light and darkness,

I am a Devil who mastered all the light and dark magic in this world.

So your foolish magics are ineffective against m….”

Saying till that with the telepathy and then her body furiously flew toward the sky.

Furio who closed in toward her attacked her with a powerful Uppercut which hit right in the chin, and she was blown into the air.

She went as far as 10 meters in the air and soon fell down to earth.

“Yo…you..who do you think I am…..I am a ruler of light and darkne……”

Furio walked toward her who was on the floor trying to stand up, and kicked her face powerfully with his right leg.

Again Hiya flew into the air as she got kicked right in her face.

Furio placed his leg onto Hiya’s face as she fell onto the earth again, and with his full power he pushed her face with his leg into the ground, it was so powerful that the surrounding started to crack and cave in.

“I am….the ruler of light and….”

Furio picked Hiya by her hair and forcibly make her stand than smashed her head with a headbutt.

“I am….light..”

“Shut the fuck up with your bull crap”

While still holding the beat up Hiya’s hair, he brought her face closer to his. Because of Furio’s headbutt, her face was in subsidence, and a green blood, since she is a Devil flowed from all over the body.

It is true that Hiya is a ruler and mastered Light and Darkness magic. And so she has a high pride in her Super strong Defence and Super strong attack magic. Of course, she has many magics to block a physical attack, and she was using it the whole time.

But, Compared to Furio’s attack who’s skill status shows “∞-Impossible to display since it has far surpassed the limit”, all her defence were broken without any resistance and were able to directly damage Hiya’s physical body.

“You raised your hand against my wife”

Saying so Furio’s knee penetrated through Hiya’s stomach.

“I can’t calm myself unless I punch you myself rather than using magic”

Saying so Furio laughed coldly and looked down right at Hiya’s face.

Seeing such an expression in front of her, Hiya, for the first time in her life since birth to ever as ‘fear’ ruled over her mind and body, and shivered as she felt ice cold.

…A few moments later. At the Furio’s house

“…Ma,Master-sama….what, is this thing….”

Varissa the knight looked at the Hiya who was turned into a dirty broken rag, which was thrown toward her like a trash by Furio. And she couldn’t comprehend what just happened and looked at Hiya than Furio several times.

“I think I might’ve overdone it a little, so I thought about healing her”

Saying so Furio sat on the chair.

And to Furio’s neck was a red-faced Lys with a really ragged breathing.

The act of Furio whose usual demeanour is that of a cool person, the sudden act of furious retaliation made Lys feel too happy that her emotion exploded making her unable to keep it in.

“Aa, Husband-sama. All that for me, I am so happy….Lys is really lucky…”

While still cringing on Furio’s neck, she started undressing.

“Oi, Oi, Valissa is here so it’s bad to do it here”

Saying so Furio and Lys while kissing went inside their room.

Seeing Hiya who was damaged to the point of becoming a floorcloth and seeing the affectionate conduct done by Lys and Furio, Varissa stood there with a really red face.

And Sabea in horned rabbit form poked Hiya while saying Funsu Funsu.

At the same time in the Magic Kingdom Cryload castle

“..Wha, what does this mean?”

The first imperial princes were feeling puzzled toward the sudden disappearance of Death sentence ring.

Death sentence ring appears on the people’s neck who was deemed as a price for the wished wish, and it kills the wearer as soon as the Devil succeed in the mission.

She couldn’t think of any reasons as to why the Death sentence ring disappeared without taking her life.

“Is…is there anyone that might know why this happened?”

First, imperial princess asked knights and magicians in front of her but they were all puzzled by it also.

So no one could answer her call.

“…maybe..just maybe the devil actually failed the mission..no that is not possible…”

One of the magicians shook his head as he denied this possibility.

A few moments later

Lys who came out of the room merrily,

“Everyone today will be a feast♪” she went to the kitchen while skipping and humming.

And the Furio who soon came out of the room seemed to calm his mind and returned to his usual demeanour, so when he returned to the living room he showered a highest rank heal magic on the Hiya who were so ragged she looked like a floorcloth.

…where am I?

Soon Hiya woke up and as she looked around and when her eyes met with Furio’s,

….H, hee!?

She ran behind Varissa who was closed by and was trembling while sweating profusely.

Toward this scenery,

“I might’ve overdone it. I want you to forgive me since I healed you, is it fine with that?”

Saying so Furio extended his right hand toward her.

Hiya who was behind Varissa nodded her head vigorously but didn’t dare touch the hand to handshake with Furio.

..Of course. Of course, Please forgive me….
She already started crying.

Chapter 25

“Why….how did this happen…”

Blonde haired hero inside the Cryload castle’s treasury showed a depressive expression as he stared at the treasury’s door.

“Blonde Haired Hero-dono we know you are in there. I wish for you to give in without having any resistance and follow us to the First Imperial Princess’s place.”

Guards and knights of sorts of from the castle flooded the gateway to the treasury. The sound of knocking and the attempts to lure out the Blonde Haired Hero resonated around the room.

Fortune in this misfortune for the Blonde Haired Hero was that the castle’s treasury is also used as an emergency evacuation shelter so you can lock the door from the inside and the door is made of a powerful material.

He who entered without obtaining any permission, and unsealed the sealed Devil, the one who rules over light and darkness, knows that the people outside won’t forgive him that easily, so he couldn’t help but stand there staring dumbly at the wall.

….Why….

My plan was perfect….

Where did my plan go wrong….I was supposed to become the savior of the world, after burrowing the power of the devil to kill that hateful Aapsho….now

Furio and kill the demon lord.

It's already been a few days since the devil left, and the devil still hadn't delivered a message of the completion of subjugation on Furio. Even the black ring which was supposed to act as a compensation for the work disappeared.

Is it that man….was even able to defeat the devil….

Blonde haired hero's mind was in chaos as he thought more and more, however, he wasn't able to make any decisive decision as he played with his thoughts which made it more chaotic.

….Why….I was supposed to be chosen as a Hero…

But no matter how much I level up, my stats didn't increase a bit from the early stage…. And with this stats at best I can kill A ranked beast with difficulty but….How can this compare to the Demon lord…. That's why I gave him a chance to become my subordinate….that Furio man, he denied it while having a powerful ability…..It was a request from me the Hero!? The castle people are not much better, why didn't they tell me when they had such thing as the devil's power. And because they didn't explain it to me properly this kind of situation happened. It's you all's fault…I'm not in the fault…. It's all you all's fault..I've done nothing wrong…If they just gave me the power…

That moment,

Inside the Blonde Haired Hero's mind, a pitch black voice flooded inside

"Do you want power?"

…who are you?

“Such an information is not important. If you really want a power I can help you”

…Are you giving me power?

“Yes, A power strong enough to dominate everyone”

…price, what are your demand?

“Ara? I don’t need such thing…but if you insist, I would want you to completely obliterate the castle and kill every magician in the castle, and you can do whatever you want afterwards”

….I understand, I shall answer your wish. So give me the power now!

“Fufu…contract is made”

“Blo….Blonde Haired hero-sama?”

Even though every woman who came with the Blonde Haired hero ran away, Allure who stayed, saw Blonde Haired hero who was mumbling something to himself suddenly laughed wildly so she got surprised and asked

And inside the head of Allure

“Oh, there was such a perfect sacrifice here. I will burrow your body”

Suddenly, when she though a pitch black though was sent inside her head, in an instant her head was painted black as Allure’s conscious faded.

“Fuu….It’s been hundreds of years since I gained a physical body”

The one who took over the Allure's body looked at Blonde Haired hero as if she was looking at a dumb mutt.

"Come, Let's go, My Tamed Beast . Blonde Haired hero. Destroy this castle together. I Dark grand Magician Marisa shall bestow punishment for putting me into a confinement. "

Toward the word from Allure who's being controlled by Marissa, Blonde Haired Hero answered with a roar.

That appearance was no longer that of human, As his head is a goat with a blonde hair, the body that of a bear, a tail made of Orochi, he became a large magic beast.

……The First imperial princess despaired hearing the news.

"This time…Marissa….revived…."

Dark Grand Magician Marissa

She once reigned as the strongest magician in the world.

But because of her greed for power, she lost to the Demon's temptation, she fell to the dark side. She whose power gone out of control, using the lives of all the magicians in the country to seal her in sealed stone, and placed her in the same place as the Devil's sealed room, and was supposed to be stored in the most guarded place.

"Most likely…because of the Devil's revival, the seal got weakened…"

The First imperial princess who was thinking thoughtfully, however

“First Imperial Princess sama, please escape from here as quick as possible! Marissa is heading toward this direction while destroying the castle.”

Hearing the guard’s word, First imperial Princess stood up from the seat and left the throne room.

…A few moments later

“..this place is?”

The First Imperial Princess who teleported here with a few guards and magicians looked around while feeling anxious.

“..It seems like the teleportation led us to this Houtarou town”

Listening to the Magician’s report, First imperial Princess looked around.

“For now, let’s enter the town. This place stands out too much”

Persuaded by the Guards, the party heads into the town.

“Found ya”

Inside of the party’s brain, a pitch black telepathy flooded in.

“I won’t let any survivors of the castle from running away”

In the sky, a ripple started forming and from there a Blonde haired hero who turned into a beast appeared with a Marissa on top of him.

“Now, you people, hand over your lives”

Saying so Marissa laughed hysterically.

"…you're blocking the way"

To her surprise, a male's voice was heard from behind the First imperial princess.

At the same time, the ripple in the air closed and Marissa and Blonde haired hero disappeared into the air.

"Lys, where should we go eat after we finish the business?"

"A food is nice but….I want to go to the inn for a rest"

Saying so the woman's face turned bright red and looked at the man.

And in front of such glance

"I guess…A little alright?"

Saying so the man while laughing looked at the first imperial princess who couldn't comprehend what was happening and

"Aa, Good Afternoon"

Greeted nonchalantly as he entered the town.

Chapter 26

“Wha…what just happened?”

Dark Grand Magi showed a dull look as she looked around inside the Cryload castle’s throne room.

Because of the sudden disappearance of the first imperial princess, she used a search magic and detected her location, so she opened a teleportation gate and teleported toward the princess.

That was it but,

Because of the suddenly forced closure of the door, she was forced back.

…..so there actually was such powerful magician still alive…..interesting Marissa showed an evil smile and stood up “Such guts, to dare humiliate me the Marissa-sama. The price for this is life”

Saying so she reopened the teleportation magic.

..Houtarou Town

“This is!? Aren’t you a first imperial princess sama! What are your highness doing in such a backwater place?”

First, imperial princess showed a surprised expression and turned to look at the voice’s direction.

“Bo…Bolaris! You were in this town!”

Magic Kingdom Cryload first imperial princess’s imperial Guard unit 2nd regiment captain and a female knight who crossdresses as a male Bolaris, she is one of the people who were given a secret order for a journey to find the true hero.

As for now, Bolaris has a hot crush on one of the Furio’s friends, Belano the magician (♀) even right now she attends the magic academy so that she can be together with Belano… of course the first imperial princess wouldn’t know of such matter.

“Bolaris captain, do you know anything about that young couple which entered the town before us? We really need to talk to him asap” hypothetically speaking one of the two in the couple returned Marissa back, and so she asked about the whereabout of them to Bolaris “Oh, they are a Mr. and Ms. Furio. I just greeted them right before this, I think they are making a trade with merchants.

You see over there, the mistress is waiting”

The direction Bolaris pointed had the same young couple and seeing them First imperial princess breathed out of relief.

“Bolaris captain knows of this couple? “

“Yes, I am having a very close and friendly relationship with them” saying so Bolaris smiled.

First Imperial Princess’s thoughts…..

that couple…especially the husband-same, he most likely has enough mana capacity to push Marissa back…. Then there is a high chance that he is the true Hero-sama. Bolaris must’ve judged the same so she is trying to create a relationship!?

Polaris’s thought…..

To grab Delano-Lady’s heart…First I must give a favorable impression on the Furio-dono. While approaching lady Belano!

“Bolaris! Please get in touch with that person immediately! the situation is too dire!”

“I won’t give you any more time you know?”

suddenly a pitch black sound inside their head interfered with the talk Right behind the first imperial princess was a Dark Grand Magician Marissa and the Beast-mode Blonde haired hero.

This time, Marissa didn’t open the teleportation gate rather teleported directly.

Even though it might be a bit dangerous since sometimes it can go off a little bit, she had to use it since her teleportation gate was forcibly blocked last time and this is used as a little measure against such.

To the sudden appearance of Marissa, First imperial princess despaired.

“Let’s end the fun, shall we? now hand over your life…”

while in the middle of the talk, Bolaris interrupted the talk by attacking Marissa with a great sword.

Marissa dodged it using a short distance teleportation but part of her clothe tore apart.

“Fuun? you’ve got quite a skill there?”

“I don’t understand the situation at all but to those who dare be rude toward the first imperial princess, I Bolaris will not forgive!”

Standing in front of the First imperial princes, Bolaris pointed the great sword toward Marissa.

From other people’s point of view, it may seem cool but in her mind …Iyar… The first imperial princess is really beautiful with her dignified look…I can’t stop myself after having not seen her for long..no, no, no right now I already have a lady called Belano ….no but, the dainty first imperial princess is also not bad….

“Maa..Your sword skill is good but…”

Marisa raised her hand and Bolaris prepared for the attack.

“If you don’t have any mana then you aren’t my opponent” next moment Bolaris was thrown far into the air after receiving an attack from her.

“now, it is your turn”

Marisa looked at the first imperial princess.

….in the location where the Bolaris was blasted to “..Guwaa!?”

“Kyaa!? I got surprised!? A person fell from the sky….wait, Bolaris?”

“Mistress-sama did you get hurt?”

“I’m fine but Bolaris…you are definitely not alright”

“Mistress-sama I would like to eliminate the thug who dared to try to harm you, can I get an approval to do so?”

“I understand. Finish it before Husband-sama come back”

“understood”

the woman who suddenly appeared right next to Lys after checking the well being of her, she started walking toward Marissa.

“Ann? Who the fuck are you? You dare fcking interfere with the matter of Marissa-sama”

“I’m no sure if this is interfering or not, I shall bestow upon you a heavenly punishment for your audacity to dare try to harm mistress-sama”

“Haa!? A fcking Heavenly punishment? You fcking dare try to punish me the great dark grand magician, Marissa? and alone too? Motherfucker you repent on your sin with your fcking death!”

…..Highest ranked lightning

Marissa activated a magic without a chant and a powerful lightning befell upon the woman.

but next moment, the magic disappeared and the woman acted as if nothing happened.

“y…you…wha,what did you do, ou…that was a highest ranked magic..negated it….”

“negate? why would I do something as boring as that, no magic has an effect on me….except for the supreme one Furio-sama”

“You really are acting too big motherfucker if a magic doesn’t have any effect than how about this bitch!?”

with Marissa’s signal, the magic beast blonde haired hero came tackling while roaring.

“If I let him tackle me than there it may affect the mistress-sama….I shall eliminate it”

“Ha!? You think I will fcking let you!”

Marissa casted several fire spears so that the woman won’t be able to activate any magic and let the blonde haired hero tackle.

“I just told you before, that no magic has an effect on me?”

the woman lightly raised her hand and the fire spear all disappeared and the magic beast blonde haired hero has blasted to far away.

“My name is Hiya…I am a devil who rules over light and magic, also a slave of Furio-sama”

[If you are reading this novel in another website rather than rebirthonlineworld.com or Novelsjapan.com then that website is stealing our content, without crediting the author and translator]

Devil who rules over light and darkness

Hearing the name of the one, Marissa's face showed an astonished expression.

Only the one who, rules over every light and dark magic, are allowed to call him/herself this name and in front of this devil, any magic human uses has no meaning against it.

….no no no , impossible….this is outright impossible, even if its true me the Dark grand magician Marissa will, "I don't have any reason to fucking lose!!!"

From Marissa's both arms a black aura birthed and it covered the Demon beast blonde haired hero's laying body.

The Demon beast blonde haired hero who absorbed the aura grew larger in size and stood up than roared.

The aura surpassed the worldly limit and was very Vicious mana as it came from the World of Darkness, and such power poured inside the Demon beast, blonde haired hero.

"Motherfucker, you might be a fucking devil who are unbound by the wordly rule, I also threw away my humanity and became Dark grand magician. I don't fucking feel like losing"

Marissa laughed hysterically as she sat on the shoulder of the giantified "…A human who have fallen to despair usually talks a lot" saying so Hiya extended her arms and

"however, it seems like you might have a bit of strength, I should use a little" while she was speaking

"Hiya, we are done with our business here so let's go back"

Behind her. a male's nonchalant voice came, which seems to not fit the situation they were in.

And at the same time, the darkness magic Marissa activated onto the Demon Beast Blonde haired hero disappeared in an instant.

"oh…supreme one! I need to be punished for not being able to deal with it before the given time. Please give me a suitable punishment for this" to Furio who appeared behind her, Hiya prostrated while looking obliged to do such, but to her Furio, while smiling bitterly held her arm and told her it was no need.

Seeing the exchange of the two, Marissa stood frozen while showing an astonished look.

Impossible

It must be a dream

the magic…A magic which no human could use… and that man extinguished it with his single arm…wait…the power…in which I gained by throwing away humanity…with a single hand…

Hiya looked back at Marissa who stood there trembling with fear.

"at least let this Hiya finish the last move" saying so held her hand up in the air and opened a magic formation.

"Demon get lost"

When she chanted that the darkness which was coated onto Marissa and Demon beast blonde haired hero were both absorbed inside Hiya's hand.

After the Darkness coating fell off the Blonde haired hero and Allure who were mentally controlled got released fell onto the floor while being unconscious.

and inside Hiya's hand were a black crystal which was created from absorbing the darkness coating present.

"You should feel honoured. To be able to live forever inside me as a part of my blood stream who is a slave of the supreme one."

saying so Hiya swallowed the black crystal.

“Hiya, are you done?”

“Yes, Mistress-sama. I apologize for making the supreme one wait”

“can you stop with the supreme one thing? it feels a little embarrassing.”

“But, you are to me such person” while chattering like that the group went in the town and disappeared.

to the scenery

The First imperial princess and her people regained back their senses as they were looking illusioned as if the whole thing was but a play.

“fi, first capture the Blonde haired hero! and have people search for those people”

Toward the First imperial princess’s order, the guards captured the unconscious blonde haired hero and allure.

Furio’s group were found eating in a restaurant and soon got a thank you from the first imperial princess herself.

“I would like to invite you Furio-sama as a true hero to the castle. Of course, we will gift you anything you want”

First imperial princess asked while her knees were on the floor, begging.

“I’m sorry but for me, this kind of lifestyle is the best” saying so he smiled and hugged Lys who were sitting right next to him …..

Later,

The first imperial princess didn’t give up and begged Furio to become the true hero but in the end, she was unable to make him nod in agreement.

and at the time when she was begging

“If you really wished, I shall give my body….”

to First imperial princess who said so

“You…what the fuck are you showing amorous glance toward someone’s husband? aa?”

Lys (ex-demon) reprimanded her heavily and got a fierce look from her.

As for the Blonde Haired hero, after getting arrested, while he was being sent to the castle he escaped. Even though he couldn't fight against demons, at least for a human he can be counted as one of the strongest one, so he and Allure disappeared from the guard's hand.

of course, he became a wanted man throughout the kingdom and got a bounty.

…….18+…gets a bit sexual here…….reading is not advised…….

And inside the Devil. Hiya's spiritual world,

"…Didn't I die…is this a hell?"

"this is a spiritual world of the ruler of light and darkness….I captured your soul and restrained it here"

"Ha…Are you saying you won't forgive me even after death? what the fuck are you going to do to me Marissa-sama? Aa?"

"You shall accompany me for a training"

"training the fuck? ….. wait, wait, why the fuck my arms and legs restrained? and where are my clothes…Oi!"

"I've gotten curious over the matter, since I've never done what the supreme one and the mistress does at night, they are on top of each other while making love.

"wa, wait a moment!? I'm a woman! you are also a woman ! I'm not into that sort of stuff, I am….wa..you..your…that…crotch…."

"I am a devil who rules over light and darkness, I am a unisex being"

"n, no! that's not the problem! that! Its way to fucking big for this! it won't go in!"

"no need to worry. It seems like "it hurts only at the beginning""

"the meaning is different!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

"Hiya? did something happen?"

“…No, there is nothing mistress”

“I see? then can you clean up the baggage?”

“as you command”

Chapter 28

[This Novel is being translated by a Novelsjapan….if you are reading this on a foreign website other than rebirthonlineworld.com or novelsjapan.com then you are reading in a website which stole this without the translator's consent.]

"I….have no excuse nya…."

Uliminus the hellcat was on her knees as she was sweating non-stop in front of the Demon Lord Goul who was sitting on the throne.

"..Are you telling me that you have no idea about the mysterious magic's activation in the east?"

Demon lord Goul asked the same question again to Uliminus.

Demon Army's pride the espionage . Silent Ear

And Uliminus as a leader of it is responsible for gathering the information by sending scouts all around the continent.

….however

But the mysterious magic activation in the east land is the problem.

In that region, there existed a Houtarou town, and she sent a Magic ninja Glenial there.

But that Glenial, when she thought she came back but then she started saying "I want an approval for me to become a human's disciple"

And she was being persistent about it so she was forced to be locked up in her room to cool her head.

Normally, she will send a replacement but because this time, the Demon lord ordered for a grand search on Aapshow, there was no man power left in the place.

Plus it was a region with nothing eventful happening so, Uliminus left it be, but unfortunately this place became the place for the magic undulation.

The magic undulation was so big that even the Demon lord Goul was able to detect it, and so the demon lord asked Uliminus.

This Magic Undulation was a magic chanted by the Dark grand magician Marissa using a Cursed magic to unleash the magic from the underworld. Marissa who casted such magic right now is being held inside the devil who rules light and darkness's spiritual world being dragged to her everyday training (kind of 18+ content) But there was no way for Demon lord Goul and Uliminus to know such thing.

"…I guess it can't be helped if you don't know…however it's not something we can ignore"

Saying so the demon lord stood up from the throne.

…a few days later in Houtarou town

"Furio dono! Here you are, and thanks for coming every day!"

As always Furio sold his dragon scale equipment and greeted the happy owner of the shop with raising his right hand then left the shop.

"Husband-sama! You must be tired from the work"

Toward the appearance of Furio, Lys who was waiting for him at the entrance welcomed him with a smile.

Even though the owner of the shop told Lys that she can stay inside together with Furio, she still chooses to stay at the entrance.

This is a precaution for any enemy who aim for Lys's life, she can eliminate it without getting Furio involved.

Already there has been a case where a devil who rules over light and darkness attacked her, even though now the devil is their slave, this experience made her more vigilance toward her surrounding.

"Husband-sama where shall we eat lunch?"

Lys showed a bright smile toward Furio while hugging his arm.

"Varissa and Bily are not here yet so maybe we can ask their opinion. Since we are asking them to buy some things for us"

“I guess this is fine too”

Saying so the two started heading toward the tree shade nearby.

“Nn?”

At that moment, Furio detected a foreign aura and stopped his feet.

At the same time, behind the two Hiya came out as a human form.

[This Novel is being translated by a Novelsjapan….if you are reading this on a foreign website other than rebirthonlineworld.com or novelsjapan.com than you are reading in a website which stole this without the translator’s consent.]

“Supreme one and Mistress-sama. Please step back. I detected a Demon’s aura nearby coming here. I shall clean it in a moment”

Saying so Hiya lightly bowed and tried to go.

“Aa, it’s fine Hiya. It’s probably an acquaintance”

“Ha? …acquaintance with…that? ….but, this aura is definitely not a normal demon…”

Hiya who spoke bitterly at the Furio’s words but Furio ignored it without any care and looked at the up coming aura.

The man who Furio saw, noticed Furio and stopped his footstep.

“…You are…in a different appearance but…Aapshow dono right?”

“I’m Furio for now. It’s been a while Gozaru-san”

The man who approached Furio was a Demon lord Goul, dressed as an adventurer called Gozaru.

In the Demon lord’s castle, when Uliminus and the demon lord conversed, he said he was going to investigate the cause of the undulation of the mana.

At present, there was no free person in the castle since they were preparing for war and all so, “Oh well, it might be a good chance to have some fun”

And escaped from the castle.

Truth to be told, because there was no improvement in the searching of Aapshow’s whereabout and how he couldn’t meet with the Varissa the knight, the stress was building up and he need to breathe in a fresh air.

But,

The location he went Gozaru was somehow able to meet with the Aapshow, now Furio, he coulnd't help but smile, and extended his right arm.

"I didn't think we would be able to reunite in such a place"

"Me too! It is a pleasure to have you with me"

They hand shake and both became happy of the reunion

Before The Demon lord who met Furio near the Deibeza forest saw of his power so they decided not to make him an enemy and carry a close friendly relationship, so they used to have a tea party together.

"…as expected from the supreme one…To have to build a friendly relationship with a demon lord….I can't help but admire you sire"

Hiya bowed deeply as she got really shocked looking at the exchange of the two.

….this one, she is not as simple as she looks….as expected of Furio-don, he acquired another great comrade.

Gozaru glanced at Hiya for a while and measured her strength, showed an admirative glance toward Furio for being able to have such a new comrade.

"I'm sorry for making you wait! We are done with the shopping"

Varissa and Bily appeared carrying baggage from the shopping and called out at Furio and his group.

Toward the voice,

"Varissa-dono!"

Reacting to the Gozaru's voice she looked at the direction the voice came from.

"G…Gozaru…sa….n"

Varissa acted like a frog who was glared at by a snake, her body froze and started trembling out of fear.

Varissa knew Gozaru was a demon lord Goul.

And she also knew Gozaru somehow searched for her at the same time as Furio.

She thought it was because at their first meeting Varissa pointed a sword at him so he is searching for her to get revenge.

However, Demon lord Goul’s feeling of love for her was not understood by Varissa.

…Hou, she is doing a very complex footwork to be prepared for any attack she might receive… as expected from Varissa-dono.

Goul looked at her with a misunderstood look her action of trembling with fear To be continued

Chapter 29

“…su…such thing happened….”

The First imperial princess hearing the report from the magician fell from the throne.

After Marissa’s incident, First imperial princess asking for a consultation from the castle’s people as to how she would be able to have Furio become an official Hero.

And while doing so, The first imperial princess heard of the new from a magician who looked blue with no blood.

what she heard from this magician was, that Most likely Furio was a summoned person whose real name was Banaza and he was exiled from the castle as he failed to meet the mark of a hero.

They threw him to the place where beasts reside while being coated with a beast lure magic so that he can dies sooner.

All this was done by a secret order from the now unconscious king, and this is only known to the king and some small part of the magicians.

“…concealment magic….for Furio-sama it is but a child play to notice it…of course, he can trace it back too….”

Even if we asked him to become the true hero, there is no way he will consent to this…

First imperial princess realizing the real reason of Furio denying her request for him to become the true hero, she couldn’t help but look dull.

…….A room in Demon lord’s castle

“Big brother became senile?”

Demon Lord Goul’s half-brother from a different mother, a tyrant Yuiguard raised his voice.

“Yuiguard-sama this is inside a castle…we never know whens the castle espionage is listening to us, so please speak in a little lower volume”

[This Novel is being translated by a Novelsjapan….if you are reading this on a foreign website other than rebirthonlineworld.com or novelsjapan.com than you are reading in a website which stole this without the translator's consent.]

A Yuigurd's attendant, Succubus Fufun, raised both her hand and tried to calm Yuiguard.

But Yuiguard dodged her hand and,

"I can't keep it in anymore! I don't understand! That big brother of mine went out of the castle to have a friendly relationship with a lowly human!"

He burst forth with anger as he stridden inside the room.

"…In the information, I received, that human he is trying to befriend is a human who was supposed to be a real hero…Maybe the demon lord decided to avoid a worthless battle and so he befriended him"

"And are you saying just because of that he became a fucking Senile!"

Yuiguard kicked the wall.

And the wall broke as it made a giant hole.

"If he's a fucking hero why not just exterminate him! What's the point of befriending him? Even for this human world! Why is he being cautious and not march the great army and annihilate the humans! Am I right?"

"Yuiguard-sama's words are very wise and true"

Saying so Fufun, nodded strongly.

"Maybe the time has come for me to overtake my big brother and take the Demon lord's throne from him and become a true demon lord than conquer he whole human world"

"Wait a minute Yuguard-sama. If you suddenly ascend the throne, there may be many who might oppose us so…."

Fufun leaned toward Yuguard's ear and started talking about something.

And listening to it, Yuiguard started to make a very creepy face.

"I understand! I will let you do all the procedures! Do as you please!"

“Understood, Yuiguard-sama”

Hearing Yuiguard’s word Fufun, bowed once and teleported to somewhere and disappeared.

Yuiguard who became alone in the room laughed like a maniac.

…Houtarou town

”I see, Varissa-dono has an interest in a martial arts”

In a corner of a restaurant inside the town, there was a Demon lord Goul who changed his appearance to that of Gozaru, while sitting in front of him was Varissa.

He was sitting and drinking the tea while nodding his head with , fumu.

“that…that, rather than an interest…..Its kind of something I love and….”

And Varissa who was sitting in front of him desperately created a fake smile.

However, she knows that Gozaru is a Demon lord and at the same time she thinks that he is here to kill her, so she couldn’t hide her fear as her hand which held onto the cup shaking, spilling the water all over.

but toward that trembling

….Hou, Even at a time like this, she is preparing herself to hold her sword anytime…as expected of Varissa dono

this is how Gozaru comprehended it.

“It might not be useful for a real battle but, the swordsmanship is rather quite beautifuly done”

Furio who sat next to them tried to help continue their conversation, he talked to both of them while smiling.

It was very obvious as Gozaru who met Varissa in a long time emitting an ‘I want to talk more aura’, but he wasn’t able to express it with words to Varissa, he stood they’re looking like an idiot. And Furio who was looking at such lend a helping hand by setting up a tea party for them.

Gozaru who inwardly delighted

Carissa who inwardly dreaded

“…the difference in the temperature is…quite big”

“Hawawa….True that”

Lys and Bily who was sitting in a chair a bit further from them looked at them while smiling bitterly.

To Lys who was an ex-demon knew of Demon lord, seeing at such an emotion filled Demon lord talking with a human woman (while showing no emotion in the front), and how he is enjoying the talk, she could only smile bitterly seeing it.

Toward the party a woman cam approaching them.

the Woman with a demonic aura appealed harmless to Furio and Lys and leaned toward Gozaru.

“..Goul-sama, I’m sorry for disrupting your talk”

“it’s Gozaru”

“…I’m sorry Gozaru-sama…there is an emergency message from Uliminus-sama…”

“what is it? tell me”

“…Yuguard-sama, rebelled….he claimed to be a true demon lord using the name of Evil god

Listening to the demon woman, Gozaru’s eyebrow scrunched.

“Evil god?”

Chapter 30

…Few hours before Demon lord castle. Yuiguard's room

The Tyrant Yuiguard, was listening to Fufun who finished with all the preparation.

As for now, Demon Lord Goul is winning slightly with his strength compared to the tyrant Yuigard.

"so, we will do the Evil god's super hybrid ritual"

Evil god's Super hybrid, it is a ritual using, A place which surpasses the worldly power, and further away exists a Darkness world, and from there they bring in the wicked mana to improve one's power by a large margin.

The same kind of cursed magic the dark grand magician Marissa used -Evil God's improve ability-, and it is a superior one in which requires a sacrifice.

"But, that cursed magic, has a really fast duration wasn't it?"

"yes, thats why we will be finished with the chant before hand. doing so just before the battle with Goul, we can make a ritual of giving the sacrifice and be able to fully utilise the magic duration to its fullest. …..whats left is all up to you Yuiguard sama's power"

"I understand! I, Yuiguard shall surpass Goul and become the true demon lord"

To Yuiguard who laughed manically, Fufun lightly bowed.

Behind her, was a captured and brought in humans who will be used for a sacrifice, a male and female who is bound by the dark spider's web, laying on the floor nn! nnnn!! (release me! I am not a human who will die in a place like this!)

contrary to the unconscious woman, there existed a blonde haired man desperately trying to get free but even his mouth was restricted by the web so he couldn't say anything.

Demon Goul's Three Army God

- Snake Queen YoruMeet
- Death Horse Slape
- Double-Headed Bird Fugy-Mugy

[I'm really sorry for the author's naming sense……]

the three of them was gathered in one of the rooms in the castle and was discussing with each other.

the content of their discussion is about the message they got from Fufun about Yuiguard's ascendance to the throne.

Abdicate the Demo lord Goul and do a ritual for a battle to become a true Demon lord.

the three army god had not a single though of betraying Demon lord Goul.

They didn't take this seriously since they knew of the violent and selfishness of the tyrant Yuiguard.

however,

"…These days the Demon Lord-sama been a bit too easy going…"

toward the Snake Queen YoruMeet's word, the other three nodded in agreement.

the fact that Demon lord goes out of the castle to meet with a human sometimes, were a well-known fact.

"If it was a Demon lord from before, he would've just make him submit using force" toward the words of Death Horse Slape, other three nodded in agreement.

""Than, we should side with the tyrant's side so that it will wake the demon lord-same's eyes and turn back to how he was from before "" with the double-headed bird, Fugy-Bugy's word their course of action were decided.

the three does not think that Demon lord Goul will lose the battle.

Their thought was that after Demon lord Goul defeated Yuguard they can just re-swear their loyalty.

To make him understand that with his careless action, this kind of situation happened, so with this the Demon lord will truly wake up.

all the other direct subordinates also agreed with the three army god's thoughts and showed a positive attitude toward the plan.

"that kind of thing nya! he won't accept this nya! you guys are idiot nyaro!"

Uliminus strongly opposed the idea.

Even though she frantically resisted, the three army god restricted her since they though she will disturb the battle ritual.

……

finally at the demon lord castle . the throne room,

Demon lord Goul confronted with the tyrant Yuiguard.

"Big brother…no Goul! Your many foolish acts have made your subordinates abandon you and it made the evil god give up on you! " behind the Yuiguard were a three army god lined up together.

and behind them

behind the throne was Fufun who already finished with the evil god Super Hybrid chant, and was ready to give the sacrifice.

"Goul! come lets start the ritual of battle to choose the true Demon lord! Your luck ends here!"

Yuiguard laughed loudly

and,

in front of Yuguard was a Goul, whom though for a moment and raised his right hand.

"can I have a moment"

“wha…what? are you begging for your life before the duel”

“I have no such thoughts but..the thing you say the ‘folly’ of my doings, what were it?”

“You….at times like this dare to act like you know nothing!?

it is you who extended his hand for a friendship with a hero, and many times escaped the castle and played all you wanted!

Even for the invasion of the Humans, you gave them mercy by extending the march!

if this is not a folly, what is a folly! “

Toward Yuiguard’s words, Goul nodded with an agreement.

“…I see, that was a folly” saying so Goul glanced at the three army god and the direct subordinates who stood around the Yuiguard’s side.

In that eyes were an obvious fury, and it showed that Goul was truly maddened this time.

Being glared at by such an eye, even the most veteran soldiers the three army gods felt their back get drenched with sweat.

I…I already knew it but…as expected of Demon lord Goul sama…..

the three army god while feeling immodest was feeling overjoyed come, hit your anger towards Yuiguard!

and defeat him and declare yourself as a true Demon lord!

And order us to exterminate human race!

and if you do so, we will support you with everything we got!

Goul looked around and glanced at Yuguard at the last Fufun was ready anytime to sacrifice them as he held sword pointed at the two.

and

Goul erased his anger and breathed in a mouthful of air than

“..I understand. I shall accept my punishment and abdicate from being a demon lord”

He took off the symbol of the demon lord, a bracelet and threw it to Yuiguaard.

“I’ve been in your care everyone, have a good stay” saying so Goul disappeared as he teleported out.

and this is how a new Demon lord Yuiguard was born.

Because of a speechless result, Yuiguard and the rest were stunned not being able to comprehend what just happened.

even Fufun who held his sword to the sacrifice was not exempt.

now, the two human who was being pointed at with a sword was already unconscious.

The two humans were Blonde Haired Hero and Allure.

Chapter 31

Toward the new Demon king Yuiguard,

“Who the fuck would want to become your subordinate nya!”

Uliminus threw the ring which was the symbol of the demon king’s subordinate toward Yuiguard.

“Yo, You rude bastard!”

Toward Yuguard who became furious, Uliminus activated a smoke screen and disappeared from the place.

Soon after, everyone who was the subordinate of Uliminus, the members of the espionage silent ear started visiting the demon lord castle to return the ring and left.

Yuguard who became irritated over this,

“Funn, espionage are the thing cowards do. Hiding in the shadow because of their inability, they are a group of cowards who can’t do shit”

He without caring for it, order the invasion of the Crylord castle.

However, For the first time in the history, Demon’s army lost a crushing defeat against the humans.

Marching demon lord’s army fell to the many traps of Cryload army such as the pitfalls and falling rocks, plus the several ambushes lead to the result of the Demon lord Army to lose ⅓ of the soldiers, and more than ⅓ of the rest of the army were injured. So they were not even able to reach the castle walls and was forced to retreat.

“Why…why did this happen….”

Yuguard who was sitting on the throne was trembling with anger and punched the chair many times.

“Oi Fufun! Why did this happen! What is the reason!?”

“Fr…from my guess…they set up more traps and scouts because….they were afraid of your overwhelming power…”

“More than before? But when that bastard Goul invaded they didn’t even get a single scout or the traps? How the fuck are you gonna explain that?”

“Ha……From my guess….it must’ve been because Goul was somehow lucky enough not to encounter them….”

Demon King Goul used to unleash many scouts before marching the army into the enemy’s territory and let them locate the traps and ambushes. That is why in the Goul’s ruling period, the army never fell into the enemy’s trap or get ambushed even once.

And it can be said that Uliminus and her espionage silent ear was an elite group, which perfectly executed the missions on disabling and finding the ambushes and traps.

“….Tch. if it’s a bad luck than nothing can be done. Next time I shall destroy them with a greater number”

“Ha! I believe that is the best method”

As of the demon lord’s army now, no one can understand the reason of the failure.

Plus, there was another factor in which lead to the complete utter destruction of the demon lord army.

“You are the Magic Kingdom Cryload the present most important person, the first imperial princess right?”

First, the imperial princess raised her defense as she saw the sudden appearance of a woman inside her own room.

“I am Glenial. I am a demon ninja who is a disciple of Furio-sama at the same time a subordinate of Uliminus-sama ”

The name Glenial was already known to the first imperial princess since she heard it from the Houtarou town’s guard that Glenial was somehow another has a relationship with Furio, so she felt relief and listened to her words.

Glenial,

- We the silent ear feel antipathy toward the present Demoning and so are willing to assist fighting against the demon lord.
- We won't become a comrade but, we will provide information, destruction, abuse and diversion to the enemy.
- And requires the reward befitting the job
- This contract will be a secret between the silent ear and First imperial princess, as it is not allowed to be spread to other people

Gave these terms.

Feeling a little hesitant, first imperial princess accepted all of it.

And with this, the Demon King's historic grand loss became further devastating, but those who know of this are first imperial princess and silent ear only.

…thanks to Furio-sama's disciple we were able to gain victory.

First imperial princess judged it this way.

The order for the King who was still in recuperation, was for him to abdicate the throne and his direct subordinates, who were magicians were dismissed. All this happened next day.

The Crime was "Disrespect for the Hero"

Most of the content of it was hidden but it was obvious that it was a deed done to Furio.

And this is how a new Princess Queen was born in Magic Kingdom Cryload.

There had been no opposition to this enthronement since it was right after her successful expedition to expel the demon lord army…….

A trouble was happening in the demon lord castle while the Yuguard's army was swallowing their defeat against the Cryload castle.

Someone has intruded the castle's treasury and escaped with some of the treasures with him.

You could say this was allowed to happen because, during the grand invasion, they also took the treasury's guards for the sortie, leaving the castle empty with no one.

…In the Deeper area of a certain forest.

"Hah, look at that bitches"

The Blonde haired hero…no blonde haired ex-hero laughed hysterically as he carried Allure while running in the forest.

A few days ago, the two escaped to the forest to cut off the pursuers sent by the kingdom and was captured by the demon lord army as a sacrifice.

They were somehow able to escape death since the Battle ritual didn't actually happen, and they were under confinement inside the castle but, using the time when there was virtually no one to jailbreak, and as to have some revenge against them they sneaked into the treasury and stole the treasure then got away from the castle.

"I told you that I am not a man who will end in there! Get rekt mate!"

As he laughed again the two disappeared into the depths of the forest.

He has not yet noticed the strange light the treasure he stole from the castle emitting.

……

Demon King Yuigurd who lost all his prestige after so many failures, "Fuck…this is the situation for that! That Human!"

Yuguard who stood up from the throne held onto the sword and slashed the air with it thrice.

"I should increase the morale of the demon lord army by having a bloodbath with the blood of the human whom Goul tried to create a friendly relationship with!"

"Ha…That is perhaps the best plan…as expected from Yuiguard-sama"

Next to Yuiguard, Fufun bowed while having one of her legs on the floor.

"Now Fufun! Where is that human located at! Let's greet him with this sword of mine!”

“Ha…umm….Yuiguard-sama…does not know of his location?”

“No idea”

Toward such honest answer from Yuiguard, Fufun’s body started getting drenched with sweat.

“..Fufun…Are you saying you don’t know too?”

“Ha…u, um…I apologize for my uselessness”

During Demon king Goul’s time

The only person who knew of the conducts of Goul was Uliminus and her only.

Demon King Yuiguard ordered Fufun for a search on the location of Furio, however even if they wanted to search for him, all the espionage silent ear retired from the Demon lord army so “…wha….what should I do…”

He was forced to have a headache over this matter.

…At the same time in Houtarou town

There were Furio and Lys who held each other’s hands walking in the city as usual.

“Oh? He is”

In front of them a familiar face Furio greet him with one of his hand in air “Ya Gozaru-san. Hi”

The Ex-Demon king Goul, alias Gozaru, also held his right hand to greet back To be continued…

Chapter 32

“I’m am back! Today I was able to acquire quite a game!”

Varissa who came back from the hunt came inside the house looking elated with the single-horned rabbit Sabea.

“Hou that is amazing”

And in her sight, was an Ex-Demon king Goul who was sitting in the living room chair drinking ea – His alias in the human world is Gozaru-raised an admirative voice.

And

At the same time, Varissa made a supreme escape from the house as she escaped back outside “Wh….why is the demon lord….in the house”

The Varissa who couldn’t comprehend the situation became drenched with sweat while trembling in front of the entrance door.

As for the person inside the room,

….fumu, a fast body maneuver as always….worthy of respect…

Gozaru felt admiration toward the agile movement of the Varissa.

As always looking at some strange things in a strange way.

Gozaru who left the demon lord castle, walked nonchalantly on the road while taking stops in the cities, and reached the Houtrou city.

“I though of trying to enjoy being a normal person, however, it didn’t go as I wanted”

He purposely didn’t use the teleportation magic and walked to the houarou city, he got lost several times but each time asking the people for the direction he somehow made it to this city.

Even so, after listening to the story in detail, he finished the journey which a normal person takes 1 year in few days, so the party felt amazed and couldn’t help but smile bitterly.

Soon after, Gozaru ate the dinner in Furio's house and,

"I don't have anyone I know other then Furio-dono and this household….so I might be a nuisance but can I live here for a certain amount of time?"

Saying so he lightly bowed

To this Varissa desperately tried to deny it with her face looking like she was about to cry, "Are you really thinking of kicking out the Gozaru-san who is in need of help?"

With Lys's word, she could only swallow her opinion.

…Finally…I was able to reach here nya

Hellcat – Uliminus was hiding in the shade of a tree near the Furio's house and she sighed while feeling helpless.

that Ex-demon lord-sama is really tone-deaf for the direction nya…when I though he was going the Houtarou town nya…he suddenly went on to the opposite direction nya.

After confirming that Gozaru was going was going to stay in Furio's house, with a listening magic, Uliminus, "I guess I should go find somewhere I can stay for the night nya" saying so stood up

but

"Aa, Uliminus you were here" behind her Gozaru suddenly appeared and grabbed Uliminus by her neck.

"U…Unya!? Goul-sama!?"

to the sudden situation, she couldn't comprehend what just happened, she struggles to go down while her face becoming red.

"it's Gozaru. you, when I thought I detected your presence…what are you doing here?"

"Nya…nyathing nya!? it was just coincidental nya!! Coincidence nya!! I just happened to pass by nya!!”

“oh well, it doesn’t matter. But it is already late at night. how about we stay for a night in Furio’s house. Of course, I already go the permission”

“unya!? I, I, I, I will camp out around here nya. don’t worry nya”

Gozaru easily carried the resisting Uliminus and brought her to the Furio’s house.

In the end, she was kind of forced to stay for a night in Furio’s house.

As an old friend from the time in demon lord’s army, it was decided that She was going to sleep together with Lys but, “…Nee, Uliminus. You still awake?”

“…I’m already asleep nya…”

“I guess it’s fine if you are sleeping…than just think of this as me talking to myself. long ago Uliminus, you used to like Gozaru right? are you still in love with him?”

“…I already forgot nya…”

“was it you who helped Gozaru when he got lost…?”

“…I don’t know nya…”

“Wasn’t it for Gozaru that you came the way here?”

“..I have no idea what you are talking about nya..”

“…Then are you fine with Gozaru dating Varissa?”

“I won’t let him get taken by that stupid human nya….a…”

To Uliminus, who stood up kicking her blanket, Lys looked at her with a teasing look, showed a smile to her.

Uliminus who realized she was played through, became red and “…I was sleep talking nya…you shouldn’t think too much nya…”

saying so she went inside her blanket and hidden away from the world but, she was played by Lys for the whole night.

..a few days later

Uliminus opened a sundry goods store on the outskirts of Houtarou town.

“…I really have to say my thanks for this time nya”

Uliminus thanked Furio who provided with the money for this business, she thanked him while looking defeated but, in her heart she was extremely grateful.

such a bothersome tsundere she was.

Many of the Silent ear member who were scattered around the region, Uliminus’s ex-subordinates came gathering inside this store.

With the money Furio gave as a starting line, the silent ear members went and got the materials around the country and started selling it in the city. Thanks to the shop having many rare items the business prospered from the beginning of the opening.

“I think Gozaru should also work to gain some experience what do you think?”

toward Furio’s proposal, Gozaru started working in this shop “Fu…Furio-dono, tha, tha, thank you for introducing a very useless person, ve, ve, very much, nya…..”

Uliminus thanked toward Furio while looking the other way.

Haah, really a bothersome tsundere.

However,

“I’m not really used to this world so I would like some helping hand” toward Gozaru’s proposal

“….wha….why should it ….be… me….pleassss…..”

Uliminus’s mood turned for a worse after deciding that Varissa was going to work in the shop too.

one way or another,

Ex-Demon lord and his ex-subordinate were added to the Houtarou’s citizenship ……

…At the same time in Demon lord Castle

“EEiI! You still can’t find that human’s whereabout! A! Fufun!”

“I…I’m very sorry, Yuiguard-sama”

Demon lord Yuiguard was causing ruckus as he was not able to pin point the whereabout of Furio And seeing such a scene, the three Devas,

“…We were too rash..”

“..true…”

“”…True….””

They were regretting it now that they joined Yuiguard’s side.

Chapter 33

“…un, quite a good result”

Furio who was inside the room for working in the house looked at the newly made shield made out of dragon scale, smiled in satisfaction.

“Husband-Sama is a very interesting person. You could’ve just made it with magic, it would’ve been a lot easier”

Furio smiled bitterly towards Lys’s word.

“How should I say it… It won’t be any fun if I did all of this with magic.”

When he was in his other world, he liked to do stuff like this, things like repairing the carriage, creating a shelf, he who took initiative on thing like this even during the creation of an equipment, even other than forging the hard to forge dragon scale handiwork, he tries to restrict the use of magic and worked with only his strength.

Even though his grip strength is abnormally powerful, he loves the act of creating things from base up.

till now the equipment he created like this, sold in the familiar weaponry shop, for the shop to sell it to the merchants, but, lately, Furio has been bringing his creations to the sundry goods shop, the ex-demon Uliminus is owner of UUGO.

“nya! Furio-dana, welcome nya”

in this Sundry goods shop UUGO the atmosphere might feel cozy and all, they pride in stuff like equipment, magic items, medicinal herbs and magic stones, even though it's not been much since the shop opened, it already has a prosperous business.

"This will help nya. We just got the order today nya"

Receiving Furio's shield, Uliminus hugged it happily.

"it was that customer, right? I shall make a run and drag him here" the Ex-Demon lord Goul, Gozaru as an alias who was looking from the side said it and was about to chase but

"Gozaru-dono! Stop! You, even yesterday dragged the customer here while holding his neck? that is no good. come, let's go together, I will show you how to do it right"

"really? I shall be in your care as always Varissa-dono"

saying so Gozaru left the shop while following behind Varissa.

At one time, Varissa misunderstood Gozaru with "I pointed the sword at him so he is here to kill me", and she was trembling with fear, but thanks to living togethere, the misunderstanding became gone, and lately she became capable of talking normally with him.

Seeing the back of the two, Uliminus showed a really displeased look.

"If you're that worried about him, then why not go together" toward Furio who said so while smiling bitterly

"I..I don't care at all nya! don't say weird things nya!"

saying so she frantically refuted it.

She really is a very bothersome tsundere.

The Furio now is living in the same house that he brought from the village in the south of the Cryload's castle town by a magic bag.

Because of the increase in the population of the family, Furio renovated the house by creating a new floor and remodeled the first floor, now first floor has 12 private rooms and a sharing space of living room – dining room – bath and several toilets.

the four female knights and Gozaru-Uliminus, the six of them live in the room on the 1st floor, and from there they leave for the work or the school or anything.

[I feel pity for Bily…..pray for her…I suggest…]

"…fumu"

the devil who rules over light and darkness Hiya was reading a book which was taken from under the Bily's bed.

A book filled with a drawing and commentary about it.

"This is really interesting…"

Hiya was reading it with all her heart put into it.

“Ha-, today I’m so tired…..tte…hawawa!?”

Bill came back to her room after taking care of the ranch she administers.

Hiya was in the room, and seeing the book she was holding, toward both she panicked and ran toward them while looking like a tomato.

“Aa, it’s Bily-dono. I’m sorry for the entering without your approval. I’m currently reading carefully of this book I found under the bed which seemed to be treasure, so please pardon my rude behavior “

“No good-desu! this is bad kind of thing-desu-! this is bad to look desu-! it’s not about being forgiven-desu-!“

Bily snatched back the book from Hiya’s hand

but,

“No, this book is rather interesting. This really makes my curiosity for knowledge excited”

“ha…haee!?”

Toward the book which was supposed to be in Bily’s hand was now back in Hiya’s hand, while feeling panicked she tried to take it back again.

“this, is very useful for my training inside the spiritual world, so I would like to ask your permission to borrow it, is it alright?”

“I can’t accept that-desu-! No-desu-! give back-desu!”

Toward Hiya who was frantically trying to retrieve back the book, Hiya showed a calm face and dodged the hand.

The title of the book Hiya was holding “How to become better in nightlife and 48 body position -Adult book -“

Bily-…she was at the age when they get curious over a love affair.

“Gi—Ve—Ba—ck—To—Me—De-Su—”

Bily decided in her heart that she will buy a safe with a lock, however against devil who rules over light and darkness, how effective it be……

….at that night in Furio and Lys’s bedroom “husband-sama why don’t we go to the hot spring next time” she asked him in a belly spoiled tone.

“hot spring? is there any that you would like to go?”

“Hai, this is from what I heard from Uliminus that in South there is a hot spring town called Kinousa and it seemed to be a very good place. They said the food is very tasty and I thought I wanted to go together with husband-sama”

Saying so Lys hugged Furio and put her face on his chest listening to Furio’s heartbeat.

“Than, let’s go together. we can go ask Uliminus about this in more detail tomorrow”

“Thank you very much! Husband-sama”

They had a nice time being on top of each other on this night

During the day today

“In Kinousa there are many types of effective hot springs nya, hot spring for things like healing fatigue, blessed with a children bath ..”

“Tell me more in detail of that!”

“ha? Healing fatigue nya?”

“no, about the Blessed with children of course!”

……Right now in a forest near Kinousa

“a….anou….Are you ok…Blonde haired hero-sama…”

in from of Allure who asked in a worried tone, Blonde Haired ex-hero lied in the floor while mourning with pain.

“…I don’t know what is this….what…this…the vicious thing which pours inside me…”

From the bag Blonde, haired ex-hero carried, a pitch black thing poured out and all went inside his body.

Inside the bag was the treasure he stole from the demon lord castle’s treasury.

Chapter 34

Inside Furio's household, on the daily basis, every inhabitant in the house eat breakfast and dinner together in the living room.

Furio and Lys couple,

Varissa the Female Knight – at present: Sundry Goods UUGO clerk-Broom the Female Knight – at present: In process of cultivating the farm – Bily the Archer - at present: Administering the ranch—

Single-horned Rabbit Sabea -Real Identity: Frantic Bear: pet and the proud member of the house security – till now there lived six people and 1 pet, but a few days ago new inhabitants moved in Ex-Demon lord Goul Aka Gozaru -At present: Sundry goods store clerk-Ex-Demon lord direct subordinate Uliminus -At present: sundry goods store manager-and so with the two added, the meal is eaten together with 8 people and 1 pet.

As for Hiya the devil who rules over light and darkness, does not need any food to sustain herself so in times like this she usually busy herself within the spiritual world, training.

Strictly speaking, inside Hiya's spiritual world exists an ex-dark grand magician Marissa's soul and right now she is being (The visual imagery is too extreme to explain) "Uliminus. I heard from Lys but, do you know where the Kinousa is located at?"

Furio threw the question at Uliminus while in a middle of the breakfast.

"Un? it's in South nya, and it is not that far nyaway nya"

According to Uliminus, you can reach there after climbing the mountain, but it is quite near if you calculate the distance by a straight line, so it is a place where you can easily teleport there using teleportation magic.

"If you are going then I can reserve a hotel nya?"

Since Uliminus told him this, Furio who agreed to it,

"How about we all go together?"

asked everyone who was surrounding the dining table

“Hu, Husband0sama….I thought it was only us two alone?”

“why not this is once in a while occasion, and I think more the merrier?was it bad? Lys?”

“that is true…but…”

“right right, I want to rest my body after all these days of farming, so I would love to go”

“motherf*cker no one’s asking you! Brossam!”

“Don’t be so mean…I just want to accompany you Mistress-samaaa”

“Stop acting cute bitch! A? Bily!”

“You want to say something? Delano? (Glare)”

“…(Furu Furu Furu)”

Scolded Brossam

Got pissed at Bily

Glared at Bily

Toward Lys’s angry hundred facial feature, if it was in past, Brossam would’ve been unconscious, but now, without any fear, she became capable enough to try to get some of her opinions in the conversation.

In the end

After the continuous argument, it was decided that Furio and Lys together go there first as a preliminary inspection.

……

….Few day later

hearing from Uliminus the success of being able to reserve a room in an inn, the two headed out for the Kinousa.

The two who arrived near the Hotspring town, with Furio’s teleportation magic, “I’m really feeling excited right Husband-sama♪

Lys smiled happily as she hugged Furio’s arm, and all, but

Next instant, her smile became Ice cold.

“…what is that?”

the Kinousa hot spring town in front of them and inside the down was a huge monster raging the town.

That monster roared loudly and destroyed building after building.

Seeing this scene Lys became speechless as she stood there.

“…wa…wa.”

Lys who couldn’t keep her anger as she started trembling

“What the fuck are you doing, being a fucking hindrance! Bastard! “

Lys, as she dashed toward the monster, changed her appearance to that of a huge wolf in an instant and tackled the monster.

And behind Lys and the monster’s tackling, Furio was making a strenuous effort in a different way.

Protecting the surrounding town from getting destroyed from Lys and Monster’s attacks, teleporting the people who were late to run, so that they won’t get swirled into the fight, and protecting Lys from getting harmed from the monster’s attacks, and soon he became the one who showed great ability in many things.

As Furio observed the monster, he saw it that the monster was raging around not because it wants to rather because it was in tremendous pain.

And so it wasn’t able to use it’s power to a maximum as it was losing against Lys in her wolf form.

After few minutes of battle, Lys succeeded in pushing the monster into the forest.

“You motherfcker….shall atone your sins with your life for disturbing our loving time”

She pointed her sharp nail toward the fallen monster, but than

at that moment, a single woman blocked the way.

“I’m sorry! this person is not doing this because he wants to, it seems like some sort of poison entered his body and he went berserk” saying so she threw the bag she held onto toward Lys.

Furio stopped Lys who was still going to attack

“…this is”

Furio scrunched his eyebrows as he looked at the inside of the bag inside it was full of treasure like rings, necklace, collar and gems, from them a demon’s poison pouring out.

After showering with this much Demon’s poison, it’s not weird that a human becomes a demon.

“…I can’t just leave it be”

Furio saying so extended his right hand toward the demon.

“I’m sorry! please forgive him! please spare us!”

the woman tried to stop Furio with her hand desperately and protect the demon suddenly, this time as if Demon was trying to protect the woman, stood in front of her and threw himself toward Furio.

“…Don’t worry, I won’t kill him”

Saying so Furio chanted a Demon sealing magic.

next moment, the Demon’s poison which was coating around the monster started falling rapidly toward Furio’s right hand and changed into a pitch black gem.

After all the Demon’s poison came off,

Blonde Haired ex-hero’s appearance was present.

After stealing from the demon lord castle's treasury, Blonde haired ex-hero was on his escape but, while on his way, he was suddenly coated with the demon poison coming from the treasures and became a demon.

Demon lord castle is a place where a large amount of Demon poison present as it gathers from the manas of the great demons, and so the gems and treasures got coated with a poison as it rested.

Furio looked at the woman -Allure-and Blonde Haired ex-hero, "I shall buy this bag from you guys.

The treasures inside are coated with too much demon poisons so you won't be able to sell it or carry it" saying so he took out a bag filled with gold from his magic bag and gave it to the Blonde Haired Hero.

"and, you should drink this medicine. it's for just in case there might be a leftover demon poison, this can suppress it" saying so he gave a jar filled with medicine.

"…I don't accept charity"

The Blonde haired hero inserted his hand inside the bag filled with gold and gave around half back to Furio.

"..money for the medicine…and, I shall think the remaining gold as a price for the bag which was rightfully mine"

Saying so the Blonde Haired hero and Allure both left toward the depths of the forest.

"…Husband-sama is too kind"

Lys slightly pouted looking at the direction blonde haired hero disappeared into and hugged Furio's arm "and that is why he is so wonderful"

After that

Because of the Blonde haired hero in his beast form raging in the town, the whole town closed the stores, and they were left with nothing so they headed back home.

“…I should’ve killed…that bastard….”

Lys said so in her heart as she gritted her teeth

Chapter 35

A month after the Monster incident in Kinousa

They finally got a contact about the reopening of the businesses of Hot spring town, and so the Furio Household,

“Last time us 2 weren’t able to have a lovely time together so it is obvious we should go there one more time together!”

To Lys who insisted on this idea was “everyone’s been waiting for a month already so why don’t we go together with everyone this time”

Lys tried insisted on her idea even after hearing Furio’s word but whispering in her ear,

“We can ask for a room for us alone, so how about it”

“…I guess….if that is how it is then…”

and finally consented, so now everyone was allowed to go together to the Hot spring.

They can’t just close the not Sundry goods store UUGO since it opened not so long ago, so the manager Uliminus, Gozaru, and Varissa the worker stayed there and decided that they join the party later at night.

and the rest teleported to Kinousa hot spring town with Furio’s teleportation magic that day before lunch.

“…this time should be fine right”

After confirming that there was no monster on lose destroying the town, Lys showed a relieved expression and hugged Furio’s arm.

the town still had some traces of the destruction but it was healed to the point of not being a hindrance toward the operation of the Hot spring town and even though it’s been less than a day since the town restarted their operation there already was a crowd of people.

“O! That must be the inn we are staying”

Brossam who was looking at the map and moving pointed at the large inn.

there existed one of the most established inns which had its pride on its meal, it was written so in the introduction pamphlet.

“…Tasty….meal….(drip)”

“Uwa!? Belano! saliva! stop drooling”

Belano who was peeking at the introduction pamphlet drooled.

Like so they entered the inn and checked in.

Lys who made Brossam responsible for checking in,

“this is Drizzling rain’s place, right? that place? this is the key? Husband-Sama! let’s go! let’s go now! Let’s hurry there!”

Pulling Furio by his arm and dashed in a very hurried manner toward their rented room.

"..otto, A, I'm sorry for this"

Brossam who finished with the checkin noticed there was a group of people waiting in line and left the place after lightly greeting them.

"I'm done so let us go too"

And so she leads everyone toward their own rooms.

……

"Sorry for making you late. Next customer, please"

Soon after Brossam finished checking in behind her who was waiting,

"…Oi, what am I supposed to do after going toward that woman's place? Fufun"

"According to my investigation, we must register our name, Yuiguard-sama" while talking to each other in a lower tone, the group approached the woman at the receptionist desk.

this party is a group of the Demon lord Yuiguard and his direct subordinates.

Because of the previous crushing defeat, the Demon lord army's moral went downhill.

and as a way to improve the situation

“How about we invite the direct subordinates to go to a place where human race are enjoying the Hotspring”

Toward Fufun’s proposal for the trip, Yuiguard put the idea to a practice.

And they all transformed into that of human so they can enter the human race’s town, and even so the males camp had a really bulky and large body.

So with a lot of such males, the group stood out even in the lobby of the inn and gave out a foreign sort of presence.

“hot spring, I see….I heard that it has a good effect on the skin but…”

The Snake Queen Yorumeet was feeling sort of restless as she was feeling conscious about her skin condition.

“I heard that there is an Alchohol here, and we can drop the formalities for today right?”

The Death Horse Slape laughed unceremoniously while drooling with saliva ““Even the Food is delicious-ne? I’m so hungry-ne”” the double-headed bird Fugy and Bugy, today was in the form of two humans as they gestured exactly identical to each other.

And similar to the demon lord’s three devas, other direct subordinates were enjoying with excitement as they impatiently waiting for the check in to be done.

In front of them, Fufun stood acting as a lead by registering the name in the inn.

…what alias should I use for this time….

While registering the group's name, after 16 of them, the ideas for an alias ended and she was frantically going through her brain as his back was drenched with sweat.

New Demon Lord army

this group had no logistics as they were all muscle heads so toward this kind of things they were really bad at it.

…….While the Demon army group was having a hard fight at the reception desk….in one of the corners in Hot spring town

"hey, a person from the souvenir store. I would like to ask about something about it"

"Yes? what is it?"

"It would've been amazing if you could tell me the location of this hot spring town's Cherished palace"

Cherished palace is an establishment in which contains the books on the topic starting with Sexual manners and information regarding the Humans and Animal's sex.

"Aa, the Cherished palace. Unfortunately, that establishment was destroyed during the demon incident so they are still closed" toward her word, the devil who rules over light and darkness-Hiya, showed an astonished expression and fell onto her knees in the place.

"wha!? What!?"

….. I can’t enjoy the Cherished Palace in which roused my curiosity over this area of knowledge……

Chapter 36

Lys's activities were done in swift.

Leaving behind everyone else, hugging her husband Furio's arm and pulling him into the inn room, then placed their belongings, "Husband-sama! Hot spring-desu! Yanagi spring-desu! A spring for blessing one with a child!"

She repeatedly saying it as if she was under a curse, and dashed while pulling Furio toward the outdoor spring.

It is a local specialty for a tour of the 7 highly effective hot spring inside the Kinousa aTown.

And inside one of them, Lys,

Dashed inside the hot spring facility called Yanagi which grants a blessing to get a child, "Husband-sama! come, let's enjoy the bath together!"

"Cu, customer-sama!? this is not a mixed bath so it will greatly trouble us!"

"Aa!? Don't disturb us! Our life long happiness at stake here!"

GASU

"I apologize for creating such a scene. Come Lys we can enjoy the Bath. Male and female spring alright With Out Making Any Scene "

"….I understand Husband-sama….I'm sorry"

Lys who came to her sense aft getting hit by Furio in her head, looked down while listening to Furio's word.

…..

"Hawawaa♪ this is really tasty!-desu"

Bily was shouting in delight as she ate the lunch in the large room at the inn.

"Truly, This is delicious!"

Brossam was also eating the fish food right after another and shouted merrily as she drank sake with it.

Right next to Brossam was a single horned rabbit, the pet of Furio Sabea -True form: Frantic Bear-crying Funsu Funsu in delight as it stood cleverly with two feet and placing the food on the table with its front leg.

“We especially got a permission for you Sabea to enter the room so enjoy this time to the fullest!”

Sabea nodded happily toward Brossam’s word and continued on its way to clear the food.

“….(Patan)”

And next to these 2 and one pet,

Delano fell unconscious with a red face after taking a single sip from the sake.

……At the same time. Demon lord army and its party inside their large room they were staying for a night.

“….Understood? Customer…if you ever do the same thing again, We will kick you out instantly alright?”

The Landlady of the inn showed an icy smile as she stared at the group.

In front of the landlady was, a Demon lord Yuiguard and his demon lord army’s party, who were all metamorphosed to a human form, groveling on the floor prostrating, while their head low.

the situation happened shortly after,

The group started their feast after the meal was delivered.

“Hou! It’s quite good for a human’s food”

“true that and the Sake is amazing”

“Barrel! Give me the Barrel! Hahahahaha”

“”Waai! Food-nari! Sake-nari””

The party was in high spirits as the delicious food and alchohol were served in front of them and soon they started a big luncheon party with wild singing and drinking.

It would've been fine if it was like this but

The Demon Lord Yuiguard,

"Everyone's already in high spirits! someone entertaining stuff! Come make this more fun " after the words came out of his mouth the room's atmosphere suddenly got suspicious.

One of the direct subordinate

"I shall show you my humble dance!"

he started dancing in a really weird way,

"You suck! Show me something more proper!"

and so one of the other direct subordinates threw a sake bottle
"Motherf*cker! It hurts!"

Soon a fight broke out as the one who got hit attacked the another one.

"Yo, You! What is wrong with you to dare kick my food!"

"Aaan, My Sake!?"

"You! don't push my barrel down!"

""Aaa! You stepped! You stepped on me! I won't forgive anymore-nari!"" the damage became bigger and bigger

Soon the fight destroyed more than half of the floor they were in.

and hearing such a loud fight the Landlady rushed in then, "You asshole! Stop this stupid fight!"

The Blizzard magic fell on them as it followed after the word and with this, the incident came to an end.

Before leaving the room

"Don't do anything stupid? understood?"

the landlady pressured them again with a strong warning and left.

“….that woman, is quite strong”

In front of such pressure, Demon lord smiled wryly as he was somehow forced onto prostrating.

As for Fufun

She tried to stop the rampaging Yuiguard and,

“Who the fuck! Don’t stop me!”

and was blasted onto the barrel by her head and lost her consciousness.

….Evening

“Than, I’m sorry but make sure nothing happen nya”

Uliminus who gave the shop’s managing to the member of the silent ear, since it was already a time when there were fewer customers and left the shop with the prepared baggage.

“Good work. Manager-dono”

“Let’s go Varissa-dono and Uliminus”

The Ex-demon lord Gozaru who was waiting outside with Varissa told Uliminus.

Because they are traveling to Kinousa with Gozaru’s teleportation magic, Varissa and Uliminus had to hug his arm right and left.

….how should I say it….it’s not bad nya

Uliminus’s face turned bright red and was feeling quite happy with the hugging of Gozaru.

A really complicated maiden’s heart’s tsundere

Teleportation was successful and,

“Umu, the inn must be that way”

“Id, Idiot nya! it’s that way nya! you’re idiot nya”

Uliminus pulled Gozaru’s arm back who was heading right opposite of the Hotspring town toward the forest, and behind them,

“Gozaru-dono is no match in front of Uliminu-dono”

Varissa smiled bitterly as she followed them.

after that, they were able to reach the inn everyone resided thanks to Uliminus.

……At the same time in Yanagi Spring

Lys who entered the Hot spring before lunch time were still in the spring.

Lys without any resting continuously stayed inside.

….Child…Child…Husband-sama’s….Child

Lys showed a euphoric expression as she imagined a second delivery of the another triplet with a total of six kids and living together with Furio.

And in the waiting room was a Furio who already was out of the hot spring way before, waited there while smiling bitterly — [Sponsor]

Chapter 37

Gozaru and other 2 after reuniting with the Furio and Lys who finally came back from the blessed child spring, went to the large room in the inn where the other 3 and one pet ate lunch.

“Right, I heard that the third floor was closed down, did something happen?”

“AA, from what I heard it was a drunk group caused a ruckus and destroyed the whole floor, now it is under repair”

Furio nodded toward Brossam’s word

At that moment

“You guys! Never come back!”

The landlady’s angry shout resonated around the place coming from the inn’s entrance.

“What’s wrong? Uliminus-dono”

“..no…somehow, I feel several familiar presences nya….”

“What a coincidence, Uliminus. Same here”

Gozaru and Uliminus looked at each other for a moment and

“..Oh well, We came here today to enjoy-nya, leave it be nya”

Saying so she drank the sake directly from the flagon.

That day

The group that caused great ruckus twice was banned from entering the Hot spring town, and their faces were posted everywhere in the Hotspring town.

The group was a Yuiguard’s group who metamorphose into that of a human.

……

After finishing their dinner, Furio’s group headed out for an outside spring inside the hot spring town.

Lys went to the Yanagi spring of the blessers for the child as if it was a matter of course.

….Child…Child…Husband-sama’s….Child

Inside Lys’s head she imagined the 3rd delivery of the triplets and being surrounded by 9 kids and Furio enjoying a lax life, Lys showed a euphoric expression.

Furio’s party all decided to bath in different outside spring other than Yanagi spring in which Lys went.

The group separated as male and female and entered their respective spring.

“Ha~, Hot spring works like this nya”

“Is this Uliminus-dono’s first time in hot spring?”

“Nya, I’ve heard about it but…and I don’t really like baths nya” (Hell “cat”~~~~ you get it right) Smiling bitterly she took off her clothes and headed to the water with Varissa and her group.

And at the exact moment

In front of Uliminus

“Aa, Uliminus. I’m sorry but I forgot my hand towel. Give me one”

Gozaru suddenly appeared by a teleportation magic.

Toward such a sudden appearance, the women party was caught off guard, and they didn’t really hide their bodily part and was confronted Gozaru with a naked body.

After a moment of pause,

Uliminus finally comprehended their situation,

She threw the hand towel she held in her hand like a rope toward Gozaru’s head as to hide his eyes by coiling it in his head.

“Furio-dono! There is an outrageous intruder in here and collect it back right now nya!”

As if it was answering to her shout, Gozaru’s large body disappeared instantly from the place.

The other customers were looking around wondering what was up but Uliminus and her group entered the hot spring as if there was nothing going on and so this stopped everyone's curiosity.

"…Gozaru-san, in the hot spring the male spring and hot spring is separated so please be careful next time"

"I see, it was like that. As you might know, I have zero experience on what so ever other than being a demon lord"

While inside the hot spring Gozaru held back of his head gesturing his apologies toward.

The group reunited after exiting the bath but "Asshole! What kind of idiotic thing you did nya! I will kill you nya!"

Uliminus scolded Gozaru who intruded the women's spring but Gozaru showed a vague expression making it hard to know if he really understood or not while smiling saying sorry, sorry.

Soon after they picked Lys who was staying in the Yanagi bath till the closing of the spring, and headed back to the inn together.

At first, they gathered at the place where Varissa and her party stayed and drank sake together but,

"Husband-sama…the blessed child effect..right"

And Lys with an excited expression held onto Furio's hand and pulled him into the room they were staying in and shut themselves there.

"Really, Human's Sake is really delicious"

"I have to agree on that nya"

Both seemed to take a liking to the inn's sake and drank it directly from the flagon.

Other than these two in Human member Brossam was the toughest when drinking but because she tried to follow the two demon's pace and got madly drunk.

"For Brossam to be intoxicated…It is my first time seeing it after so many years together"

"True that~…Even for me I don't have any memory of such thing happening~"

Saying so Brossam laid down

"Wha, what! What are you doing!?"

"Come on, it's not like you are losing anything"

She started sleeping while making Varissa as a lap pillow.

"What is that posture?"

Gozaru showed a confused look while seeing them.

"Aa, ma, that…it's like skinship like a joke….maa, it's kinda like that"

Varissa answered while smiling bitterly.

Toward her answer, Gozaru nodded lightly with fumu and “Then, I should try it. Uliminus I shall borrow your lap”

“Yesnya….wha, ha? He? Ny, nyanya!?”

Uliminus who were drinking sake while talking with Bily who was next to her panicked at the sudden appearance of Gozaru’s head onto her crotch, and her face turned bright red.

“Wai! Idiot nya!? This is a bad joke nya!”

Uliminus punched Gozaru with quite powerful punches but

It had no effect toward Gozaru and “Fumu, it is more comfortable than I thought”

Saying so he laughed loudly and grabbed Uliminus’s butt while still lying, to adjust his head so that it fits perfectly.

Toward Gozaru who don’t seem to bulge even after countless punching,

“..You can do whatever you want nya…I don’t care anymore nya!”

Uliminus drank the whole bottle in a single gulp as her face turned bright red.

As always, such a bothersome tsundere.

After this, Gozaru actually started sleeping and so Uliminus was forced to stay in the same position for the whole night till morning.

Next morning

“Husband-sama it was really fun♪ let’s come back again ”

Lys with a bright smile on her face hugged Furio’s arm.

“If your leg got numb you could’ve just move the head out of the way”

“You who is a source of all this say that nya!? Aa!”

Uliminus’s leg got so numb because she had to keep her posture till morning, was being piggy ridden by Gozaru.

Uliminus was ashamed as she buried her head in Gozaru’s back as her face turned bright red.

“A~….it has been a while since I had a hangover ”

“I don’t have any memory of you Brossam having a hangover?”

“Bily also don’t have-desu~”

“…(Ku)” – Holding her head because of the hangover

Other than Belano who got a hangover after a single sip of sake, the other 3 was talking merrily.

And below everyone else, the single-horned rabbit Sabea skipping while crying Funsu Funsu happily but, its body, was one size bigger than last night.

It ate way too much.

After Checking out with the inn,

Everyone teleported using Furio’s teleportation magic back into the house in Houtarou.

……

….This one is quite not bad…..

In one of the corners of the Kinousa Hot spring town

Inside the Secret palace which was under repairing, Hiya who controls over light and darkness was reading the books which were originally placed on the secret palace's shelves, which she took from the temporary box that contained all the books.

…I see, there was such a position also…I see this field of study is very deep…

Hiya decided to work harder in spiritual world's training, as she was reading the book.
I don't have to mention it but she intruded the place illegally.

Chapter 38

…. Few day later after coming back from the hot spring trip in Furio household

In Furio household, there exists a refrigerator.

That refrigerator is set with an ice magic stone and so it is able to maintain a stable static temperature, which allows the foodstuffs to keep its freshness.

Usually, because Magic stone is expensive and the refrigerator requires it to be supplied with a magic stone every once a year, so it is not spread amongst the common family.

This magic stone is made of Furio's own mana and so it allows for constant free supply of it.

Although it is superfluous to say so,

Furio who analyzed the refrigerator with a magic, he is already able to reproduce the refrigerator with his own hand.

The introduction became a bit long but

There exists an item of which was never seen before placed inside a refrigerator which is located in Furio household's kitchen.

"…Lys-dono, what is this yellow fruit?"

"This is you know Varissa, a sour fruit called, Lemo~n"

“Sour? ….what for? If it is sour then it is not meant for desert after the meal? …and this much….A! You are planning to cook something with this right!”

“You are wrong. I prepared it beforehand so that it won’t be too late when needed”

Saying so Lys’s face turned slightly red,

“…I read it in a book and it said that when pregnant, one starts to crave fro sour stuff”

[A secret I will tell you…..this is a foreshadowing for the upcoming future….]

……

…Magic kingdom Cryload Castle. Office room

The Ex-first imperial princes, now Princess Queen, was showing a haggard ish expression as she processed the documents in which was stacked to about a meter.

After the dismissal of her father the formal king, as a new leader and she started doing the office works for the leader but as she read through the actual situation of many affairs, it resulted in her face becoming bluer and bluer.

Anyhow, half of the total expenditure of the countries money were used without having any form of evidence and most of them were of unknown use of money.

After asking the people who worked in the castle for a long duration of time, the former king only cared about buying himself feathering his own nest, and so management of the country was done by his loyal subordinates.

So to hear what the loyal subordinates of the former king had to say, she asked for them to come to the castle but everyone went missing without leaving behind any trace.

If the princess queen just asked the silent ear in which she had a very friendly relationship, capturing them would be easy but this is about the inner workings of the castle and so she hesitated to ask the outsider about it.

And as a result, she is frantically trying to rebuild the inner workings of the country with the newly recruited fellows.

"…Father…no, that motherfucker….he should just die" [tlnote: you get it mother fucker hahahaha….fine I will stop..]

She showed a vacant expression as she looked at the mountains upon mountains of documents still increasing while mumbling some stuff.

…….

…Houtarou Town . Sundry goods store UUGO

"Low-quality goods?"

Furio showed a dubious look after hearing Uliminus's story.

"Right nya. We are having a quite a trouble dealing with it nya"

According to Uliminus's story

Lately, the goods that are being spread around from the nearby towns of the castle, has a very high rate of having a low/fake goods mixed with them.

“Inspection before buying is without any problem nya, but it is becoming more frequent that when the items arrive it somehow changed into a low/fake goods nya”

Uliminus apologized toward Furio who is an investor.

“Uliminus, I know how excellent your Silent ear are. And I believe there is a problem with the guys who outwits you guys.”

Uliminus nodded toward Furio’s words

“Right now we the silent ear are gathering the information nya. We might move depending on the result nya”

“If there is anything I can do then you can ask me anytime. I will help you with everything I can”

“What? Is the situation becoming dire enough for Furio-dono to act upon? Then I will also help! Uliminus”

Gozaru who entered the chat.

But Uliminus glared at his face.

“…..this is not the problem a person who will beat up people when the story gets too complicated be allowed nya”

“But sometimes fist can talk more than a mouth right?”

“…remove that smug in your face thinking you said something cool nya”

Furio smiled bitterly at the exchange the 2 did.

…..

…in some building's underground room

"And are you done with the handiwork for shipping toward the south"

"Yes, sir. I've already slipped a low/fake goods with the goods which have been inspected. All the real goods are sent toward the west"

"That is good. Make sure you don't get caught"

"Roger, and I have some proposal toward the reinforcement of the private army"

"What is it? Tell me"

"While we were trying to recruit some mercenary, we heard some interesting information…it seems that the demon race in the west…as a caution I will borrow your ear…."

"….Fumu…fumu…umu, I understand, procced the plan in that way"

The man laughed hysterically right after a man which seemed to be a subordinate disappeared, and he touched his golden cane while showing a strange smile.

Chapter 39

…In one of the corner in Magic Kingdom Cryload castle's town.

"..it's located in that place"

The member of the ex-demon lord army's silent ear, now a representative for stocking goods in the castle town, Glenial, whispered to one of the other ex-silent ear members who was also in charge.

This day,

The Silent Ear was able to get ahold of an information of the group's base that circulates fake/bad goods in the castle town and planned to exterminate them once and for all.

….we shall attack

As soon as Glenial raised her hand in the air as a signal, the group dispersed into the darkness and flooded inside the building.

As planned they creep in using the ventilation duct

Nu!?

At that moment inside the ventilation duct, Glenial was using as a passage suddenly shutdown like a guillotine and blocked the entry.

Glenial was somehow able to dodge the guillotine by using full strength to crawl back, in a hair's breadth of time, however, the problem was that she as a magic ninja was supposed to be familiar with these kinds of trap's presence but this time she was not able to detect it before the activation.

Glenial judged that because the trap was activated they must've been detected so, to not allow the enemy for escaping she changed the plan to directly force their way in and whistled lightly as a signal.

Following the signal, the members who came out of the darkness gathered in front of the door and forced themselves inside.

But

The room have already been emptied and in the center of the room, the man who provided Glenial with the information for the enemy base was sitting in the chair, dead.

Glenial clicked her tongue as she was over outwitted by the enemy and as a counter against the upcoming traps, she ordered a retreat from the building.

….At the same time in certain building's room…

"It was exactly what you told me. If we were even half day later we would've been caught"

In front of this man was a crystal which was displaying Glenial's charge into their old base in realtime.

"I told you right…kekeke. As long as you guys don't betray us we shall protect you guys….it's that kind of contract we did…kekeke"

The man who was sitting in the chair showed a fearless smile toward the man who has the appearance of that of a demon.

……..

Demon Lord castle. Inside throne room

"What is happening? A? Fufun tell me"

Demon lord Yuiguard raised an irritated voice as he looked toward his direct subordinate Fufun the Succubus.

After succeeding as a new Demon lord, he followed the custom of calling the region chiefs of the demon race as to celebrated the inauguration of the new demon lord and at the same time to swear loyalty to the new demon lord.

There were many people who openly showed a dissatisfaction but they swore loyalty and celebrated Yuiguard for his ascendence for the time being.

However, there has been no representative or chief of the demon races of the west side.

"I'm sorry, Yuiguard sama. I've already sent a messenger on the questioning of their absence so please give us some time"

Fufun prostrated on the floor and reported on the situation.

Toward the scene Yuiguard snorted, and showed a really displeased expression, he crossed his arms and looked at the ceiling.

….the guys in the west were rebellious even at the brothers time too but…

“Oi, was the west’s demon race a Fox?”

“Yes, it is ruled by a demon fox sisters, gold fox, and silver fox”

Remembering the two’s appearance Yuguard showed an annoyed look.

“I smell something suspicious”

“Ha? Ano? Do I smell? Umm, I shower everyday so…..”

“Stu!? I’m not talking about you!”

Yuiguard punched Fufun who panicked and started smelling her body.

A tsukkomi without any mercy.

…….

…few day later – Houtarou town’s sundry goods store UUGO

“It’s best to think that they have some form of help from a person of demon race since magic ninja Glenial was outwitted”

Uliminus nodded toward Furio’s words.

“Even though we destroyed one of their base in castle town, the main body ran away nya, meaning they will resume their activity soon nya”

“Owner-dno and Teacher dono, we are still gathering more information so next time we will definitely not make the same mistake again”

Glenial who came to report deeply bowed her head.

“Anyway, it’s been a while Glenial. I’m happy to see that you are well”

“I am not eligible to hear such word…I can’t find any words to describe my gratitude”

Glenial literary cried toward Furio’s word.

“Report to me when something happens nya. Increase everyone’s caution since there might be a demon linked nya.”

“Ha, I shall keep that in mind”

“Furio-dono, I’ve already prepared the usual one nya”

Uliminus points at the barrel located in one of the corners of the shop, after the talk with the Glenial, finished.

“Thanks for this every time. It really helps”

“…even so, the mistress is still not pregnant right nya?”

“It’s still unknown. But she won’t stop with “we must keep a stockpile of this!” and doesn’t listen ”

Saying so Furio smiled bitterly

Inside the barrel was filled with le~mon.

Lys who read in one of the books that when one become pregnant she will start craving for sour stuff, and so she asked Uliminus to supply her with the barrel full of Le~mon every day, which Lys keeps them in stock.

“I guess soon I might be forced to build a storage just for Le~mon”

Furio couldn’t help but smile bitterly while he carried the barrel.

…Cryload castle . Treasury

“You guys! Chase them! Don’t let the intruder escape!”

Bolaris the female knight heard from the urgent message she got that some unknown group intruded the treasury, without any care that she was just sleeping, she rushed to the scene and took control.

“How did they intrude the treasury this easily! What were the night guards doing!”

“It’s that they seemed to have utilized the secret passageway we didn’t know of and entered the treasury room”

“Eei, annoying! Capture the intruders and bring people to that passage! Understood?”

“Ha!”

Magic kingdom Cryload Princess Queen’s Imperial Guard unit 2nd regiment captain Bolaris.

She is one of the loyal subordinates who worked under when Princess Queen was still a first imperial princess. And as soon as Princess Queen took the throne she was brought back to the castle and was given a mission on the security of the castle.

However,

….If I completely destroy the intruder, then the Queen princess-sama would definitely be overjoyed.Aa, just imagining the scene where that face which shows her youth complementing me of success, this Bolaris can become as strong as thousand men!

Her love for the loli like an adult didn’t change.

Her sexual interest is still a secret to anyone.

Because the group was very familiar with the special passageway in the castle, most of them were able to escape from Bolaris’s attack.

“…At least we were able to capture this guy here”

Bolaris clicked her tongue as she stepped onto one of the captured people.

“Make sure that you guys stuff something in his mouth and cover his nose and mouth so that he won’t kill himself. We are taking him in front of the queen and wait for her new instruction. Everyone else go check to see what were stolen from the treasury”

Hearing Bolaris’s order the surrounding knights and guard swiftly started doing work as instructed.

“Umm, Bolaris-sama”

“Unn? What is it?”

“That…thing you are carrying in your armpit, what in the world is that?”

“Nn?”

Hearing that she realized that she was carrying her favourite body pillow.

And in that body pillow, Belano the magician’s appearance was drawn.

“Don’t mind it. It is just my pillow”

Belano-dono,even though we were separated, I Bolaris, always thinks about you in every moment possible….

Bolaris’s dignified look when she was giving out orders.

Many things were ruined.

……at the same time in Furio household

“What is it? Belano?”

“…..”

“Nn? You feel cold? Did you catch a cold?”

“….”

“You think that is not it? Oh well, just sleep after making yourself warm”

Belano nodded toward Varissa who was sleeping in the same room but her shivering didn’t stop for the whole night.

…….

….Cryload castle town, at certain room

“…did you guys fail?”

An old man sitting in an extravagant chair asked while clicking his tongue feeling annoyed.

“No, we were able to acquire what the demon wanted but…the security in the treasury changed a lot which resulted in quite a loss for the intruding unit. ”

“Fumu, they changed the security system compared to when I was there….Oh well, it’s fine since we were able to get what we wanted. Quickly prepare the arrangement for delivering the item.”

“Umm…. the one who usually arrange the delivery of the item is out on a mission and…that…how should we do this?”

“How the hell would I know! This is the job for you lowly people! Search the one who know and finish it quick! Don’t waste my time!”

The man who got scolded by the old man left the room in a panic.

I’m fine as long as I can become richer. For that I will do anything, now there is nothing binding me.

The old man laughed suspiciously, Ku Ku ku

….A few moments later. Cryload castle. Throne room

The Princess queen showed an astonished look as she looked at the man who Bolaris brought as a guy who was caught from one of the intruders.

“These guys stole few items from the treasury. After this, our intention is to interrogate this man”

Bolaris spoke of the situation while bowing in front of the Princess Queen.

But Princess Queen seemed to not have heard and kept on looking at the man’s face

“You are…father’s…”

Yes,

This man was the Princess Queen's father formal king's direct subordinate.

He was one of the people who were banished together with the King who were admonished of his authority.

…behind today's incident….my father is somehow related?

Princess Queen didn't want to believe it.

But the intruder in today's incident used a secret passageway that even the Princess queen herself didn't know.

After banishing the king she order for a change in the security system of all the castle just in case, and thanks to that they were able to find the intruders.

If my father is somehow related to today's incident, then I can only execute…..

He still is her only real father even if she dismissed and banished him.

Princess queen felt her mind going blank as she was listening to Bolaris's report.

…Cryload castle, in a certain warehouse

"Here, I was able to collect the barrel as always-con"

The woman who seemed to wear a merchant kind of costume as to not invite any attention pointed at the barrel her subordinate brought and floated out a smile.

"I didn't expect one of the Demon Fox race's treasure, was hidden in the castle's treasury-kokon"

A woman wearing a china dress greeted the woman who just came back.

"Adding onto the other treasure we gathered with this one Oriental fan, we no longer have to be that disgusting Yuiguard's vassalage.-con"

"It seemed like a messenger to question our move came to our castle kokon but we can have a bloodbath and directly attack kokon"

Woman wearing China dress ordered her subordinate.

Receiving the order the subordinates rushed out in great speed.

"From our grand father's time, this treasure Oriental fan in which were lost in time-kon”

“A legendary magic item which said to be able to even extinguish the volcano kokon”

The two held onto the barrel’s lid

“”Let see~kon”kokon”

Both opened the lid together.

And

The two’s movement stopped.

“…what-kon? This yellow thing?”

“…fruit? Kokon”

“Sour!? This! Le~mon Kon!”

“Wa!? The content is different kokon!?”

The two at first though that maybe the treasure is below all these Le~mon so they frantically searched inside but contrary to their expectation inside the barrel it contained Le~mon and Le~mon only.

“That human…betrayed con? It seemed like we Demon fox sisters are underestimated kon”

“Let’s go interrogate them kokon! If the situation ask fro we Demon fox sister will eat you all kokon”

….at that time in Houtarou town. Sundry goods store UUGO

“..what is this nya?”

Uliminus scrunched her eyebrows as she saw the item inside the barrel in which was supposed to contain a barrel full of Le~mon.
Inside it was not the lemon she usually gets but an item in which were heavily covered with a cloth.

Chapter 41

Demonic Fox sisters and her group were making transactions with the formal King in Cryload castle town's wholesale market.

Both had their merchant group to launch a business.

Gold fox and Silver fox sisters opened G & S firm

Formal Kings opened, Successful Gold Tree firm

Both used a dummy representative name and registered to the Cryload Castle town's merchant guild.

They make transaction out in the open in the wholesale market.

Formal King utilized that to deliver the treasure they acquired using the wholesale market to send it to Gold fox and Silver fox family.

It's fine to directly send the goods but more than half of the goods they deal with are stolen goods.

When a magic item is registered as a stolen goods in merchant guild, it will be searched using the search magic throughout the whole country by magicians in the castle.

And if the item were to be detected even once, it will be automatically pursued throughout the country, so it is very bothersome.

But the items which are dealt in the Wholesale market are all judged to be inspected and so it is exempt from having it searched with a search magic.

The inspection depends on the money……

Like this, they made several transactions of stolen goods but this day, an unexpected situation occurred.

That day, the usual subordinate of Ex-King who usually dealt with transactions with the gold fox and silver fox family was absent so a new guy went to the hidden location and waited for the fox family to get in touch with him.

The Gold and silver fox family weren't notified of the change in the person in charge so they weren't able to get in touch with them.

↓

The Barrel Ex-King's subordinated had was very similar to the barrel which was filled with le~mon that Uliminus's subordinate usually bought, the subordinate misunderstood the Le~mon dealer with the Ex-King's subordinate and got in touch with them.

"this is that good (Le~mon) right?"

"Aa, it's that good (stolen good from castle)"

in here the good was traded

Later the Gold and Silver fox family's subordinate who is in charge of dealing with ex-king's group received the news of the change of the person in charge.

The guy in charge of dealing with ex-king found the person who was supposed to be supplying the sundry goods store with Le~mon

“hmm, something’s wrong, where are they”

seeing the scene he mistook the guy for the subordinate of ex-king and got in touch with him “this is that good (Stolen good from the castle) right?”

“Aa, it’s that good (Le~mon). oh, you aren’t the same usual guy “

“That is same for both of us”

….Houtarou town – Sundry goods store UUGO

“this is definitely not a normal item nya”

Uliminus looked deeply at the item she found inside the barrel.

The fan which is made of 7 different coloured bird feature and the feather part has a size twice the normal person’s face.

and in between the feather, a huge magic stone were placed on, which made it clear that it was a magic item.

“I am unable to tell what it is since when I casted a goods appraisal magic it was blocked by some sort of concealment magic”

Uliminus placed the item down and showed a dejected look as she indicated her failure.

“How about using a Gozaru-dono’s magic?”

“Regarding item appraisal, Uliminus has a higher skill level than me. so if she can’t then I can’t”

Gozaru laughed loudly as he listened to Varissa’s word.

“True nya. we can’t do anything in this situation nya. for now, I will search for the true owner of this barrel nya, but I’m not sure if we should return it just like this nya”

“Ara? You say such a mean words kon ne”

“We just want you guys to return it back without any resistance kon”

A voice sounded from the entrance of the shop.

When Uliminus looked at the sound’s direction, she saw a 2 woman who wore a china dress.

…demonic fox sisters nya

Uliminus who used to work as a leader of the espionage of Demon lord army instantly knew of the 2’s identity.

however, the gold and fox sisters failed to identify the true form of Uliminus and Gozaru who had hidden their aura and has a human form.

“That is not usable by your human race kokon. Give it back without a hitch kokon”

Silver fox extended her hand toward Uliminus while unleashing a demonic aura in her back.

“…If I give back without resistance, will you go back home nya?”

“Of course Kon, we will protect a promise kon”

than

Varissa blocked the two as she stood in front of Uliminus.

“When you demon race threaten people while showing your demonic power, nothing good will come out of it. Say it what are you planning to do?”

She took a fighting stance as she confronted the silver fox.

….fumu, a very dignified and beautiful look as always

Gozaru had such a thought as he was looking at Varissa from the corner of his sight.

…this guy..”fumu, a very dignified and beautiful look as always” is thinking stuff like that nya

Uliminus glared at Gozaru who was looking at Varissa while clicking her tongue in annoyance.

A tsundere with a very sharp intuition

“For a mere human race to dare point a sword at me…you are quite courageous kokon ne” saying so the silver fox singled the gold fox behind her with her eyes.

the Gold fox who received that took out an item shaped like a gourd and opened it’s lid.

“As a way to show respect to your courageous deed, I shall ask you your name kokon”

“I am Varissa. A knight and this shop’s worker” gold fox pointed the gourd toward Varissa as she heard her speak.

“Knight Varissa!”

“What is it?”

Varissa answered Gold fox’s call.

next moment

Varissa’s body were absorbed inside the gourd the gold fox were holding.

seeing such a scene, Uliminus couldn’t help but float out a dumbfounded look.

Demonic Suction gourd

when an Item user calls out a person by his/her name and when that person answers it, he/she will be absorbed inside and will be dissolved inside it as it changes them to a mana, one of the demonic fox tribe’s treasure.

…at the time in west side at the sealed shrine

“Oi, Allure, this is the armour you told me about? the strong’s armour? Fufu, it’s quite comfortable to wear”

“Yesuu, it should be”

“…wait a moment, in Status window it’s written “insane one’s armour” not strong one?”

“ee? tha, that is a cursed item to make one’s mind go insane! Blonde haired hero-same! take it off quickly!”

“….”

“Bl, blonde haired hero-sama?”

“GUAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!”

Chapter 42

The gold fox shook the demonic suction gourd in which absorbed Varissa, “Even though you are a from lowly human race, you can become a sacrifice to help in destroying Demon Lord Yugiuard kon”

Laughed with kusu kusu

The silver fox looked at gold fox for a while and returned her gaze back to Uliminus and “Now, give me back the fan if you don’t want to become like her if so I might save your li”

And that moment the two’s conscious faded.

…wha, what happened kokon

Silver Fox who woke up noticed that she was lying down in front of the store.

Next, her was Gold fox who were also lying on the ground.

As if Gozaru was following their movement Gozaru showed himself from the shop.

Silver fox who extended her hand asking Uliminus to return the fan.

And Gozaru who approached them from the side punched the 2 and blasted them toward the outside of the store.

“Yo…you, For a mere Human race, what kind of power kon”

Saying so Gold fox pointed her demonic suction gourd toward Gozaru.

Uliminus who was looking at the scene while inside the shop.

…idiot nya…what kind of an idiot one must be to answer that after seeing the scene before…

“It’s Gozaru”

…There exist here nyaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

THe gold fox who were holding onto the demonic suction gourd showed a suspicious smile and “Gozaru!”

Called his name.

…idiot nya…what kind of an idiot one must be to answer that after seeing the scene before…

“What is it?”

…There exist here nyaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

Uliminus held her head as she screamed in her mind.

Gold and silver fox showed a smug face as they looked at contempt at Gozaru.

However,

Gozaru’s body wasn’t absorbed inside.

Toward the reality Gold fox and silver fox became astonished and “Go, Gozaru!”

“What is it?”

“Gozaru”

“What?”

“Gozaru! Gozaru Gozaruu!?”

“I’m asking ‘what’ already!”

Gozaru

At present an ex-demon lord living as a human True name is Goul and Gozaru is his alias Magic item demonic suction gourd only become effective with the ‘real name’.

..a few minutes later

Silver and gold fox were rolling on the street looking like a ragged cloth.

They were completely dominated by Gozaru’s overwhelming power.

“….wha, why is this guy so strong…kokon”

“…We can’t even fight back…against mere human race….kon”

Gozaru picked up the demonic suction gourd which was rolling on the floor while ignoring the moaning of the two and placed it in his mouth, then drank the content in one go.

Seing the scene, the two who were on the floor showed a dumbfounded look.

The content inside demonic suction gourd has a dissolving liquid powerful enough to melt the dragon's scale.

And this human drank it without any care.

In front of the two who were perplexed, Gozaru spits out something from his mouth.

The thing that was spit out was a Varissa, who fell onto the floor.

"…Is your liver fine nya?"

Toward Uliminus's question filled with concern "Aa, it's not a big deal, all I might feel is some annoying pain for 2 to 3 days"

Saying so the Gozaru

"I don't need this anymore"

Crushed the demonic suction gourd he was holding.

Seeing the scene,

"O, our aaaaaaaaaaa"

"Ma, magic item nooooooooooooooooooooo"

The gold and silver fox sister shrieked while on the floor.

Gozaru approached Varissa who were on the ground without any care toward the two.

"Varissa, Are you fine? Are you alive?"

Varissa who were hugged by Gozaru opened her eyes slowly.

but , her eyes has been dissolved by the liquid and lost light, and many places around her body have been dissolved and melted.

"..Go, Gozaru-dono, I'm alive again…., that, I wish you don't see my appearance in such a state"

"Why? You are beautiful as always?"

“What kind of idiotic…, I can’t see but parts of my face and body is melted right? I….”

“Even so, you are beautiful. If you are really worried about your outer appearance than”

Gozaru extended his right arm toward Varissa.

Next moment, Varissa’s eyes’ light returned and the dissolved body parts were healed.

“The appearance you were in, still had a Varissa-dono’s beautiful dignified heart?”

“..I beg you, please forget about that…It hurts me as a Woman”

Saying so Varissa hugged Gozaru by his neck.

In this moment,

The gold and silver fox sisters returned to their fox form and fled from the place.

…at that night in Furio’s household.

Thanks to Furio who came back Gozaru’s liver were successfully healed.

“The dissolving liquid already started melting your internal organs and it was quite dangerous”

Furio smiled bitterly while he ate dinner looking at Gozaru.

In front of his gaze Gozaru was eating as if nothing happened and “Is that so? Fumu, surprisingly I didn’t know the things about my own body”

Saying so He laughed

Ha Ha HA

Varissa’s face turned red as she gazed at the Gozaru And seeing her appearance Uliminus looked ill-humouredly at Varissa.

…Oh well, Today is not her fault I guess nya

Lightly sighed as she brought her chopsticks toward the side dish.

..Westside . Gold and silver fox group’s base “…wha, what is this kokon?”

Silver fox raised her voice as she looked around the base speechlessly.

The base was build using the natural cave but, the mountain which contained the cave were completely destroyed.

“Silver fox sister…the truth is while you guys were in the town a weird warrior attacked and…

That guy was very strong for a single person and….he destroyed the whole mountain.”

Silver fox showed an astonished expression as she heard the report from one of the female fox subordinate.

“Where is he kon? Of course, you captured him kon right?”

“Tha, that…We were able to destroy his armour but he escaped afterward and…”

“Idiot! We were humiliated to this extent and you let him escape just like that kon!”

Gold fox screamed as she held her head in despair.

Using this cave as a base, the demon fox tribe gathered the magic items which were spread around the country and using it defeat the new demon lord Yuiguard and become the new demon lord.

But that ambition came to a deadlock, and the two held their head as they felt nothing but regret.

..At the same time in the certain forest.

“…we somehow survived…even that “insane one’s armour” broke ”

“Haiii, even though we destroyed that mountain which a mountain people lived completely”

“..We were a desperate ourselves, just leave it be. Rather, Allure”

“Yes?”

“Next time when getting the item’s information make sure to investigate it more properly”

“Yessuu, I understand blonde haired hero-sama”

Chapter 43

….Princess Queen’s Office room in Cryload castle

Princes Queen was frowning as she looked at the region’s report.

She already knew of the perpetrator being former king on the incident in which a group intruded the castle’s treasury since the guy they captured confessed everything.

However, if they announce it to the public, we don’t know what kind of consequence it will lead since she herself is a blood related to the criminal.

Putting that in mind princess queen ordered for a capture of the former king and his group in secret, and punish them afterward.

But, former king’s group detected of the castle’s movement than escaped from the eyes of queen’s force, and continued their evil business.

The family conflict is on the whole continental scale.

…at a certain building’s room.

“You’re quite good to be able to find this place”

Former king spoke as he looked at Gold fox and silver fox who came to visit by themselves while leaning on the chair as always.

“Well, I have many ways to search up on wherever you go Kon”

“So, you must understand the consequence of betraying us right kokon?”

Gold and silver fox sister walked to his side and started laughing, kusu kusu.

“…What is your business here? I’m sure you didn’t come here for a chit chat”

Former king clicked his tongues as he looked irritatingly at the two.

He became angry just looking at the two because of the grudge of them lowering payment on the last job.

“Well, don’t be so cruel to us kon”

“I’ve brought a good info for both of us kokon”

Saying so the two touched the former king's chin alluringly.

"Last time, when you intruded the castle you took another treasure with the treasure I asked for, and you are keeping it hidden with you right kon?"

"…the good is not in the contract. I don't have any reason to hand it over to you people"

"that was not what we meant, we are saying we are buying that kokon"

a female fox henchmen came from the entrance area when Silver fox raised her hand and showed former king what she had in the bag she was carrying.

Inside the bag contained quite an amount of gold.

The former king who saw it showed a brightened expression.

"I'm sure you know it but this is a stolen goods from the castle so it is very hard to sell it on the public channel? Even we had to hide it in the sealed treasure box which was casted with Concealment magic."

When a magic item is registered as a stolen goods in merchant guild, it will be searched using the search magic throughout the whole country by magicians in the castle.

And if the item were to be detected even once, it will be automatically pursued throughout the country, so it is very bothersome.

Especially it could be thought that the castle's mages are frantically searching the good former king directly stole from the treasury.

"That's why we are buying it kon"

"You see, we have someone who we want to take revenge kokon"

Saying so the two showed a bewitching smile to former king

..at certain location in a certain road..

"Blonde haired hero-sama….we haven't seen a single carriage coming"

"…true that I was thinking of getting a lift but I didn't think no carriage came"

"Our food and drink supply is already getting low-desu~"

"…There is no other way but to walk"

“Wa, wa, wait for me Blonde haired hero samaa~….My leg got numb from all this walking and….”

“…too sloppy”

“A!? You don’t have to carry me on your back like this”

“If you really think like that then just shut up and rest on my back so that you can resume walking by yourself”

“….hai”

…Houtarou town in Sundry goods store UUGO

“This is today’s supply nya right”

Uliminus signed the document after checking the baggage that was placed in the storage room.

“”Hee, Compared to your shop’s scale, you got quite a lot of the supply”

Seeing this scene Furio was watching it.

Furio in his old word worked in the merchant as a person in charge of a baggage delivery.

So He can calculate or estimate the things like shop’s scale, ins and outs of customers and how much supply is required.

“Lately, I’ve been buying the supply by collaborating with other shops nya, since with this I can get a slightly cheaper price”

“As expected from Uliminus. You are already doing things like that, I’m honestly surprised”

“Re, really nya? Even if you praise me, nothing but a juice will come out nya”

Saying so Uliminus hummed happily as she skipped to the shop.

Furio who stayed behind stared deeply at one bag in peculiar.

…at Evening in front of Sundry goods store UUGo

The castle’s guard captain who was in front of Sundry Goods Store UUGO asked the several mages behind him.

“Hai, there is no mistake”

“The reaction is coming from inside this shop”

All the mages pointed at Uugo’s direction and answered it.

“Yoshi, I understand.

Everyone get into your position! We will surround this shop!”

Toward Guard captain’s word 100 or so guards answered and went into their formation, as they scattered around the shop to surround it.

“The remaining guys help me with the questioning of the workers.

As long as a situation calls you can forcibly capture them.

Understood! Make sure to not any escape!”

After confirming everyone’s nod, the guard captain took a step inside of the shop.

There existed two human shadows observing the scene from a far.

“It became interesting Kon”

“This is fun to watch Kokon”

Chapter 44

A little while ago: Cryload castle in one room.

“Is that true!?”

The guard captain who heard of the Mage’s report who came rushing to the room while out of breath.

“There is no mistake! The treasure which was stolen from the castle that day has been picked up by the search magic!”

Inside the crystal that the magician was holding, had a map of the surroundings of the castle and in it was a luminous point which was moving.

“Where is the location?”

“It is moving to the east from the castle. Seeing it’s speed it must be moving by a carriage or something”

Looking at the map inside the crystal, guard captain grasped the sketched the location out “If they keep on going….it’s in the Houtarou town direction. Yoshi, We will pursue them this instant! Ask the Order of knight for reinforcement! Make sure to get back the treasure and destroy that bandit!”

The guard captain was in charge of the area around Treasury during that incident night. And so he allowed the bandit to intrude and made the biggest failure to let them steal whatever treasure they took.

“Everyone, this time, there can be no mistake like last night and we are to take revenge on what they have done to us!”

…At present: houtarou town sundry goods store UUGO

“Everyone inside the shop stop moving!”

Guard captain who entered the shop through the entrance looked around and raised his voice.

“Yes yes, I won’t move nya. So what is your business here nya?”

Uliminus who was sitting on the counter showed a very high-quality fake smile and asked the guard captain in a very fakely friendly manner.

“You are the owner here? Every other worker here line up. We will have to investigate the customers too so line up on that side, till your suspicion is cleared”

Following the Guard captain’s word and,

Varissa who was inside the shop working as a clerk lined next to Uliminus and the other four who were a customer, who looked hesitant and confused lined up at the wall side.

“Now, Owner. Confess without any resistance. Where is the treasure you stole from the castle?”

The guard captain asked Uliminus in a very overwhelming way.

Three lines of guards are surrounding Uliminus and took a stance so to attack anytime.

“Guard captain, isn’t this a bit too rude? Without even verifying it yourself and started calling us as a criminal?”

Varissa who was standing next to Uliminus retorted while having her arm crossed.

“In castle magician’s search, a stolen treasure’s whereabout were detected.

And it’s pointing at this shop!? There is no evidence stronger than this!”

Guard captain raised his voice as he bashed the table making a loud noise.

Toward that varissa showed a furious expression as if she was about to jump toward him.

“Calm down, you both stop being so passionate”

Suddenly Furio appeared while emitting a very nonchalant atmosphere.

“Na!? You from where!?”

Around Uliminus – Varissa and Guard captains place a knight is surrounding it in 3 line making it impossible for even a cat to pass through.

And toward Furio who appeared without a hitch inside this tightly guarded place, Guard captain, and the knights showed a confused look.

“Ma, that doesn’t matter and let’s talk about what’s more important”

Saying so he coughed loudly once and

“According to this country’s law, the right to capture the criminal while on search by a Magician, in other words, to judge the opponent to be a criminal, has to first find the stolen item, isn’t that right? That is to say, before you find what you are finding for, it is actually against the law to suddenly judge or treat the opponent as a criminal? ”

Suddenly being bombarded with a logical explanation the guard captain couldn’t even retort back and his mouth wasn’t able to move.

“Guard captain, for now, let’s follow what this fellow said and find the stolen good”

Seeing the Guard captain’s condition, the magician raised his voice.

“Tha, that is true, yes. I understand, I shall apologize for treating you as a criminal or of the sudden. But to help magician search is a duty of the citizens in this country and there is no choice to deny. You know this right?”

Toward Guard captain who came back to his senses, Furio said.

“Ee, of course. We will help you guys with the best of our ability”

Furio answered with a smile.

…at the same time in a slightly far away building from Sundry good store UUGO

The gold and silver fox sisters laughed loudly as they watched the sundry goods store get surrounded with knights and guards.

The two were denied from receiving the magic item from Uliminus the other day and Gozaru who were working there destroyed the magic item demonic suction gourd plus they were beaten to pulp so there anger never resided.

Even so, they are not idiot enough to confront them face to face since they just got beaten to a pulp. And so the two thought up a plan.

The two knew former king kept one of the stolen goods from the castle’s treasury.

First hey buy it from him

Next place it secretly inside the sundry goods store UUGO's supplies.

Of course, til mixing it to the supplies they never took it out from the treasure box which was casted with concealment magic.

And that item is a stolen item from the castle so obviously, it is registered as a stolen item in which the magicians in the castle are for sure to be desperately searching.

If they mix it like that with other supplies without a doubt the castle guards will be sure to go investigate Sundry goods store uugo.

With that happening everyone working in sundry goods store uugo will be arrested and forced to be brought back to the castle for them to be executed without retort.

But because there are an abnormal thing like Gozaru there so they won't be easily captured and most likely escape, even if the result ended like that they will be forced to live their life running away.

"Those guys are finished kon"

"Its a punishment for humiliating us kokon"

Saying so the two laughed kusu kusu

"It should be soon that they will find the Flame shield which is the stolen magic item kon"

"To be arrested or to fight back…both results are the end for them kokon"

…sundry goods store uugo

"Guard captain! There! The reaction is coming from the wall!"

"I see! It's there!"

Guard captain looked toward the direction in which the magician pointed at And in the wall, a flame sword was hanging as a decoration.

"….ha? Sword?"

The stolen item was definitely the shield…….

The Guard captain looked at the sword and then at the magician in panic.

..at certain road…

“…Um, I’ve never asked before but Blonde haired hero-sama…”

“What is it? I shall answer this as an exception”

“Anou, What is your, Blonde haired hero-sama’s name? It’s kind of that you know to keep calling you “blonde haired hero” …and…”

“…everyone in the castle was calling me with that…so there shouldn’t be any problem”

“But, it would be nice for me to call you by your real name and….”

“…I don’t feel like talking right now, the conversation ends here”

Saying so Blonde haired hero looked back looking really irritated.

After that Blonde haired hero didn’t say any word and continued walking while carrying Allure on his back…

Chapter 45

..Houtarou town Sundry goods store UUGO

“Oi, did you really pick up the reaction? Is it without a doubt that it is reacting to the sword on the wall?”

Guard captain was drenched with sweat as he looked back at the magician who was checking the reaction by a magic for several ties.

“Ha, Hai, there is no mistake, I’m getting a reaction from that sword….”

The magician couldn’t hide his panic-stricken face as he looked at the crystal.

…it’s not the sword…the item which was stolen from the castle was a shield, a flame shield…but, but, ba, it’s a fact that this item is showing reaction…does it mean,

“Thi, this sword is a stolen item! explain the acquisition route of it!”

The captain guard looked at Furio and Uliminus than raised a loud voice.

True this is not the same as the stolen item we are searching for. But it is without a doubt that this item is reacting as a stolen good. then there is no mistake that this is a good stolen from the castle!

It was an action done because of such thoughts.

“here nya”

Uliminus who still kept her business like smile gave him one document.

“th…this is!?”

Guard captain’s face turned blue as he received the document.

/ This treasure, the flame sword will be given to Uliminus who worked great merits to the Kingdom of Cryload.

Magic kingdom Cryload first imperial princess/

This document which contained the first imperial princess’s signature and an engraved seal of the kingdom by a magic, this made the perfect evidence that the sword was presented by the now Princess Queen to the owner of the shop

Uliminus.

“After analyzing it with magic, it is without any doubt that this kingdom’s seal is real. it also has no problem with the written record “

The official document that the kingdom issues contains the record of magically engraved kingdom’s seal.

And by analyzing it with magic, you can find that authenticity of the seal by looking at the official document, which comes with a content.

As a matter of fact, this sword bestowed by the princess queen after Uliminus and her group silent ear help in defeating the New king Yuiguard’s invasion. So both the sword and the document is real.

No matter how you look at it, she has the authentic document which has a record of the item too.

But there is a reaction coming from the item as a stolen good.

Toward this unexplainable situation, guards and magicians were holding their head in a headache.

Furio was looking at the scene with a slightly evil smile.

Furio was the one to create this situation.

Furio noticed before hand that there was an item omitting a stolen item reaction mixed with other supplies.

This stolen item magic is only learnable by the magicians in the castle who specialize in stolen item search magic and all but

Furio received a divine protection from the god when he was summoned to this home, and with that he mastered every magic in this world when he turned to level 2, of course, he acquired this search magic without an exception.

Furio however, thinks this stuff as “so everyone who was summoned to the world is like that hah” , and he quite honestly believes that the blonde haired hero is no exception….even though the blonde haired hero can’t use magic….

Furio detected the flame shield emitting a reaction in which showed that it was a stolen item which was mixed with the supplies.

Usually, the reaction the item emitted are nothing but a sign to show it as a magic item but, when the castle registered it as a stolen item and was picked up in the stolen item search, the reaction will be changed and will start signaling out the stolen item's detailed information to the surroundings.

"…I sense that shitty fox sisters' presence in the item"

Gozaru who was listening to Furio detected the gold and silver fox sisters presence in the item,

"that shitty fox sisters must be doing this for a revenge nya" and Uliminus and the party who noticed the intention, they came up with a plan.

First with Furio's magic casted a concealment magic on the shield as to not get noticed.

at the same time copying the shield's stolen item reaction to the sword.

and so they were waiting to see what kind of play the gold and silver fox sisters were going to do.

Furio snapped with his fingers in his left hand while he was looking at the panic-stricken guards and magicians.

and at that moment, Magician who was looking at the crystal as if he was about to eat it raised a voice

"sto, stole item reaction….disappeared!?"

.. A Few minutes later in a certain building slightly far away from the sundry goods store uugo

"…nothing is happening kon…"

The castle knights and guards were surrounding the sundry good store uugo without any change.

but there has been no change to the scene even after few people went inside the shop.

"something should happen already around now kon"

-ton ton

“They are taking way too much time kokon”
